YORK, NEWCASTLE, AND BERWICK RAILWAY.

DEVIATION AND ABANDONMENT OF PART OF THE THIRSK AND MALTON BRANCH.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session for an Act to alter, amend, enlarge, and repeal some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to the York, Newcastle, and Berwick Railway Company (lately called the York and Newcastle Railway Company, and originally the Newcastle and Darlington Junction Railway Company,) passed respectively in the 5th, 6th, 7th, 9th, 10th, and 11th years of the Reign of her present Majesty, and to enable the said York, Newcastle, and Berwick Railway Company to deviate or alter part of the York, Newcastle, and Berwick Railway, called the Thirsk and Malton Branch Railway, and to make and maintain the Railways, Branch Railways, and Works following, or some of them, with proper Works and Conveniences connected therewith, that is to say, a Railway commencing by a Junction with the present authorised Line of the said Thirsk and Malton Branch Railway in or near a Field belonging to Charles Gregory Fairfax, Esquire, and in the occupation of Robert Kilvington, at or near to the West Side of the Turnpike Road leading from York to Helmsley, near the Village of Gilling, in the Township and Parish of Gilling, in the North Riding of the County of York, thence passing from, in, through, or into the several Parishes, Townships, and Extra-Parochial or other Places following, or some of them, that is to say, Gilling, Grimstone, Cawton, Stonegrave, Yearsley, Oswaldkirk, Ampleforth, Ampleforth St Peter, Ampleforth Oswaldkirk or Oswaldkirk Quarter, Ampleforth Birdforth, Thorp-le-Willows, Byland, Byland cum Membris, Wass, Oldstead, Kilburn, High Kilburn, Low Kilburn, Newburgh, Coxwold, Angram, Angram Grange, Wildon, Wildon Grange, Thornton on the Hill, Baxby, Thornton with Baxby, Husthwaite, Carlton, Carlton-Husthwaite, Thormanby, Birdforth, Sessay, Hutton-Sessay, Brafferton, Helperby, Raskelf, and Easingwold, all in the said North Riding of the County of York, and terminating by a Junction with the Railway now or lately called the Great North of England Railway, near to where the Road leading from Raskelf to Boroughbridge is carried over the same Railway by a Bridge in the Township of Raskelf, in the Parish of Easingwold, in the said North Riding, and which Railway, now or lately called the Great North of England Railway, now forms part of the Main Line of the York, Newcastle, and Berwick Railway, and is in the occupation of and agreed to be purchased by the said York, Newcastle, and Berwick Railway Company. And also a Railway commencing by a Junction with the above mentioned intended Railway, at or near a Point marked A on the Plans thereof, to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, in the Township of Raskelf, in the Parish of Easingwold, and terminating by a Junction with the said Railway, now or lately called the Great North of England Railway, near the Fifteenth and a Half Mile Post, (measured from York,) in the Township and Parish of Brafferton, and passing from, through, or into the several Parishes, Townships, and Extra-Parochial or other Places of Easingwold, Raskelf, and Brafferton, all in the said North Riding.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to enable the said York, Newcastle, and Berwick Railway Company to abandon and relinquish the construction of the following portions of the Line of their said Thirsk and Malton Branch Railway, namely, so much of the said Thirsk and Malton Branch Railway as is authorised to be made by the "Newcastle and Darlington Junction (Thirsk and Malton Branches) Railway Act, 1846," and lies between a Point marked twelve miles two furlongs on the Plans relating to the same Branch, deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the North Riding of the County of York, in the month of November 1845, in the Township of Gilling, in the Parish of Gilling, and a Point marked A on the said last-mentioned Plans in the Township of Dalton, in the Parish of Topcliffe, all in the said North Riding of the County of York; and so much of the said Thirsk and Malton Branch Railway as is authorised to be made by "The York and Newcastle (Pelaw and other Branches) Railway Act, 1847," and which last-mentioned part intended to be abandoned is described on the Plans relating to the same Branch, deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the said North Riding, in the month of November 1846, and extends from the Township of Wildon Grange, in the Parish of Coxwold, to the Township of Raskelf, in the Parish of Easingwold, (including the same Parishes and Townships,) all in the said North Riding of the County of York.

And it is intended to apply for powers in the said Act so to be applied for, to stop up, divert, or alter, whether temporarily or permanently, all such Turnpike Roads, Parish Roads, and other Highways, Streams, Canals, Navigations, Railways, and Tramroads, within the said Parishes, Townships, and Extra-Parochial and other Places aforesaid, or some of them, as it may be necessary to stop up, divert, or alter for the purposes of such proposed Railways and other Works.

