NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, next Session, by "The EDINBURGH WATER COMPANY" for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, explain, amend, and enlarge or repeal, certain of the powers and provisions of the several Acts of Parliament relating to the said Company, viz.: An Act passed in the 59th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, entitled "An Act for more effectually supplying the City of Edinburgh and places adjacent with Water;" and another Act passed in the 7th year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, entitled, "An Act for more effectually supplying the City of Edinburgh and places adjacent with Water;" and for supplying the Town and Port of Leith and places adjacent, and His Majesty's Dock-yards at Leith, with Water;" and another Act passed in the 5th year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, entitled, "An Act to enable the Edinburgh Water Company to borrow a further sum of money."

And Notice is hereby further given, that it is intended in the said Bill to take powers to bring an additional supply of Water into the said City, from certain springs and streams situate in the Lands and Estates of Loganhouse and Kirkton, Bavelaw, Malleny, Listonshiels, Harperrig, Auchnoon, East Colzium, West Colzium, East Cairns, and West Cairns; all lying within the parishes of Glencorse, Currie, Penicuik, Kirknewton, and Mid-Calder respectively, in the County of Edinburgh; and from certain other springs and streams, in the parishes of Glencorse, Penicuik, Currie, and Kirknewton, and County of Edinburgh; and for that purpose, and for providing Compensation in Water to the owners and occupiers of Mills using the Water flowing from the springs and streams foresaid, to make, provide, lay, construct, and maintain all necessary pipes, conduits, aqueducts, cuts, channels, trenches, drains, dams, reservoirs, cisterns, wells, mounds, and embankments, and other works, as the same are delineated on the Plans hereinafter mentioned, with power to deviate from the line or lines laid down on the said Plans, to an extent not exceeding one hundred yards on each side thereof, except such part of the said line or lines as lie between the west end of Gilmore Place, and the west end of Princes Street, and between the west end of Gilmore Place and the Company's reservoir on the Castle-Hill; to take power to open up the roads, streets, places, squares, closes, and lanes of the said city, and places adjacent, and to lay pipes therein for conveying water through the same, in so far as not already done, and to make such regulations in regard to the supply and distribution of water as may be deemed necessary: to purchase and acquire lands, ground, water, and other heritages, rock, and other materials; to take and levy rents, rates, and duties, for the use of such water, and to alter the rents, rates, and duties authorized to be taken by the said Acts hereinbefore recited: And for all these purposes to take power to raise such further and necessary sums of money by increasing the capital stock of the said Company, by the issue of new shares, or by borrowing the same, or by both or either of these ways, or in such other way as the said Company may determine: All which works are to be made, maintained, varied, extended, or enlarged, in, through, or into the parishes, townships, townlands, and extra parochial places following, or some of them, viz.—the parishes of Mid-Calder, Penicuik, Glencorse, Kirknewton, Currie, Colinton, St. Cuthbert's or West Church, New Greyfriars, St. John's, Tolbooth Kirk, St. George's, and Canongate, and quoad sacra parishes of Morningside, St. David's, and Dean, all in the County of Edinburgh: And Notice is hereby further given, That, on or before the 30th day of November next, a Plan and Sections of the said intended works, and also a duplicate of such Plan and Sections, with books of reference to the said Plans, will be deposited for public inspection with the Sheriff-clerk of the county of Edinburgh, at his office in Edinburgh; and that, on or before the 31st day of December next, copies of so much of the said Plans, Sections, and Books of Reference as relate to each of the said several parishes, and quoad sacra parishes, will be deposited also for public inspection with the Schoolmasters, if any, and if there shall be no Schoolmaster, then with the Session-clerk of each of the said several parishes, at their respective residences, and with the Town-clerk of the said City of Edinburgh, at his office within the said City.

JAMES BALFOUR, W. S.
Clerk to the Company.

