ADMIRALTY-OFFICE, Aug. 14.

Copy of a letter from Vice-Admiral Sir ALAN GARDNER, Bart. to EVAN NEPEAN, Esq. dated on board the Royal Sovereign at sea, the 10th of August 1798.

SIR,

Enclosed I transmit, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, copy of a letter I received yesterday afternoon from Sir Edward Pellew, Bart. Captain of his Majesty's ship Indefatigable, dated at sea the 5th instant, giving an account of the capture of the French ship privateer L'Heureux, of 16 guns and 112 men, after a chase of 32 hours.

I am, &c. A. GARDNER.

SIR, Indefatigable at sea, Aug. 5. 1798.

I have much pleasure in communicating to you the capture of the French ship privateer L'Heureux, mounting 16 guns and manned with 112 men, a very handsome ship, coppered and perfectly new, and in every respect fit for his Majesty's service.

I fell in with this ship at day-light on the 4th instant, on her return from a cruise, in company with a merchant-ship, her prize, called the Canada, John Sewell master, from Jamaica to London (last from Charles-town), laden with sugar, rum, and coffee.

These vessels separated upon different courses, the latter steering direct for Bayonne, the former, after a circular chase of 32 hours, led us in sight of Bayonne; and the Canada, which ship, after exchanging the prisoners, we drove on shore under that town, where at least her cargo must be destroyed, as the sea ran very high, and the wind dead on the shore. I have also the honour to enclose a list of the captures made by the privateer; and remain, Sir, &c. EDWARD PELLEW.

Sir Alan Gardner, Bart. &c.

[Price 6d.]

A list of captures made by L'Heureux French ship privateer on her last cruise of eight weeks from Bourdeaux.

- Zephyr* brig, from Jersey, 8 guns, 40 men, privateer.
- Dartmouth* lugger, from Guernsey, 6 guns, 20 men, privateer.
- Alliance, American ship, from New York to Liverpool, tobacco.
- Canada*, English ship, from Jamaica to London, with rum, sugar, and coffee, drove on shore near Bayonne by his Majesty's ship Indefatigable. EDWARD PELLEW.
