NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN,

THAT it is intended to apply to Parliament next year, (so far as powers for carrying into effect the purposes underwritten, may not be obtained in the present Session), for leave to bring in a Bill for making and maintaining a Railway from the Town of Stirling, to or near to Larbert Bridge, with two several lines from thence, viz. one to or near to Lock Number Sixteen on the Forth and Clyde Canal; and the other to the said Canal at or near to a Tunnel or Archway under the said Canal, called the Ironstone Pend, and from thence to a point on the line of the intended Edinburgh and Glasgow Railway, at, in, or near to the lands of Bonny-side; with a Branch Railway from the main line to or near to Alloa and Kersie Ferry, on the River Forth; and another Branch Railway from the said main line to or near to Bannockburn; with inclined Planes, Viaducts, Bridges, Tunnels, Archways, Aqueducts, Depots, Wharfs, Offsets, Turning, Passing, and Loading Places, and other necessary Works connected therewith: which Railway is intended to commence at the Town of Stirling aforesaid, in or near to the Lands of Claycroft, and to proceed from thence in an eastern direction through the Kerse to and through the Lands of Carnock, and from thence in a southern direction to or near to Larbert Bridge; and from thence one line will be continued and pass to, or near to, Lock Number Sixteen aforesaid, on the said Canal; and the other through the estate of Caermuir, to or near to the said Canal, at or near to the said Ironstone Pend, and from thence, passing by one or more Tunnels, Archways, or Aqueducts, under the said Canal, to the said point on the line of the intended Edinburgh and Glasgow Railway; and it is also intended by the said Bill, if necessary towards the making of the said Tunnels, Archways, or Aqueducts, to divert or alter, temporarily or permanently, the course or line of the said Canal, for the space of three thousand feet, or thereabouts in length, at or near to the said Ironstone Pend: And the foresaid Branch Railway to Alloa and Kersie Ferry is intended to commence at a point on the said main line at, in, or near to, the Lands of Carnock aforesaid, and to pass through the Lands of Dunmore, and Kersie, to, or near to, the said Ferry; and it is intended, towards the making of the said Branch Railway, to divert or alter the line of the Turnpike Road leading from Kersie Toll-bar to the said Ferry, for the space of three thousand five hundred feet, or thereabouts: And the said Branch Railway to, or near to, the Village of Bannockburn, is intended to commence at a point on the said main line, at, in, or near to, the Lands of Heartsmealing, or the Lands of Cockspow, and to pass through the Lands of Easter and Wester Greenyards, to, or near to, the Village of Bannockburn aforesaid: Which Railway and Branch Railways, inclined Planes, Viaducts, Bridges, Tunnels, Archways, Aqueducts, Depots, Wharfs, Offsets, Turning, Passing, and Loading Places, and other necessary works connected therewith, are, or will be, situated or made in, from, through, or into, the Parish of Saint Ninians, the Burgh and Parish of Stirling, and the Parishes of Airth, Larbert, Falkirk, and Denny, all in the County of Stirling, or some one or more of them: As the said intended Railway and Branch Railways are delineated on a Plan or Plans, and Section or Sections thereof, to be lodged with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Stirling, on or before the 1st day of March next: Which Bill will also contain Clauses, authorising and empowering Lands and other Property to be taken and acquired, and funds to be raised for the foresaid purposes; and Tolls, Rates, and Duties to be levied on and for the use of the said Railway and Branch Railways and other Works intended to be made and maintained as aforesaid: And it is intended to apply for power by such Bill, to deviate from the line or lines of the said Railway and Branch Railways respectively, or any one or more of them, as laid out, or intended to be laid out, and delineated on the Plans thereof, to be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the said County, to any extent not exceeding one hundred yards, on either side of such line or lines, where the Property lying within the said distance shall be included in the said Plans, and in the Books of Reference to be deposited therewith: And it is also intended to apply for power by the said Bill, to alter and amend, as far as is necessary towards the alteration of the line of the said Canal, An Act passed in the eighth year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a navigable Cut or Canal from the Firth or River of Forth, at or near the mouth of the River of Carron, in the County of Stirling, to the Firth or River of Clyde, at or near a place called Dalnuir Burnfoot, in the County of Dumblarton, and also a collateral Cut from the same to the City of Glasgow: and for making a navigable Cut or Canal of Communication from the Port and Harbour of Borrowstounness, to join the said Canal at or near the place where it will fall into the Firth of Forth:" Another Act passed in the sixth year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled "An Act for improving, enlarging, and extending the Forth and Clyde Navigation, and certain Harbours and Works belonging thereto, and connected therewith; and for making and maintaining two Branch Cuts or Canals from the said Navigation;" And certain other Acts recited in the said last-mentioned Act, which were passed in the eleventh, thirteenth, twenty-fourth, twenty-seventh, thirtieth, thirty-ninth, forty-sixth, and fifty-fourth years of the Reign of his Majesty, King George the Third, and an Act passed in the first year of the Reign of his Majesty, King George the Fourth, for enlarging, explaining, altering, and amending the said Acts, or relating to the said Forth and Clyde Navigation: And it is also intended, so far as is necessary towards the alteration of the line of the foresaid Turnpike Road leading from Kersie Toll Bar to Alloa and Kersie Ferry, to apply for power to alter and amend an Act which received the Royal Assent on 2d August, 1831, intituled "An Act for making and repairing certain Roads leading across the County of Stirling, and other Roads in the said County."

WM. GALBRAITH, Agent for the Bill.

Dated February 15, 1837.
