The magnitude of the benefits to be acquired for so small a sum as the present price of an Irish Ticket, cannot fail to recommend this Lottery to the notice and estimation of the Public; and as it consists of only 30,000 Tickets, there is every reason to believe, that, at the near approach of the drawing, the Tickets will advance considerably in price.

The Tickets and Shares in the above Lottery, are now selling in all the Licensed State Lottery Offices in Great Britain and Ireland.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

WILLIAM MACRORIE, Haberdasher in Edinburgh.

The appointment of William Ellis, writer in Edinburgh, to be trustee on the said William Macrorie's sequestrated estate, having been confirmed by the Court of Session, he hereby intimates to the creditors, that the Sheriff of the county of Edinburgh has fixed Friday the 29th of September current, and Friday the 13th day of October next, at 12 o'clock noon, within the Sheriff-clerk's Office, Edinburgh, for the public examination of the bankrupt; and that a general meeting of the said creditors will be held within John's Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, upon Saturday the 14th day of October next, for naming Commissioners, and instructing the trustee as to the management and recovery of the estate; and he further requires such of the creditors as have not already lodged their claims and grounds of debt, with oaths of verity thereon, to lodge the same with him, at or previous to the said meeting; and failing thereof, to do so on or before the 17th of May next, being ten months from the date of the application for sequestration; with certification to such as fail to comply with this requisition, that they shall have no share in the first distribution of the bankrupt's estate.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

ROBERT DUNMORE, Merchant in Glasgow.
Intimation is hereby given, that upon application made by the said Robert Dunmore, with concurrence of a creditor to the amount required by law, Lord Armadale, ordinary officiating on the bills, was this day pleased to sequestrate the whole real and personal estate of the said Robert Dunmore, and to appoint his creditors to meet within the Tontine Tavern in Glasgow, on Tuesday the 26th day of September current, at one o'clock afternoon, for the purpose of chusing an interim factor; and at the same place upon Friday the 27th day of October next, at the same hour, for the purpose of electing a trustee upon the said estate, in terms of the statute.

Edinburgh, September 13. 1797.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

ANDREW HUNTER, Merchant in Leith.
Upon an application to the Lord Ordinary on the bills, his Lordship, by interlocutor dated 14th instant, appointed the whole creditors to meet within the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, upon Wednesday the 4th October next, at one o'clock afternoon, for the purpose of chusing a new trustee or trustees in succession upon the sequestrated estate of the said Andrew Hunter, in the room of the deceased Alexander Nairne, accountant, the former trustee.

Of which notice is hereby given to all concerned.

Edinburgh, Sept. 15. 1797.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

MESS. GOW, HARRIS, AND CO. Tanners in Arbroath; and of ALEXANDER CRICHTON, late Shoemaker there; and of GEORGE GOW, Merchant in Arbroath, JAMES HARRIS, Manufacturer in Wardmillcroft, and ALEXANDER FLEMING, Tenant in Cairntown, as Individual Partners of that Company.

That at the first general meeting of the creditors of the said company, and of the individual partners, held on the 7th of September current, immediately after their second examination, in terms of the sequestration, George Gow proposed to pay his creditors, as an individual, a composition of fifteen shillings per pound, payable at nine and fifteen months after that date, by equal portions; and Alexander Fleming proposed to pay his creditors, as an individual, a composition of fifteen shillings per pound, payable at twelve and eighteen months after same date, by the like proportions, on condition of these compositions being accepted of in full payment of all their claims—That these offers were by the said meeting of their creditors as individuals, thought just and reasonable, and the securities offered for payment thereof were unanimously declared sufficient. The creditors therefore instructed their respective trustees to advertise another meeting twice in the Edinburgh Gazette, for the purpose of deciding upon these offers, in terms of the bankrupt act, 33d Geo. III. c. 74. That at the meeting of the creditors of Gow, Harris, and Co. and of Alexander Crichton, held the same day, the saids George Gow, James Harris, and Alexander Fleming, with the permission of their own creditors, as individuals, met at same time, offered to the creditors of the said company, and of Alexander Crichton, the sum of thirteen hundred pounds Sterling in addition to the company's own funds; three hundred pounds hereof payable at Martinmas next, and the remaining one thousand pounds payable twelve months after that day, security for payment of which would be given immediately upon the company's creditors and the creditors of the said Alexander Crichton accepting, and they named their cautioners accordingly, which offer was by the creditors of the company, and of Alexander Crichton, then present, unanimously declared to be just and reasonable, and the cautioners proposed were also unanimously declared sufficient; and therefore they ordered the trustee to appoint and advertise in the Edinburgh Gazette another meeting for the purpose of deciding upon this offer.

These are therefore requesting the creditors of the said Mess. Gow, Harris, and Company; and of Alexander Crichton; and of the said George Gow, James Harris, and Alexander Fleming, as individual partners thereof, to attend a meeting to be held in the house of Mrs Fildan, vintner in Arbroath, on Monday the second day of October next, by twelve o'clock noon, for the purpose of considering and deciding upon the above-mentioned offers; in terms of the before-mentioned act of parliament; entitled "An act for rendering the payment of creditors more equal and expeditious in that part of Great Britain called Scotland."—8th September 1797.

COPARTNERY DISSOLVED.

THE Copartnery carrying on Business at Ayton Paper Mill, under the firm and designation of CHARLES and ROBERT KERR, Paper Manufacturers at Ayton Paper Mill, is this day DISSOLVED by mutual consent.