And it is also intended by the said Act so to be applied for, to take powers for the purchase, by compulsion or otherwise, of Lands and Houses for the purposes of the said intended Railways and Works, and to alter, vary, or extinguish all existing rights and privileges connected with such Lands and Houses, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction, maintenance, and use of the said proposed Railways and Works, and to confer other rights and privileges, and also to levy Tolls, Rates, and Duties for or in respect of the use of the said intended Railways and Works, and to confer such exemptions from the payment of such Tolls, Rates, and Duties, as may be thought expedient.

And Notice is hereby further given, that Maps, Plans, and Sections of the said intended Railways and other Works, together with Books of Reference to such Plans, and a Copy of this Notice, as published in the London and Edinburgh Gazettes, will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the North Riding of the said County of York, at his office at Northallerton, in the same Riding, on or before the 30th day of November in this present year, and that on or before the same day a copy of so much of the said Plans and Sections (with a Book of Reference thereto,) as relates to each Parish, in or through which the said intended Railways and Works are proposed to be made, and also a Copy of this Notice, as published in the London and Edinburgh Gazettes, will be deposited with the Parish Clerk of each such Parish at his Place of Abode.

Dated this first day of November 1847.

(DURHAM LINE, and power to Subscribe towards the Construction of the SUNDERLAND DOCKS.

NOTICE is hereby given, That Application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session for an Act to alter, amend, enlarge, and repeal some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to the YORK, NEWCASTLE, and BERWICK RAILWAY COMPANY, (late-ly called the York and Newcastle Railway Company, and originally the Newcastle and Darlington Junction Railway Company,) passed respectively in the 5th, 6th, 7th, 9th, 10th, and 11th Years of the Reign of her present Majesty, and to enable the said York, Newcastle, and Berwick Railway Company to make a Branch Railway, with all necessary works and conveniences connected therewith and approaches thereto, commencing by a Junction with the Main Line of Railway belonging to the York, Newcastle, and Berwick Railway Company, at or near to a point marked A on the Plans, to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, about 350 yards north of the place where the Thinford Lane passes under the said Main Line of Railway, in the Township of Cassop, in the Parish of Kelloe, in the County of Durham, thence passing from, in, through, or into the several Parishes, Townships, and Extra-Parochial, or other places following, or some of them, that is to say, Bishop Middleham, Cornforth, Kelloe, Quarrington, Cassop, Merrington, Ferryhill, Hett, St Oswald, Shincliffe, Sunderland Bridge, Elvet Borough, Elvet Barony, Croxdale, Brancepeth, Brandon, and Byshotles, Tudhoe, Broom, and Crossgate, and terminating by a Junction with the proposed Bishop Auckland Railway, of the said York, Newcastle, and Berwick Railway Company, at or near to a point marked B on the said Plans, in the Township of Brandon and Byshotles, in the Parish of Brancepeth, in the said County of Durham, being at or near to a place where the said proposed Bishop Auckland Branch Railway crosses the Turnpike Road leading from Durham to Wolsingham.

And it is intended to apply for powers in the said Act so to be applied for, to stop up, divert, or alter, whether temporarily or permanently, all such Turnpike Roads, Parish Roads, and other Highways, Streams, Canals, Navigations, Railways, and Tramroads, within the said Parishes, Townships, and Extra-Parochial, and other Places aforesaid, or some of them, as it may be necessary to stop up, divert, or alter, for the purposes of such proposed Railway and other Works.

And it is also intended by the said Act so to be applied for to take powers for the purchase, by compulsion, or otherwise, of Lands and Houses, for the purposes of the said intended Railway and Works, and to alter, vary, or extinguish all existing rights and privileges connected with such Lands and Houses, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction, maintenance, and use of the said intended Railway and Works, and to confer other rights and privileges; and also to levy Tolls, Rates, and Duties for, or in respect of, the use of the said intended Railway and Works, and to confer such exemptions from the payment of such Tolls, Rates, and Duties as may be thought expedient.

And it is also intended by the said Act so to be applied for, to authorize the said York, Newcastle, and Berwick Railway Company to raise a further Sum of Money for the purposes of the said intended Railway and Works, and for the general purposes of the said undertaking. And Notice is hereby further given, that Maps, Plans, and Sections, of the said intended Railway and other Works, together with Books of Reference to such Plans, and a Copy of this Notice, as published in the London and Edinburgh Gazettes, will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Durham, at his office in the City of Durham, on or before the 30th day of November, in this present year; and that on or before the same day, a Copy of so much of the said Plans and Sections (with a Book of Reference thereto), as relates to each Parish in or through which the said intended Railway and Works are proposed to be made; and also a Copy of this Notice, as published in the London and Edinburgh Gazettes, will be deposited with the Parish Clerk of each such Parish, at his place of abode.