DUNDEE HARBOUR.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN,

THAT application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next Session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, explain, amend, continue, and consolidate the powers and provisions of the following Acts, or to repeal the said Acts, and re-enact the powers and provisions thereof, and enact other powers and provisions along with, or in lieu of the same,—namely, an Act passed in the eleventh year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, entitled, 'An Act for more effectually maintaining, improving, and extending the Harbour of Dundee, in the County of Forfar;' and an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, entitled, 'An Act to alter, amend, and extend the powers of an Act passed in the eleventh year of the reign of His late Majesty, for more effectually maintaining, improving, and extending the Harbour of Dundee in the County of Forfar;' by which Bill it is intended to continue to the Trustees of the Harbour of Dundee, their present powers under the said Acts of making and maintaining, or to confer upon them new powers of making and maintaining the following Works, or in relation to the following purposes,—namely, to erect and complete the New Dock and Tide Harbour now in progress, and to erect and construct an additional Dock to the eastward of the said New Harbour; to construct a Low-water Pier or Piers, at any part or place within the limits of the Harbour; to remove or cut the neck of rock at the Magdalen Yard Point, and to form a wall or embankment from thence to the Craig, so as to enable the tide to run freely past the Harbour; to acquire and hold the piece of ground lying between Earl Grey's Dock and the Craig Harbour; to construct additional Graving Docks, Patent Slips, and Shipbuilding Yards; to lay Railways, and erect cranes, sheds, and weighing machines on the Quays of the said Harbour and Docks and Bridges across the entrances thereof; to appropriate or sell a piece of ground for the erection of public Baths, between the Docks and the River; to inclose the new Dock called Victoria Dock; to erect and maintain Warehouses for storing goods and other commodities, near the said Harbour and Docks; for improving the said Harbour and Docks, and increasing the accommodation of the shipping resorting thereto; and also to form and construct a Harbour, or a Pier, or Jetty, at Broughty Ferry, and to impose and levy tolls, rates, and duties, on ships, vessels, and boats resorting to such Harbour, Pier, or Jetty, and on all goods, merchandize, passengers, live stock, matters and things of every description, shipped or landed thereat; and to purchase, acquire, and take possession of all lands, grounds, tenements, or other heritages and materials, necessary for all or any of the several purposes before specified, or connected therewith; to continue, alter, modify, or increase the several and respective tolls, rates, and duties authorized to be levied under the said recited Acts; and to levy new and additional tolls, rates, and duties on vessels, and goods, and commodities, for the use of the said Harbour of Dundee, and the Docks, Graving Docks, Patent Slips, Cranes, Sheds, and Steel-yards, thereat; to continue, vary, alter, or extinguish the exemptions from the payment of rates,

and duties, or other rights and privileges, conferred by the said recited Acts, and to confer new and farther exemptions, and other rights and privileges in relation to the objects and purposes of the said Bill; to borrow such additional sum or sums of money, as may be necessary for the purposes aforesaid, or any one or more of them, upon the credit of the said several rates and duties, and upon the security of the said Harbour, and Docks, and Lands, and Grounds, gained, and to be gained by embankment, or other operations at the said Harbours, and for maintaining and regulating a sinking fund for the gradual liquidation of the debt affecting the said Harbour; to provide for the better watching, lighting, and protecting of the said Harbours; regulating the Police thereof; for the punishment of offenders; the recovery of penalties; and for the appointment of Magistrates for the cognizance of crimes and offences within the limits of the said Harbours; for supplying Water and Ballast to the Shipping resorting thereto; for the better Regulation of the Pilotage of the River and Firth of Tay, and of the said Harbour: the Rates of Pilotage and the Qualification and Licenses of Pilots, and the Berthing of Vessels in the said Harbours and Docks; to regulate the Licensing of Fillers and Weighers of Coals, and Meters of Grain and Lime; and to make Bye-Laws and Regulations for the efficient Management of the said Harbours and Works, and the Trade and Shipping resorting thereto, and for other purposes relating to the said Harbour; which Harbours and Works, already made and constructed, and to be made and constructed, are and will be situated and comprehended within the following Parishes,—viz. the United Parishes of Liff and Benvie (sometimes called the United Parishes of Liff, Logie, Benvie, and Invergowrie), the Parishes of Monifieth, Barry, and Dundee, and the Parish of Caputh,—all in the Counties of Forfar and Perth.

