JUDICIAL SALE of the BUILDING GROUND and BUILDINGS situated thereon, lately used as a Sugar-House, situated in Washington Street of Glasgow.

TO be Sold by Public Roup, within the Parliament or New Session-House, Edinburgh, on Wednesday the 15th day of November next, between the hours of two and four o'clock afternoon, in presence of the Lord Ordinary on the Bills, in virtue of a warrant pronounced by the Second Division of the Court of Session, that valuable Lot of Building Ground situated on the East side of Washington Street, of Glasgow, whereon are situated sundry Buildings lately occupied by Messrs. James MacNair and Son, as a Sugar House, together with the said Buildings and Steam Engine, and fixed Machinery therein.

The Ground extends to 1658 square Yards and 7 square feet or thereby, and being situated in the immediate neighbourhood of the Broomielaw or Harbour of Glasgow, is of great value, and the Buildings and Machinery are adapted for the refining of Sugar, or might be easily converted to any other Manufacturing purpose. The public and parish burdens, including feu-duty, do not exceed Eight Shillings per Annum.

The Estimated Rent on a Lease for a period of not less than five years duration, was proven to be £150 per annum for the whole of the Premises, or from £100 to £110 for the Sugar House and Yard alone, these being independent of the Steam-Engine, Machinery, and Utensils, the Estimated value of which was proven to be from £52 to £70 per Annum, without deducting Public Burdens and Feuduties.

The Proven Value of the whole Subjects under Sale is fixed at the Upset Price of £3200. The Proven Value of the Ground and Sugar Houses and Other Buildings thereon being £2650, and the Proven Value of the Steam Engine and other Machinery being, if Sold with the Subjects, £550, and if Sold to be taken down and removed, £525.

If not Sold in one Lot, the Ground and Buildings will be exposed in one Lot, at the Upset Price of £2650, and the Engine and Machinery in another Lot, at the Upset Price of £525, to be taken down and removed by the purchaser.

This last lot includes a considerable quantity of Lead, Copper, and Brass Articles. In the event of the Property being exposed and Sold without the Steam Engine and Machinery, the Buildings might be easily and advantageously employed for the purpose of Warehousing or Storing goods.

The Articles of Roup, and Title-Deeds of the Subjects, with Copies of the Memorial and Abstract, will be seen in the office of Mr. Adam Wilson, Depute-Clerk of Session, Register-House, Clerk to the Process of Ranking and Sale, and an order to see the Premises, and every information will be given, on application to Messrs. Mitchell, Grahame, and Mitchell, Writers, Glasgow, or Mr. A. G. Ellis, W. S. Edinburgh, the Common-Agent.
