FROM FRIDAY, JUNE 8. TO TUESDAY, JUNE 12. 1798.

WHITEHALL, June 9. 1798.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is a copy, has been received from his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland by his Grace the Duke of Portland, his Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department.

MY LORD, Dublin-Castle, June 4. 1798.

YESTERDAY a dispatch was received from Major-General Loftus, conveying information from Lieutenant Elliott, of the Antrim militia, that the troops in Gorey, consisting of thirty of the Antrim militia, a subaltern detachment of the North Cork, the Gorey yeomen cavalry, Ballykeer, and part of the Camolin cavalry, attacked the rebels at Ballycanoe about three o'clock on the 1st instant, defeated them, and killed above one hundred of them.

I have the satisfaction to inform your Grace that the city remains tranquil. The patience, the spirit, and continued exertions of the yeomanry are unequalled, and I cannot sufficiently applaud the unequalled zeal of Major-General Myers, who has undertaken the arrangement of them with a promptitude and ability which has been of the most essential advantage.

I have the honour to be, &c. CAMDEN.

His Grace the Duke of Portland, &c.

Dublin-Castle, June 5: Five o'clock, P. M.

Major Marley is just arrived from Major-General Loftus, and brings an account that the Major-General, finding that Colonel Walpole's detachment had received a check, thought it prudent to move to Carnew, which he effected without the loss of a man.

It appears that Colonel Walpole had met with the main body of the rebels in a strong post near Slievebuy Mountain, and having attacked them, he was unfortunately killed by a shot in the head in the beginning of the action, when his corps, being in a situation where it could not act with advantage, was forced to retire to Arklow. The loss was fifty-four men killed and missing, and two six pounders. Captain Stark, Captain Armstrong, Captain Duncan were wounded, but not dangerously, and Sir Watkins William Wynne received a contusion in the hand.

WAR-OFFICE, DUBLIN CASTLE, June 4. 1798.

Letters patent have passed the Great Seal of this kingdom, for constituting and appointing the Commander in Chief of his Majesty's forces in this kingdom for the time being, together with James Lord Baron Tyrrawly, the Hon. Ponsonby Moore, Frederick Tench, Esq. the Hon. Henry Pomeroy, John Townsend, Esq. Sir Hugh O'Reilly, Bart. and the Hon. Arthur Cole Hamilton, in the room of the Hon. William Cockayne and William Arthur Crosbie, Esq. resigned; and Major-General John Francis Cradock, Quarter Master General, to be Commissioners and Overseers of the Barracks, &c. in this kingdom.

ADMIRALTY-OFFICE, June 9. 1798.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Sir RICHARD JOHN STRACHAN Bart. to EVAN NEPEAN, Esq. dated on board his Majesty's ship Diamond, off Havre, June 2, 1798.

S I R,

I HAVE the honour to inclose a letter from Sir Francis Laforey, Captain of his Majesty's ship Hydra, detailing the particulars of a very gallant action in the ship he commands, with the French frigate La Constance, and Vésuve, a corvette, both of which were forced on shore, together with a cutter that accompanied them.

[ Price Sixpence. ]

I must add, that the whole of this affair reflects the highest honor upon Sir Francis Laforey, the officers, and ship's company of the Hydra.

I have the honor to be, &c. R. J. STRACHAN.

SIR, Hydra, off Havre, June 1, 1798.

I BEG leave to acquaint you, that on the morning of the 30th ult. his Majesty's ship under my command being off Havre, with the Vefuvius bomb and Trial cutter, carrying into execution the orders I had the honor to receive from you on the 28th, at break of day three sail were discovered to windward, which upon the Hydra drawing up within gunshot, hoisted French colours, and proved to be a frigate, a corvette, and a cutter.