AND NOTICE IS HEREBY FURTHER GIVEN, That duplicate plans, describing the said intended Works, together with books of reference thereto, containing the names of the Owners or Reputed Owners, Lessees or reputed Lessees, and Occupiers, of the Lands and Heritages in or through which such Works are intended to be made, or which are to be taken or used for such purposes, as required by the standing orders of Parliament, will be deposited for public inspection in the Office of the principal Sheriff-clerk of the County of Forfar, at Forfar, and also in the office of the Sheriff-Substitute of the said County, at Dundee, and in the office of the Principal Sheriff-clerk of the County of Perth, at Perth, on or before the 30th day of November 1842; and that a copy of so much of the said Plans and Books of Reference as relates to each of the said Parishes respectively, and to the Royal Burgh of Dundee, will be deposited with the Schoolmaster (or, in the event of there being no Schoolmaster, with the Session Clerk) of each such Parish respectively, at the respective places of abode of such Schoolmasters (and Session Clerks),—viz. with the Schoolmaster of the United Parishes of Liff and Benvie, at Liff; with the Schoolmaster of the District of Lochee, in the said United Parishes of Liff and Benvie, at Lochee; with the Schoolmaster of the Parish of Monifieth, at Monifieth; with the Schoolmaster of the District of Broughty Ferry, in the said Parish of Monifieth, at Broughty Ferry; with the Schoolmaster of the Parish of Barry, at Barry; with the Schoolmaster of the District of Carnoustie, in the said Parish of Barry, at Carnoustie; with the Schoolmaster of the parish of Dundee, at Dundee; with the Schoolmaster of the District of West Ferry, in the said Parish of Dundee, at West Ferry; with the Schoolmaster of the Parish of Caputh, at Spittalfield; and with the Town Clerk of the Royal Burgh of Dundee, at Dundee, on or before the 31st day of December 1842.

GEO. MILNE,
Clerk to the Dundee Harbour Trustees.
Dundee, October 22, 1842.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN,

