TO CREDITORS.

THE Trustees to whom JAMES LANG, Book-feller in Glasgow, conveyed his stock in trade, effects, and debts, for behoof of his whole creditors, having now recovered, and converted into money the trust-effects, hereby intimate, that they are ready to make a division thereof among the creditors.—They therefore request, that such of the creditors as have not already given in their claims, with affidavits to the verity thereof, may lodge the same, with such affidavits, in the hands of Mr John Fleming, writer in Glasgow, on or before the 20th of March next, that they may be ranked, and draw their proportion, of the trust-funds; certifying those who fail to do so, that they will be cut out from receiving any part of the said funds.

The trustees also request, that the creditors will meet by themselves, or their agents properly authorized, in Mr Fleming's writing-office, on Monday the 2d of April next, to receive their respective dividends, and sign a discharge to the trustees therefor.

Not to be repeated.

Glasgow, March 1. 1798.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

MESS. JOHN MORRISON and COMPANY, late Merchants in Glasgow.

John Shirra, merchant in Glasgow, trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said John Morrison and Company, hereby intimates, that in terms of the statute, a final dividend of their estate is to take place on the 5th day of April next, and that a state thereof will lie in the hands of the trustee betwixt and that time, for the inspection of the creditors.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

DAVID CROSS, who was one of the Partners of John Morrison and Company, late Merchants in Glasgow.

John Shirra, merchant in Glasgow, trustee upon the sequestrated estate of the said David Cross, hereby intimates, that in terms of the statute, a final dividend of his private estate as an individual, is to take place upon the 5th day of April next, and that a state thereof will lie in the hands of the trustee betwixt and that time, for the inspection of the creditors.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

LUKE CROSS, who was one of the Partners of John Morrison and Company, late Merchants in Glasgow.

John Shirra, merchant in Glasgow, trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said Luke Cross, hereby intimates, that in terms of the statute, a final dividend of his private estate, as an individual, is to take place on the 5th day of April next, and that a state thereof will lie in the hands of the trustee betwixt and that time, for the inspection of the creditors.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

WALTER BERRY, late Bookfeller in Edinburgh.

Archibald Dunbar, writer to the signet, trustee on the said Walter Berry's sequestrated estate, having made up a state of the claims lodged with him since the date of the sequestration, and a scheme of division of the funds in his hands, the same, together with a state of the funds still unrecovered, lie at the trustee's house, No. 1, St John's Street, where they will remain for inspection until Friday the 23d day of March current, on which day the first dividend will take place.

NOTICE.

THAT in the Process of Ranking and Sale, originally raised at the instance of the deceased JOHN HOGG, Baker in Dalkeith, and now insisted in at the instance of JOHN LEARMONT, residing in Dalkeith, the Judicial Factor, against DAVID CURRIE, late Merchant in London, and his Creditors, the Lords of Council and Session, by their interlocutor dated the 24th, and signed 27th February next, ordained the subjects under sale, viz.—All and Haill these Two Parts of that Half-Coat Tenement of Land, with the Pertinents, lying in the Bridgend of Lugton, within the barony of Lugton, lordship and regality of Dalkeith, and sheriffdom of Edinburgh, as particularly described in the act of roup and title-deeds in process, pertaining to the said David Currie, to be exposed to sale by way of public roup, within the Parliament or New Session-house of Edinburgh, upon the 23d day of May next, between the hours of 4 and 6 o'clock afternoon, at the upset price of L. 390 Sterling, being the price fixed thereon by the Lords and ordained letters of publication; and intimation thereof to be expedited and executed in common form. Of all which intimation is hereby given, in terms of the foresaid interlocutor.

Mr MENZIES, Clerk.
