ST. JAMES'S PALACE, May 10, 1837.

CEREMONIAL of the Investiture of Major-General Sir James Lillyman Caldwell with the Ensigns of a Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath.

By command of the Sovereign, Major-General Sir James Lillyman Caldwell was conducted, with the usual reverences, to His Majesty, preceded by Sir William Woods (the Officer of Arms attendant upon the Knights Commanders), bearing upon a crimson velvet cushion, the star, ribband, and badge of the second class of the Order.

The sword of state being thereupon delivered to His Majesty, the Major-General, kneeling, was knighted therewith, after which he had the honour to kiss His Majesty's hand.

Then the officer of Arms, on his knee, presenting to the Sovereign the ribband and badge of a Knight Commander, the King was pleased to invest Sir James Lillyman Caldwell with the same.

The Major-General having again had the honour to kiss the Sovereign's hand, and having received from His Majesty the star of a Knight Commander, retired.

The King was this day pleased to confer the honour of Knighthood upon General John Gustavus Crosbie, Military Knight Grand Cross of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order.