THAT application will be made to Parliament in next Session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills; for the purposes following, or some of them, viz. for continuing the term, and altering, amending, explaining, and enlarging the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, entitled 'An Act for regulating the Police of the Barony of Gorbals, in the county of Lanark, paving, cleansing, and lighting the streets, erecting a Bridewell, and other purposes relating thereto,' and of another Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, entitled 'An Act to continue, for a limited term of years, the Police Act for the Barony of Gorbals, in the county of Lanark, and for other purposes relating thereto;' or, for repealing the said recited Acts, and making new and farther provision for the maintenance and regulation of the Police of the foresaid Barony of Gorbals, and that portion of the Parliamentary District of the city of Glasgow, which lies on the south side of the River Clyde, and for the establishment and regulation of Police Courts within the same; To make provision for the election by open poll, or otherwise, of Commissioners of Police for the said district, and for the appointment and payment of such public officers as may be required for carrying into effect the purposes of the said Bill, in relation to the objects above-mentioned; To enable the said Commissioners to sue and be sued; To continue, or to alter, increase, or diminish, the Police Rates granted by the said recited Acts, or to repeal the same, and impose new Police Rates in lieu thereof; To enable the said Commissioners to exempt the occupiers of premises rented at any sum under six pounds annually, from payment of such rates, or a portion thereof, and to confer other exemptions from the payment of the same; To extend the jurisdiction of the Magistrates of Gorbals over the whole of the district before-mentioned, and to make provision for the appointment and payment of assessors, clerks, and other public officers within the same; To authorize the annual payment from the Police Rates before-mentioned, of a sum of money to the Magistrates of Gorbals, to be applied by them in payment of the salaries of the assessors, clerks, and other public officers and functionaries of the said Barony and district before-mentioned, and of the other municipal expenses thereof; or, to enable the said Magistrates to levy rates within the said district for such municipal purposes, and to confer certain exemptions from the payment of such municipal rates; To regulate the numbers, appointment, and manner of election of the Magistrates, Councillors, and other municipal authorities and functionaries, of the Barony of Gorbals, and to transfer the power of election of the said Magistrates and other authorities and functionaries from the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of Glasgow, to a council to be elected by the Parliamentary voters of the district before described; To continue, alter, increase, or diminish the statute-labour conversion money at present leviable within the Barony of Gorbals, or to repeal the same, and grant certain new rates in lieu thereof, and to confer, vary, or extinguish certain exemptions from payment of the same; to enable the Commissioners of Police to be appointed by the said Bill, to levy and recover the said statute labour conversion money, or rates to be granted in lieu thereof, and to apply the same in the formation and maintenance of the streets, roads, foot pavements, and other ways and passages, and the common sewers, at present existing, or hereafter to be formed within the said Barony; and, so far as necessary for these purposes, to alter, amend, and repeal an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, entitled 'An Act for regulating the conversion of the statute labour within the barony of Gorbals, in the city of Glasgow, and county of Lanark,' and of the Act therein recited, and of another Act passed in the second year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, entitled, 'An Act to alter and amend an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of his late Majesty King George the Fourth, for regulating the conversion of the statute labour within the barony of Gorbals, in the city of Glasgow, and county of Lanark;' to enable the Magistrates of the said Barony to widen and improve the streets, lanes, and passages within the district before mentioned, and to levy and recover rates within the same, for that purpose, and to confer certain exemptions from the payment of such rates; To make provision for the establishment and maintenance of public slaughter-houses and markets, or either of them, within the said district, and for the appointment and payment of inspectors and other officers, in connection therewith; To enable the Magistrates of the said Barony to levy and recover market rates and duties from persons selling cattle and butchers' meat within the district before mentioned, or making use of the said slaughter-houses or markets; and, so far as necessary for these purposes, to alter, amend, and repeal an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, entitled, 'An Act for amending an Act of His late