SIR,
I HAVE great pleasure in communicating to you the capture of the French national corvette La Vaillante, commanded by the Lieutenant de Vaisseau La Porte, mounting twenty guns, nine pounders; pierced for twenty-two, and manned with one hundred and seventy-five men.

This ship failed from Rochefort the 1st, and from L'Isle de Rhe the 4th instant, with twenty-five banished priests, twenty-seven convicts, and Madame Rovere and family, for Cayenne. We fell in with her at day-break on the 7th, between Bourdeaux and the isle of Rhe, and the chase continued twenty-four hours, when she struck after firing a few guns. She is of large dimensions, only eighteen months old, coppered and copper fastened, sails fast, and will, I trust, be found fit for his Majesty's service. I have the honor to be, &c.

EDWARD PELLEW.
