TO THE CREDITORS OF

JOHN WEIR, Merchant in Glasgow. — — —

At a meeting of the creditors of the said John Weir, held upon the 30th July 1798, he offered a composition of 10s. per pound, 8s. whereof to be payable in 6, 12, and 18 months, with sufficient caution, and his own bills for the remainder, payable in 24 months, all from the 1st day of July current, which was unanimously agreed to by the whole creditors present. Francis Blaikie, merchant in Glasgow, the trustee, hereby intimates the above offer to the creditors, and requires them to meet within his counting-room in Glasgow, on Monday the 20th August next, at 2 o'clock afternoon, that the said offer may be again taken under consideration, and decided upon.

Such of the creditors as have neglected to lodge their grounds of debt, with oaths of verity, in the hands of the trustee, are requested to do so immediately.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

BENJAMIN M'BEAN, Merchant and Haberdasher in Aberdeen.

William Stirling, advocate in Aberdeen, trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said Benjamin M'Bean, intimates, that in terms of the statute, he has made up a state of the bankrupt's affairs, and scheme of division amongst the creditors, which will lie in his hands for the inspection of all concerned until Monday the 20th day of August, when the dividends of such creditors whose claims are not objected to will be paid within the writing room of the trustee. Aberdeen, 23th July 1798.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

ROBERT BROWN, Merchant and Dealer in Flax and Yarn, in Hillhead of Brechin.

James Pennycook, merchant in Brechin, the trustee upon the said Robert Brown's sequestrated estate, having now recovered all the outstanding funds of the bankrupt, and made up a scheme of the second and last division thereof, the same will lie in the trustee's hands for the inspection of the creditors till Monday 3d September next; and on Tuesday 4th September next the trustee will pay the dividends at his house in Brechin; of which notice is hereby given to all concerned.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

GEORGE PROVAND, jun. Merchant in Glasgow, as an individual, and as a partner of a company carried on there under the firm of GEORGE PROVAND & CO. merchants there.

That at a meeting of the creditors of the foresaid bankrupt, held within the Tontine Tavern of Glasgow, upon the 13th July current. (being the meeting after the second public judicial examination of the bankrupt), he the said George Provand made a proposal to them of a composition to be paid upon the whole debts owing by him, either as an individual or a partner of the foresaid company of George Provand & Co.—with which proposal the creditors present at the said meeting being satisfied, they required Mr Archibald Wallace, the trustee on the bankrupt's estate, to appoint another meeting for the purpose of deciding upon the foresaid offer and proposal of a composition.

The trustee therefore intimates, that a meeting of the creditors of the said George Provand, jun. as an individual, and a partner of George Provand and Co. will be held within the Tontine Tavern of Glasgow, upon Wednesday the 15th day of August, at one o'clock P.M. for the purpose of deciding upon the foresaid offer of a composition made by the said George Provand.

Glasgow, July 26. 1798. ARCH. WALLACE, Trustee.

Errat.—In the Notice to the Creditors of James Patrick, farmer at Quinzieburn, and cotton-yarn merchant near Killyth (see Edinburgh Gazette of Tuesday last, July 24.) the name was by mistake printed Partick.