Majesty King George the Third, relating to the conversion of the statute labour within the Royalty of Glasgow; and another Act of His said late Majesty, relating to the sale of live cattle in the city of Glasgow, and for opening certain streets, and otherwise improving the said city,' and another Act, passed in the sixth year of his said Majesty, entitled, 'An Act for establishing additional market-places in the city of Glasgow, for opening certain streets or communications therein, and otherwise improving the said city;' and to confer, vary, and extinguish certain rights and privileges, in connection with the several objects before set forth, or some of them: which Barony of Gorbals, and the district to which the said Bill or Bills are intended to apply, comprehend the places and parishes following, or some parts thereof:—viz. the barony, burgh, or regality of Gorbals; the parishes of Govan, Gorbals, or Govan and Gorbals; and the sub-divisions of parishes, quoad sacra, of Kirkfield, Knox, Hutchesontown, Laurieston, Kingston, and Strathbungo, all in the counties of Lanark and Renfrew, or one or other of them.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for a Bill for the establishment of a Society, consisting of certain persons calling themselves "Rechabites," and for regulating the affairs and concerns of the said Society, and the officers and members thereof, and also for incorporating the said Society, or enabling its members to sue and be sued in the name of some officer or member thereof, and for granting other powers and privileges to the said Society. Dated this tenth day of November 1842.

BOLTON, MERRIMAN & DUNNING, Solicitors,
25, Austin Friars, London.

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is intended to apply to Parliament in the ensuing Session, for leave to bring in a Bill to continue the term, and to alter, amend, explain, and enlarge the following Acts, or some of them, or entirely to repeal, and so far as necessary to re-enact and consolidate such of the said Acts, as relate to the purposes of watching, lighting, cleansing, paving, fire-extinguishing, weighing, and other the purposes of Police, and also to the purposes of statute labour, therein, and hereinafter mentioned, with such further and amended powers and provisions, as may be deemed expedient for such purposes, viz.—An Act passed in the seventh year of the reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, entitled, ‘An Act to continue for a limited term of years, the Acts relating to the Police of the City of Glasgow, to vest the management of the statute labour conversion money of the said City in the board of Police thereof, and for other purposes therein mentioned,’ and the several Acts therein recited, viz.—The Acts of the 39th and 40th George 3d, cap. 88th; 47th George 3d, cap. 29th; 1st and 2d George 4th, cap. 48th; 11th George 4th, cap. 42d; 47th George 3d, cap. 45th; and 1st George 4th, cap. 88th; also the Act 12th George 3d, relating to the said statute labour; and also to amend an Act of the Scottish Parliament, made in the year 1663, ‘concerning waste and ruinous houses in royal burghs;’ By which Bill it is intended to extend the jurisdiction of the Magistrates of Glasgow, and the Board of General Commissioners of Police for the said City, to, over, and within the following lands, forming part of the barony parish, and of the Parliamentary District of the burgh of Glasgow, viz.—Those lands lying to the south of the Great Canal, and the cut of junction thereof with the Monkland Canal, and on all sides bounded and enclosed by the said Canal and cut of junction, and by the territory of the Royalty of Glasgow, and other lands already subject to the said Police jurisdiction, with the whole powers, duties, privileges, and authorities, presently possessed by, or which by the said Bill may be conferred on, the said Magistrates, and the said Board of General Commissioners of Police, and all obligations, penalties, matters, and things contained in the said Acts, or any of them, or to be contained in the said Bill: With power to the said Commissioners of Police, to levy and apply within the whole of the foresaid existing and intended extended bounds of Police, the several rates, duties, or assessments, granted by the said recited Acts, or any of them, for the said purposes of Police and statute labour, or any of them, or to alter, vary, and increase such rates, duties, or assessments, and to vary or extinguish any existing exemptions therefrom, and other rates and privileges, and to confer new exemptions from payment of such rates, duties, or assessments, and certain new rights and privileges; with power also to appoint a Procurator Fiscal, for the prosecution of offenders brought before the Police Courts of the said Magistrates, and to employ such additional number of other officers and watchmen, as may be found necessary for carrying out the said purposes of Police, and to provide suitable salaries or remuneration to such Procurator Fiscal, officers, and watchmen; with power also to extend the use of the weighing machines, kept for the said Police Establishment, and to authorize the weighing of all articles and commodities brought into the said

