FRIDAY, APRIL 26, 1833.

WESTMINSTER, April 20, 1833.

THIS day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorized by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by his Majesty, for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

An Act for punishing mutiny and desertion, and for the better payment of the army and their quarters.
 An Act for the regulation of His Majesty's royal marine forces while on shore.
 And several English, and five private Acts.

Queen's House, St. James's Palace,
 April 18, 1833.

This day the Count de Ludolf, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the King of the Kingdom of the Two Sicilies, had an audience of Her Majesty to deliver a letter from his Sovereign:

To which he was introduced by the Earl of Denbigh, Her Majesty's Lord Chamberlain, and conducted by Sir Robert Chester, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies.

Treasury-Chambers, April 23, 1833.

The King has been pleased, by His royal letters patent under the Great Seal, to appoint the Right Honourable Sir Henry Parnell, Bart. Henry Berens, and Henry Lewis Wickham, Esqrs. to be His Majesty's Commissioners for enquiring into the department of Excise, and for examining into the whole system of the management and collection of that revenue, in all its branches, throughout the United Kingdom.

CROWN-OFFICE, April 23, 1833.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present
 PARLIAMENT.

Town or Burgh of Dundee.
