FIRST NOTICE—SECOND TERM.

IN the Process of Ranking and Sale, at the instance of Miss JEAN CAMPBELL, Heiress Apparent of the Estate of Airies, against HENRY SCOTT, Esq. and others, her Brother's Creditors—Lord Ankerville, Ordinary by interlocutor, dated 5th December, 1798, assigned the first Sederunt Day of January next; for the Second Term, for the whole creditors of the deceased Lieutenant Colonel William Campbell, to produce all their Claims, Rights and Diligences, competent to them respectively against him or his Estate, with Certification as in a reduction improbation; and ordained the interlocutor to be inserted in the Edinburgh Gazette, once a week for three weeks successively immediately after the date thereof, to the end it might come to the knowledge of all parties concerned. In obedience to which interlocutor this intimation is given.

M. P. MURRAY, Clk.

Edinburgh, Dec. 10, 1798.

OFFICE FOR SICK AND WOUNDED SEAMEN,

April 10, 1797.

THERE being a want of SURGEON'S MATES to serve in his MAJESTY'S NAVY, the Commissioners of Sick and Wounded Seamen do hereby give notice to such gentlemen as are willing to serve therein, That they may, on application at this Office, receive letters for examination before the Surgeons Company of London; or, if more agreeable to the parties, by applying to Dr HAMILTON, of the Royal Infirmary at Edinburgh, they may receive letters for examination before the Royal College of Surgeons at that place, and afterwards be appointed to ships according to their qualifications.

His MAJESTY has been pleased to direct, by his Order in Council, dated 28th May 1795, that the pay of Surgeons Mates should be increased; and the Right Hon. the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty have, by their order of the 9th of November 1796, directed that further encouragements should be given; the particulars of which may be known by applying to Dr Hamilton as above, or to Mr Wood, Surgeon to the Prisoners of War at Edinburgh.