City, and to charge such reasonable remuneration therefor, as may be just: Also to regulate and extend the use of the fire engines belonging to the said Commissioners of Police, and to empower them to levy, and recover, from parties requiring the use of such engines, and to charge the property for which the same may be used, or the Insurance Companies with whom such property may be insured, such rates or remuneration, for the use of such engines, as may be just and expedient. It is further intended by the said Bill, to alter and improve the mode of electing the said Commissioners of Police, and also to extend the authority and jurisdiction of the Magistrates of Glasgow, Gorbals, Calton, and Anderston, to, over, and within the limits of the said Parliamentary District of the burgh of Glasgow, to the effect of enabling such Magistrates to authorize the pursuit and apprehension of offenders, and the recovery of property within any part of the said Parliamentary District, and also to confer certain powers on the officers, watchmen, and other servants employed by the different Police Establishments within the said Parliamentary District, to the effect of enabling such officers, watchmen, servants, and others, to act within any part of the said Parliamentary District, as fully and freely as within the particular District of the Police Establishment under which they are specially employed, and to seize and apprehend offenders, and recover property within any part of the said Parliamentary District, and to carry such offenders, with any property recovered, before a Magistrate, to be disposed of, and dealt with according to law; and generally to empower the said several Magistrates, Police Establishments, and officers thereof, respectively, to co-operate in every respect, so as most effectually to prevent and detect crime, and preserve peace and good order within the said Parliamentary District; and further, to provide for a complete register of offenders and crimes being kept for the said Parliamentary District, and for each Police Establishment therein, interchanging lists of offenders and offences within their respective districts, and furnishing such other materials as may be necessary for the completion of the said register; and so far as may be necessary for such purposes, to amend and enlarge the powers of the following Acts, viz.—An Act passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, entitled ‘An Act to continue for a limited term of years, the Police Act for the Barony of Gorbals, in the county of Lanark, and for other purposes relating thereto,’ and of the several Acts therein recited: An Act passed in the third and fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, entitled, ‘An Act to continue the term, and amend and alter the powers of an Act for regulating the Police of the burgh of Calton, and village and lands of Mile-end, in the county of Lanark,’ and the several Acts therein recited: And an Act passed in the seventh year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, entitled, ‘An Act for regulating the Police of the burgh of Anderston, and lands of Lancefield, and others adjoining the said burgh, in the county of Lanark, paving, cleansing, and lighting the streets and passages of the said District, and for erecting a Court-house and Gaol therein.’ And farther, to take power to the said Board of Commissioners, if they see fit, to supply Police protection to such parts of the said Parliamentary District as are not included in the territory or jurisdiction of any of the existing Police Establishments, at the expense of the inhabitants in those parts, upon being required thereto by a majority of the said inhabitants, or by such other proportion thereof, as may be satisfactory to said board, and to levy such expense from the said inhabitants: It is further intended by the said Bill, to transfer from the Trustees appointed by, or under the statute labour Act for the County of Lanark, of the forty-seventh of George III. cap. 45, to, and vesting in the said board of General Commissioners of Police for Glasgow, the sole power and direction of levying and applying the statute labour and conversion money thereof, within the said proposed extended bounds of Police, as also within the lands of Blythswood, and adjacent lands, to which the jurisdiction of the said Commissioners was extended by the Act of the 11th George IV, cap. 42; and at the same time to alter and increase the rates of statute labour conversion money leviable within the said lands of Blythswood, and lands adjacent, as well as the said proposed extended bounds; and also to impose on, and include within the rating for the said statute labour, all shops, warehouses, works, factories, counting-houses, timber-yards, depots, cellars, stables, stalls in the public markets, and all other premises and buildings, as well as dwelling-houses, and to assimilate and render uniform the rates of statute labour money, within the whole present, and the said proposed extended jurisdiction of the said Commissioners, and the said lands of Blythswood, and lands adjacent, also to repeal, alter, modify, and amend, as may be just and equitable, all existing obligations and regulations as to the making and maintaining by feuars or owners of heritable property, of causeways, sewers, or foot pavements within the said whole bounds, and to impose an assessment in lieu thereof, or otherwise, as may be just: And it is further intended by the said Bill to abolish all rights of selling articles upon the public streets, and also all private rights in or to dung, fulzie and ashes, taking powers to the said Commissioners to order and regulate the removal of the same, within the whole or such parts of their bounds as they may think fit, for the better maintenance of cleanliness, and preservation of the public health; also to provide for the suppression of private slaughter-houses, and for the erection and maintenance of public necessaries and urinals, and acquiring of property for these purposes; also to impose on proprietors and others, the burden of forming and upholding proper dungsteads, drains, and closes; and generally to make, grant, and enact, such powers and provisions as may be proper for abating nuisances, and preserving and maintaining the cleanliness and comfort, as well as peace and order within the said limits; and also for power to borrow such additional sums of money as may be necessary for any of the purposes aforesaid: And it is further intended by said Bill, to make better provision for the re-building or sale of ruinous tenements within the said bounds.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, enlarge, and extend the powers and provisions of the following Acts, viz. :—An Act passed in the fifty-seventh year of the reign of His Majesty King George III., intituled, ‘An Act for making and maintaining a Navigable Canal from the Lothian Road, near the City of Edinburgh, to join the Forth and Clyde navigation near Falkirk, in the county of Stirling;’—another Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His said Majesty, intituled, ‘An Act for altering and amending an Act for making and maintaining a Navigable Canal from the Lothian Road, near the City of Edinburgh, to join the Forth and Clyde navigation near Falkirk, in the county of Stirling;’—another Act, passed in the first and second years of the reign of His late Majesty King George IV., intituled, ‘An Act for amending certain acts for making and maintaining a Navigable Canal, from the Lothian Road, near the City of Edinburgh, to join the Forth and Clyde navigation near Falkirk, in the county of Stirling, and giving power to borrow a farther sum of money, on the credit of the tolls granted by the said Acts;’—another Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of his said late Majesty King George IV., intituled, ‘An Act to enable the Edinburgh and Glasgow Union Canal Company to borrow a farther sum of money;’—another Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of his said late Majesty King George IV., intituled, ‘An Act to alter and amend the Edinburgh and Glasgow Union Canal Acts, and to enable the Company to borrow a farther sum of money;’—and another Act passed in the fourth and fifth years of the reign of her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled, ‘an Act for amending the several acts relating to the Edinburgh and Glasgow Union Canal, and for enlarging the Cobbinshaw Reservoir;’ And notice is given, that, by the said Bill, it is intended to empower the said Edinburgh and Glasgow Union Canal Company to carry and convey goods, merchandize, minerals, and other commodities and things, and to charge and recover rates, tolls, and duties, in respect of such carriage and conveyance, and to confer on the said Company such powers as may be necessary for enabling them to act as common carriers, or as may be necessary to be exercised and enjoyed by them as common carriers; and that it is intended by the said bill, to alter, increase, diminish, or modify, wholly or partially, all or any of the rates, tolls, duties, or dues granted by the said recited acts, or any of them, and to continue, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of rates, tolls, duties, and dues, or other rights and privileges conferred by the said recited acts, or any of them, and to confer new and further such or like exemptions, and other rights and privileges necessary in relation to the purposes of the said Bill. And notice is also given, that it is intended by the said Bill to empower the said Edinburgh and Glasgow Union Canal Company to apply for the purposes aforesaid, any monies arising by virtue of the said acts, or any of them, or of the said Bill; and also to raise, if they shall think fit, the sum of £9,000 Sterling, by way of loan, for the purposes foresaid, on the security of the moneys so arising.

