LANDS IN STIRLINGSHIRE

FOR SALE.

To be Sold by Public Roup, within Martin's King's Arms Inn, Falkirk, upon Thursday the 25th day of July 1833, at two o'clock afternoon,

THE Farm called DOUPS and BENTEND, in the Parish of Denny and County of Stirling, extending conform to a measurement thereof made in 1816, to 204 acres and 3 roods Scots measure, with the Teinds thereof, and Pertinents of the same.

This Farm has been long occupied as a grazing Farm, and is well known in the neighbourhood to be well adapted for that purpose. The steading on the Property is substantial, and has a slated roof. The Property has been let from year to year for the last six years, by public roup, and has produced during that period an average rental per annum of

£113 0 6
Deduct public burdens, - - - - - 3 12 8½

Remains free average Rental, £109 7 9½

The Property producing this free average rental, and which is not only well secured, but would almost to a certainty be augmented, by letting the Lands to a respectable tenant for a period of years, it is proposed, in order to insure a Sale, to offer at the low upset price of £2,124 : 7 : 8, being somewhat under twenty years' purchase of the free average rental of the Property above mentioned.

Farther particulars will be learned, and every necessary information given, on application to Messrs. Macmillan & Grant, 37, York Place, Edinburgh, or Messrs. Russel & Aitken, Writers, Falkirk.

Mr. Benny, the Tenant, will shew the boundaries.

A general meeting of the Creditors of JAMES TURNER, late of the Hamilton Arms Inn, Hamilton, held upon the 29th June last, an offer of composition was made by the Bankrupt, which was considered reasonable, and the Trustee was directed to call another meeting, for deciding thereupon. The Trustee accordingly intimates, that another meeting of the Creditors will be held within the house of Thomas Henderson, Innkeeper, Hamilton, on the 29th current, at 12 noon, to decide upon the said offer, in terms of the Statute.

July 2, 1833.

John Cullen, W. S. Agent.