The corvette being the leewardmost, commenced the action as the two ships passed on different tacks. Upon the Hydra being put about, she pitched up in a position nearly equal distance between the two, when the frigate opened the fire. In about a quarter of an hour the cutter bore away, and run ashore under a press of sail near a small battery off the entrance of Dieu river; floating with the rising tide, she attempted to proceed further down towards Caen, but upon the approach of the Vefuvius and Trial, was compelled again to run on shore.

The frigate endeavoured to regain the port of Havre, but after engaging his Majesty's ship three quarters of an hour, she likewise ran on shore, at the time of high water, a little to the eastward of Dieu, where she sustained the fire of his Majesty's ship, with little return on her part, till the falling of the tide, rendered it necessary for our own safety that we should haul off shore. A number of troops having formed on the beach and adjoining heights, I could not attempt to board her that evening with any prospect of success; but on the morning of the 31st, perceiving that a great part of her crew had left her, I sent the boats of his Majesty's ship, under cover of the Trial cutter, whilst the tide was sufficiently high to enable the Hydra to approach within gun-shot for protection, to haul down her colours and burn her; which I have the pleasure to state was completely achieved without any loss on our part, such as remained on board having abandoned her upon the approach of the Trial and the boats, and which was the more satisfactory, as it was effected in the face of a party of cavalry drawn up on the beach, and amidst a small though ineffectual fire of musketry from the military on the commanding heights. The corvette having grounded very high upon the beach, and being within the range of a battery of two 24 pounders, nothing could be attempted towards destroying her; during the night she was hauled into the river of Dieu; the cutter ran on shore on the action commencing.

These ships had sailed from Havre on the night of the 29th; the frigate was named La Confiante, mounted 36 guns, twelve-pounders, was full of stores, and had ordnance in her hold; she was commanded by Monf. Leorier, and by a note d'Equippage found on board, appears to have been manned with 300 men; the number of slain left on board, and the state of the decks, leads me to suppose her loss in killed and wounded was severe. The corvette was named Le Vefuve, mounted 20 nine-pounders, and was commanded by a Monsieur L'Eutier. I am truly happy at having it in my power to inform you, that the Hydra escaped without loss; her rigging was much cut, and her mainmast wounded, but not badly. It is with peculiar satisfaction I report the steady conduct of the officers and crew of his Majesty's ship I have the honour to command; from Lieut. Jones and Mr Pickering, the master, I experienced co-operation; the judgment and active gallantry exhibited by Lieuts. Acklom and Simonds, and

Lieut. Blanch, of the marines, who commanded the boarding party, reflects the highest credit upon them; and I beg leave to express my perfect approbation of the exertions displayed by Captain Fitzgerald, of the Vefuvius, and Lieut. Garrett, of the Trial, to support the Hydra. I have the honour to be, &c.

Sir Richard Strachan, Bart. FRA. LAFOREY.
Senior Officer, &c.

DOWNING-STREET—June 9.

The letter and attestation, of which the following are translations, having been humbly submitted to his Majesty by the undermentioned officers, who served in the detachment of his Majesty's 15th regiment of light dragoons at the action near Cambray on the 24th of April, 1794, his Majesty has been graciously pleased to grant to each of them his Majesty's royal permission to wear the medals conferred on them by the Emperor of Germany, in testimony of the high sense entertained by his Imperial Majesty of their distinguished conduct upon that occasion.

Translation of a letter from Baron THUGOT, to Lieutenant-Colonel AYLETT.

SIR, Vienna, March 5, 1798.

THE Emperor remembers, with satisfaction, the distinguished proofs of valour that you, Sir, and seven other officers of the 15th light dragoons manifested on the 24th of April, 1794, near Cambray. His Majesty regrets that the statutes of the Order of Maria Theresé, confirmed by constant custom, do not allow the Cross of this Order, strictly national, to be conferred on officers so worthy of being decorated with it; but wishing at the same time to give you and your honourable companions in arms, a public mark of his particular esteem, his Majesty has ordered a medal to be struck to perpetuate the remembrance of this brilliant action, and has commanded me to offer them, in his name, the only impressions which have been struck, except that which is placed in the Imperial Cabinet of Vienna. In fulfilling the intention of his Imperial Majesty, I beg you to accept for yourself, Sir, and to distribute to the other officers who, in the important affair of the 24th April, 1794, fought under your command, these medals, which for that purpose I have delivered to Capt. Ryan. I have the honour to add the assurances of the consideration with which I have the honour to be,

Sir, Your most obedient humble servant,
To Lieutenant-Colonel Aylett. LE BN. THUGOT.

