TO THE CREDITORS OF

ALEXANDER SINCLAIR, jun. Merchant in Elgin.

The trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said Alexander Sinclair, requests the creditors to meet in the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse, at Edinburgh, on Wednesday the 16th day of May current, to take into consideration an offer which has been made for the Shop Goods at the appraised value, and certain proposals regarding the composition offered to the Creditors—and in general, to give instructions to the trustee with regard to these matters.

Edinburgh, 4th May 1798.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

HENRY FARQUHARSON, Carver and Gilder in Edinburgh.

The trustee hereby requires the whole creditors to meet, within John's Coffeehouse in Edinburgh; on Thursday next, the 10th current, at 11 o'clock forenoon, in terms of the statute.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JAMES M'GOWAN, Spirit and Cattle Dealer at Whins of Milntown.

The creditors, at their meeting on the 26th curt. having made choice of William Telford, banker in Stirling, to be trustee on the sequestrated estates of the said James M'Gowan, and his appointment having been since confirmed by the Court, the Sheriff of Stirlingshire has, on the application of the trustee, fixed Wednesday the 16, and Wednesday the 30th of May next for the examination of the bankrupt, his family, and others acquainted with his business, within the Sheriff Court Hall in Stirling, at 12 o'clock mid-day, each of said days. At which diets of examination the attendance of the creditors is requested.

The third statutory meeting of creditors for naming commissioners, and giving directions to the trustee, is to be held within the Coffeehouse of Stirling, on Thursday the 31st of May, at 12 o'clock mid-day. Of all which intimation is hereby given in terms of the statute.

Stirling, 30th April 1798.

WILLIAM TELFORD.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JAMES M'KUNE, Vintner in Gatehouse.—That upon the 1st May 1798, the Lord Ordinary officiating on the bills sequestrated the said James M'Kune's whole estate, heritable and moveable, real and personal, and appointed his creditors to meet within his own house, in Gatehouse of Fleet, on the 15th day of May curt. at 12 o'clock noon, to name an interim factor upon his estate; and to meet again at the same place and hour, on Tuesday the 12th day of June next, to chuse a trustee, in terms of the act of Parliament.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

THE deceased HUGH WYLLIE, Merchant in Kilmarnock.

Andrew Templeton, merchant in Glasgow, and James Gregg, writer in Kilmarnock, trustees upon the estate of the said deceased Hugh Wyllie, do hereby require the whole of his creditors to lodge their claims and grounds of debt, with oaths of verity thereon, in the hands of the said trustees, or either of them, between and the 1st day of July next; and such of the creditors as have not already subscribed the deed of accession (which is in the hands of the said James Gregg) are requested to do so, by themselves or agents properly authorized, without delay; certifying those who neglect this intimation, that they will not be entitled to any interest in the trust funds.
