BY THE KING—A PROCLAMATION,
For a Public Thanksgiving for the many signal and important Naval Victories obtained in the present War.

GEORGE R.

WE, taking into our most serious consideration the indispensable duty which we owe to Almighty God for the manifold and inestimable blessings which these kingdoms have received at his hands, and desiring to manifest to our faithful and loving subjects, and to the whole world, the deep and devout sense which we entertain of his great mercies vouchsafed unto us, by prostrating ourselves before his Divine Majesty, and offering up, in the most public and solemn manner, our praise and thanksgiving for the interposition of his good Providence, in the many signal and important victories obtained by our navy in the course of the present war, have thought fit, by the advice of our Privy Council, to issue this our royal proclamation, hereby appointing and commanding, that a public thanksgiving to Almighty God, for these his mercies, be observed throughout that part of our kingdom of Great Britain called Scotland, upon Tuesday the nineteenth day of December next: And we do strictly charge and command, that the said public thanksgiving be reverently and decently observed by all our loving subjects in Scotland on the said nineteenth day of December next, at they tender the favour of Almighty God, and would avoid his wrath and indignation, and upon pain of such punishment as we may justly inflict on all such as contemn or neglect the performance of so religious a duty. Our will and pleasure is therefore, and we charge, that this our proclamation seen, ye forthwith pass to the Market Cross of Edinburgh, and all other places needful, and there, in our name and authority, make publication thereof, that none pretend ignorance: And our will and pleasure is, that our Solicitor do cause printed copies hereof to be sent to the Sheriffs of the several Shires, Stewarts of Stewartries, and Bailiffs of Regalities, and their Clerks, whom we ordain to see the same published: And we appoint them to send copies thereof to the several parish churches within their bounds, that upon the Lord's day immediately preceding the day above-mentioned the same may be published and read from the pulpits immediately after divine service.

Given at our Court at St James's, the twenty-ninth day of November, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, in the thirty-eighth year of our reign: GOD SAVE THE KING.