Attestation of Major-General Count MERFELD.

Vienna, Dec. 20, 1797.

THE 15th light dragoons charged the enemy on the 24th of April, 1794, who were in great force at Villers en Couche, routed, and sabred a great many; and by this conduct, rescued his Imperial Majesty from the danger that menaced his person, who being on the road from Valenciennes to Catillon, was cut off by the patrols of the enemy, as his Majesty on that day was returning from Brussels to the army, and the enemy's patrols had already passed the river Selle.

The courageous conduct of this regiment, animated by its brave officers, is so much the more meritorious, as the main column of the Allied Army did not arrive to its support; but this gallant regiment, abandoned to itself, relied on its own valour, attacked the enemy, so much stronger, and whose bravery alone prevented the melancholy consequences above stated; and, not content with that, they took from the enemy, who were so much more numerous, three pieces of cannon.

MAXAM. COMTE DE MERFELD, Major-General.

Officers who served in the detachment of his Majesty's 15th regiment of light dragoons at the affair near Cambray, on the 24th of April 1794, with the ranks which they respectively held in the said regiment upon that day.

Major—William Aylett.

Captains—Robert Pocklington, Edward Michael Ryan.

Lieutenants—Thomas Granby Calcraft, William Keir, Thomas Burrell Blount.

Cornets—Edward G. Butler, Robert Wilson.

WHITEHALL, June 9, 1798

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Duke of Portland, his Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Grace presented to the King; which Addresses his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, met in General Assembly, beg leave to embrace this opportunity of approaching your throne, in order to express the sentiments which we feel on occasion of the arduous contest in which this nation is engaged with a neighbouring hostile power.

During former times of tranquillity and peace, the Ministers of this Church have always studied to confirm the people under their charge in principles of loyalty to your Majesty's person and Government, and to inspire them with veneration for that happy Constitution, civil and sacred, with which we have long been blessed. Now, when the day of trial is come, it is with the utmost satisfaction we behold the happy effects of those sentiments which we have long endeavoured to instill. We behold the great body of the people in this country united in zealous attachment to your Majesty's Government, and in resolute endeavours to defend their ancient rights against every invader. We have the happiness of expressing to your Majesty our firm persuasion that the spirit of the country is now fully roused among all ranks of men. They are sensible that all that is sacred to them, as Christians, and dear to them as men, is at stake; and that in resisting their impious and outrageous foes, they are not only defending a Sovereign whom they love and revere, and supporting a Constitution under which they have long been happy, but defending, at the same time, their own families, their persons, and property. We can assure your Majesty, that, on our part, nothing shall be wanting to cherish these patriotic dispositions, to stimulate the general ardour in the public cause, and to promote every measure which the wisdom of your Councils shall deem necessary for the security of the realm.

We beg leave to congratulate your Majesty on the brilliant successes with which it has pleased the Almighty already to bless your arms in various quarters. Trusting to that gracious aid of Heaven, which has so often signally supported the British throne, and defeated the attempts of unjust and violent enemies, we entertain the firmest hopes that the insolent menaces of our present foes shall be completely baffled, and that an honourable and lasting peace shall terminate the contest in which your Majesty and the nation are now engaged.

That the God of Battles may continue to bless your Majesty's fleets and armies; that he may speedily give a check to the ambition and anarchy of those tyrannical rulers who have disturbed the peace of so many surrounding nations; that he may long preserve your Majesty's precious and important life, and still encrease the lustre and prosperity of your reign over a loyal and grateful people, shall ever be the fervent prayers of, May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders met in this General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment, by WILLIAM TAYLOR, Moderator.