R. ELLIS,

Clerk of the Edinburgh and Glasgow Union Canal Company.

Edinburgh, November 9, 1842.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to vary, alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled, ‘an Act for making and maintaining a Railway from Glasgow to Greenock, by Paisley and Port-Glasgow, to be called The Glasgow, Paisley, and Greenock Railway;’ and of two other Acts passed in the third and fourth years of the reign of Her said Majesty, one thereof intituled, ‘an Act to amend and enlarge the powers and provisions of the Act relating to the Glasgow, Paisley, and Greenock Railway, and to make certain new Branch Railways, from the main line, in the towns of Greenock and Port-Glasgow, and to make other works in connection with the said Railway;’ and the other thereof, intituled, ‘an Act for establishing an improved Ferry between the western part of the parish of Erskine, in the county of Renfrew, and Dumbarton, in the county of Dumbarton;’ and also of another Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her said Majesty, intituled, ‘an Act to enable “The Glasgow, Paisley, and Greenock Railway Company,” to raise a further sum of money, and to amend and enlarge the powers and provisions of the Acts relating to the said Railway;’ and particularly to enable the said Glasgow, Paisley, and Greenock Railway Company, to raise a further sum or sums of money, for the purposes of the said undertakings, or either of them, and that, either by way of loan, or by the creation of additional shares or capital, or in part by either of those means, or by some other means, to be provided by the said intended Act; and to repeal, alter, or vary the mode of charging and levying the rates and tolls authorised to be received by the said recited Acts, or any of them. Dated at Greenock, this tenth day of November 1842.

GABRIEL H. LANG, Solicitor,
Park Street, Westminster.

JAMES TURNER, Greenock,
Solicitor to the Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in next Session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, repeal, explain, enlarge, revive, or continue some of the powers or provisions of an Act passed in the 7th year of his Majesty King William the IVth, intituled ‘An Act for making and maintaining a Railway, or Railways from the City of Edinburgh to Leith, and to the shore of the Firth of Forth, at or near Newhaven, and Trinity, all in the county of Edinburgh,’ and of another Act passed in the 3d year of the reign of her present Majesty, intituled, “An Act to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of the said Act passed in the 7th year of his Majesty King William the IVth, c. 131, and to alter and vary the lines and levels of the Railway thereby authorised to be made, and for other purposes relating to the said undertaking:”—AND IT IS INTENDED to take power in the said Bill, to make and maintain a Branch Railway from the Main Line of the said Railway, at a point at or near to the Burn called the Anchorfield Burn, to a point at, upon, or near to the pier erected by his Grace the Duke of Buccleuch and Queensberry at Granton; and another

