Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And we strictly charge and command that this proclamation be duly published at the market-crofs at Edinburgh, and in all the county towns in Scotland, 25 days at least before the time hereby appointed for the meeting of the said Peers to proceed on such election.

Given at our Court at St James's, the 4th day of July, 1798, in the 38th year of our reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

BY THE KING,
 A PROCLAMATION,

Respecting Aliens leaving this kingdom and arriving therein.

GEORGE R.

Whereas by an act passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled, "An act to continue until the 1st day of August 1800, and until the end of the then next session of Parliament, and amend an act made in the 33d year of the reign of his present Majesty, intituled, an act for establishing regulations respecting aliens arriving in this kingdom, or resident therein, in certain cases," divers provisions are made concerning aliens, and it is among other things enacted, that after the passing the said act, it shall not be lawful for any alien to leave this kingdom without a passport for that purpose first obtained from one of our Principal Secretaries of State, or from some person authorized by us to grant such passport, which passport is to be produced to the proper officer of the Customs, at the port or place where such alien shall embark for the purpose of leaving this kingdom, and allowed by such officer, and such passport