Edinburgh, May 22, 1798.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Leven.]

May it please your Majesty,

YOUR Majesty's most gracious letter, to this meeting of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, was received with the highest respect.

The full confidence which your Majesty is pleased to repose in the wisdom of our proceedings, and the renewed assurances of your paternal affection, are most endearing testimonies of your royal favour, and fill our minds with the warmest gratitude to our beloved Sovereign.

The persuasion your Majesty has condescended to express of the great advantages which will result to your entire kingdom, from the deliberations of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, is a most powerful incitement to us, in all our proceedings, to conduct ourselves with that gravity and calmness, and that loyal attachment to your sacred person, and to cultivate that love for the people committed to our charge, and that spirit of Christian charity one towards another, which will best secure the dignity of our order, and give authority to our decisions.

Feeling as we do, the utmost abhorrence of those loose notions, both in faith and morality, which are the disgrace of these times; and animated by an ardent zeal to counteract their pernicious influence, we listen, with profound reverence, to your royal recommendation; and shall steadily persevere in our exertions for the preservation of sound doctrine, and for the advancement of genuine piety, and practice of all Christian duties, both moral and positive, in the humble hope that we may thus prove the means of averting the displeasure of Almighty God, and of promoting the happiness of your Majesty's subjects, by contributing to the maintenance of pure religion, of good government, and of social order.

Your Majesty's knowledge of the ardent zeal of the Earl of Leven and Melville, in the great cause of religion, and of his steady regard for the peace and prosperity of the Church of Scotland, and the long and pleasing experience we have had of his fidelity in the discharge of the duties of that high and important trust with which he is now invested, render the re-appointment of him to represent your royal person peculiarly acceptable to this Assembly.

Your Royal donation for propagating Christian knowledge in the Highlands and Islands of Scotland, we receive as a continued proof of your Majesty's paternal concern for the spiritual as well as temporal interests of your subjects; and we shall study, by a wise and faithful application of it, to promote the pious and benevolent purpose for which it is granted.

We rely, with perfect confidence, on the fresh assurance of your Majesty's determination to maintain and preserve the Church of Scotland in the complete enjoyment of all its just rights and privileges. Deeply affected with the impressive charge of our Sovereign, who, with paternal affection, solemnly adjures us to reflect upon our sacred obligations, we pledge ourselves to your Majesty that, through the help of God, we will, both conjointly and individually, fulfil all those various duties, which the well-being of the establishment and the interests of civil society and religion, do, at this awful moment, so forcibly demand.

That the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ

may long preserve your sacred person, direct your councils, and crown your undertakings with abundant success; that he may bless our most gracious Queen, the Prince and Princess of Wales, and all the Royal Family; that there may never be wanting one of your Royal House to sit on the throne of these kingdoms to latest ages; and that after a long, useful, and happy reign, you may exchange an earthly for a heavenly crown, are and shall be the sincere prayers of

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal subjects,

The Ministers and Elders met in this General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment, by WILLIAM TAYLOR, Mod.

JAMES STEWART, tenant in Blythe, trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said James Stott, hereby intimates, that Saturday the 23d day of June current is fixed by the Sheriff of Berwickshire, for the first, and Wednesday the 11th day of July next, for the second public examination of the bankrupt in the Sheriff clerk's office, Dunfermline, at 12 o'clock noon of each day; and a meeting of the creditors will be held at the same hour, within the house of John Craig, vintner, Dunfermline, on Thursday the 12th day of the said month of July for the purposes mentioned in the statute; at or previous to which meeting, it is requested, that such creditors as have not yet proved their debts in terms of the statute, will lodge their grounds of debt, with oaths of verity thereon; certifying to all concerned, if they fail to produce them, betwixt and the 3d of August next, in the event of the Court of Session authorising the first dividend to be made any time after six months subsequent to the sequestration, and betwixt and the 5th of February 1799, in the event of the statutory period for a dividend being observed, they will have no share of the first dividend of the bankrupt's estate, and as the trustee has already realised part of the funds, and wishes to submit to the meeting to be held on the 12th of July next, the propriety of applying to the Court of Session for their authority to make the first dividend at an earlier period than at the end of the first year, after the awarding of the sequestration, he entreats the whole of them to attend, by themselves or their doers properly authorised.