Branch Railway from the Main Line of the said Railway, at a point at or near to the viaduct across the Water of Leith, to a point at, upon, or near to the middle entrance from Dock Street, in North Leith, to the Wet Docks there: which intended Branch Railways, and other works, will be situate in, and will pass from, through, or into, the following parishes and places,—namely, the town and parish of North Leith, the parishes of Newhaven quoad sacra, St. Bernard’s quoad sacra, St. Cuthbert’s, and Cramond:—AND IT IS FARTHER INTENDED to take power in the said Bill, to make and maintain warehouses, buildings, depots, quays, wharfs, loading, landing, and passing-places, and other proper works and conveniences connected with, or necessary for, the said Branch Railways; and to deviate the lines of the said Branches and works, to any extent not exceeding the limits of deviation delineated on the Maps or Plans thereof, to be deposited as aftermentioned; and also to take power to alter, vary, and divert the lines, levels, and inclinations of turnpike roads, highways, roads, streets, and all other roads, paths, and passages, whether public or private, and of all rivers, waters, ponds, water-courses, brooks, and streams, where requisite for the proper making, constructing, and using the said Branch Railways and works aforesaid; and to levy tolls, rates, and duties, for the use of the said Branch Railways, warehouses, depots, wharfs, quays, landing-places, engines, works and other conveniences, or any part thereof; and to alter, if necessary, the tolls, rates, and duties authorised to be levied by the said recited Acts, or either of them, on and for the use of the said Railway, thereby authorised to be made, and works connected therewith; and to confer, vary, and extinguish certain exemptions from payment of tolls, rates, or duties, and certain other rights and privileges: AND IT IS ALSO INTENDED in the said Bill, to take power to raise money for the formation of the said Branch Railways and works, and for the general purposes of the said undertaking, by the creation of shares, or otherwise:—AND NOTICE IS FARTHER GIVEN, that on or before the 30th day of November next, a Map, or Plan and Sections, and also a duplicate of such Map, or Plan and Sections, describing the line or situation and levels of the said Branch Railways and works therewith connected, and the lands, houses, and others, to be taken and used, for the purposes of the said Bill, together with Books of Reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands, and others, will be deposited for public inspection, in the office in Edinburgh of the principal Sheriff-Clerk for the County of Edinburgh; and that on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of so much of the said Map or Plan, Sections, and Book of Reference, as relates to each parish in which the lands and heritages to be taken or used, for the purposes aforesaid, are situate, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the Schoolmaster, if any,—and if there is no Schoolmaster, then with the Session-Clerk of each of the said parishes of North Leith, Newhaven, St. Cuthberts, St. Bernard’s, and Cramond, at the respective places of abode of the said Schoolmasters or Session-Clerks.

COMBINED COUNTIES
OF
ROSS AND CROMARTY,
AND
PART OF NAIRN.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, next Session, for leave to introduce a Bill for appointing the Royal Burgh of Dingwall to be the Head Burgh of the Shire of Ross; for the purposes of an Act passed in the 1st Parliament of King Charles the II, dated 5th April 1661, entitled, "Act anent the division of the shire of Rosse from Inverness;" for giving cumulative jurisdiction over the whole Sheriffdom to the Justices of the Peace of the Combined Counties of Ross and Cromarty, and the part of Nairn locally situate in Ross, and for facilitating and improving the proceedings before them, for the Preservation of the Peace, the Suppression of Vagrancy, and the Conviction and Punishment of Minor Offences, and other purposes relative thereto.

H. I. CAMERON,
 Clerk of the Peace of Ross and Cromarty, &c.
 OFFICE OF CLERK OF THE PEACE,
 Dingwall, 19th October, 1842.

ARCHIBALD SCOTT, Merchant, North Bridge Street, Edinburgh, Trustee on the sequestrated estate of JAMES LAWSON, Merchant-Tailor, 45, Princes Street, Edinburgh, hereby intimates, that at a general meeting of Creditors called for the purpose, held this day, the Bankrupt made an offer of a composition of Two Shillings and One Penny three-eighths per Pound to his Creditors, on all debts due by him at the date of his sequestration, payable within eight days after the date of approval of said composition by the Court, it being understood that the dividend of One Shilling and Ten Pence three-eighths per Pound already paid to some of the Creditors, should be included in said composition,—that is, those Creditors who have participated in the first dividend, should receive a further dividend of Threepence per Pound on their respective debts, and the whole other Creditors who have as yet drawn no dividend, should be paid the above composition of Two Shillings and One Penny three-eighths per pound on the amount of their debts, thus equalizing the composition to the whole Creditors. And the Bankrupt offered John Brunton, Clothier, Hanover Street, Edinburgh, as his security. The Bankrupt further offered to pay or provide for the expenses attending the sequestration and remuneration to the Trustee. That the Creditors present at said meeting having resolved unanimously that the offer and security should be entertained for consideration, notice is hereby given, that another general meeting of the Creditors will be held within the Trustee's Counting Room, No. 29, North Bridge Street, Edinburgh, upon Wednesday the 7th day of December next, at 2 o'clock afternoon, for the purpose of finally deciding on the Bankrupt's offer, and the security proposed.