FIRST NOTICE—FIRST TERM.

To the CREDITORS of
JAMES CLELAND of Auchinlee.
THAT in a Process of Ranking and Sale, at the instance of Helen Macculloch, and others, representatives of the deceased Thomas Macculloch, sometime in Virginia, thereafter in Glasgow, and lately residing at Westfield, in the parish of Bothwell, with the concurrence of Robert Dundas, Esq. of Arncliffe, his Majesty's Advocate, for his Majesty's interest, against the said JAMES CLELAND, and his Creditors, the Lord Swinton, Ordinary, was, of the date hereof, pleased, inter alia, to assign "the 3d day of July next to the whole creditors to produce all their claims, rights, and diligences competent to them respectively against the bankrupt or his estate, and that for the First Term, with certification as in a reduction and imputation; and ordains this interlocutor, assigning the first term for production to be insert in the newspaper called The Edinburgh Gazette once every week for three weeks successively immediately after this interlocutor, to the end it may come to the knowledge of all concerned." In obedience to which appointment the present intimation is hereby given to all concerned.
 Edinburgh, June 6. 1798.

JUDICIAL SALE OF LANDS IN ROSS-SHIRE.
 To be exposed to public roup and sale, before the Lord Ordinary on the bills, within the New Session House, Edinburgh, on the 27th day of June current, 1798, (instead of 17th as formerly advertised,) betwixt the hours of four and six after-noon,

THE TOWNS and LANDS of AULTBEA, DRUMCHORKE, Salmon Fishing thereof, Teanafilen and Blairmore, all lying within the parish of Gerloch and Sheriffdom of Ross, belonging to Captain John Mackenzie of Grunziard.

The total free rental, stock and teind, to which last the proprietor has also right, when taken some time ago, extended, after deducting 4l. 14s. 4d. for the public burdens, to 120l. 17s 7d. 3-12ths Sterling, which being valued at 25 years purchase the upset price is 3022l. 1d. 3-12ths Sterling.

But it is informed, that since the judicial rental was taken, the lands have risen to about 160l. of gross rent; and from their great extent, and local situation in the neighbourhood of the thriving fishing station of Ullapool, established by the British Society, a further considerable increase of rent may be expected, were leases to be given. The lands also extend a considerable way along the sea coast, but no value is put upon the kelp in the above rental.

The articles and conditions of roup, titles, and printed copies of the memorial and abstract of the rental, may be had at the office of Mr Alexander Ross, depute clerk of session, or of Mr Horne, W. S. No. 3. George Street.

To the CREDITORS of

Captain JOHN CHRISTIE of Marystoun.

ROBERT ALLAN, accountant in Edinburgh, the Trustee, has made up states of Captain Christie's affairs, in terms of the statute, which will lie in his hands for the inspection of all concerned until Thursday the 12th day of July next; on which day, at two o'clock, he requests the creditors to meet within his house, North St David's Street, Edinburgh, to give directions as to the future management of the affairs. There being hitherto very little recovered from the funds, there is at present no dividend.

N O T I C E.

UPON the application of HUGH M'KAY, Coppersmith in Edinburgh, with the requisite concurrence, the Court of Session, on the 12th June current, sequestrated his whole estates, real and personal, and appointed his creditors to meet in John's Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, on Wednesday the 20th June current, at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of chusing an Interim Factor—and at the same place and hour, upon Wednesday the 11th July next, for chusing a Trustee on his sequestrated estate, in terms of the statute.—Of which intimation is hereby given to all concerned.