And Notice is hereby also given, that it is intended by the said Act so to be applied for, to empower the said York, Newcastle, and Berwick Railway Company to subscribe towards the construction, maintenance, and use of the Docks authorised to be constructed by the Sunderland Dock Act, 1846, and to hold Shares in that Undertaking, and (so far as may be necessary for that purpose) to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of the Sunderland Dock Act.

and sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled, 'An Act for more effectually making, repairing, and maintaining the turnpike roads in the county of Edinburgh;'—And an Act of the ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled, 'An Act to regulate the granting of certificates by Justices of the Peace and Magistrates, authorizing persons to keep common inns, ale-houses, and victualling-houses in Scotland, in which ale, beer, spirits, wine, and other exciseable liquors may be sold by retail, under excise licenses, and for the better regulation of such houses, and for the prevention of such houses being kept without such certificate;'—together with all other Acts or Authorities which may in any way interfere with, or which may be affected by, the objects of the said Bill or Bills.—By which Bill or Bills it is proposed to extend the boundaries of the ancient and extended Royalty of Edinburgh, so that the same may comprehend the whole territory lying within the Parliamentary Franchise Boundaries of the said City, as in the said first recited Act defined; to make a new division of the said territory, as so extended, into wards for the exercise of the Parliamentary Franchise, and of the Municipal Franchise, and so as to admit of one Register serving for the exercise of both Franchises; to extend the said Municipal Franchise, with the powers and provisions of the Acts third and fourth before recited, and the whole rights, privileges, and immunities of the said Royal Burgh over the said whole extended territory; to increase the number of the Bailies and Town-Councillors of the said burgh as extended; to abolish the subordinate magistracies and regality, baronies, and other jurisdictions of Canongate, Calton, Portsburgh, and Broughton, with the whole offices and functions connected therewith, and privileges and immunities of the same; to transfer to the Magistrates and Town-Councillors of Edinburgh the property and revenues of every description at present belonging to the said subordinate Magistracies, or any of them; and to enable Her Majesty from time to time to nominate and appoint Justices of the Peace for the said City, as proposed to be extended. And Notice is also hereby given, that it is proposed by the said Bill or Bills, to transfer to the Magistrates and Council the whole powers, trusts, and functions conferred on the Commissioners of the Southern Districts of Edinburgh, and the Commissioners of Police of the said City, by the several Acts before recited, or any of them, or by any Act to be passed in the ensuing Session of Parliament, to be exercised by the said Magistrates and Town-Council, or by Committees of the same, in room and place of the said Commissioners. And by which Bill or Bills it is meant to make the police boundaries of Edinburgh co-extensive with the said extended municipal boundaries thereof, and to separate and disjoin the portion of the existing police bounds lying within the parliamentary and municipal boundaries of Leith, from the said Edinburgh police bounds, and to place the portion so disjoined under the existing Police Act or Police Acts of the said burgh of Leith. And Notice is also hereby given, that it is intended by the said Bill or Bills to extend the powers and jurisdictions of the said Magistrates and Town Council of Edinburgh, and of the Burgh, Dean of Guild, and Justice of Peace

Courts of the same, and all other powers and jurisdictions exercised and competent within and over the said Royalty, to and over the same as so extended, and to regulate the procedure of the said Courts: And by which Bill or Bills power is also meant to be taken to repeal or alter existing tolls, rates, and duties leviable under the said recited Acts, or some of them; and to confer, vary, and extinguish all exemptions from payment of tolls, rates, and duties, and other rights and privileges; and particularly, it is intended by the said Bill or Bills to take powers to alter or vary certain customs leviable by the Magistrates of Canongate, at the Watergate at the foot of the Canongate, and at the point where the New London Road joins the Eastern Road to Leith; and also, to alter and vary, increase or diminish, a certain tax or impost of one per cent. yearly, levied for municipal purposes upon the valued rent of houses and possessions, payable by the inhabitants of the Ancient Royalty of the said City of Edinburgh, and of the New Town in the extended Royalty thereof, in lieu of an impost on wines, foreign spirits, and foreign ale and beer, consumed in private families, and to extend the said tax to the inhabitants of all houses and possessions within the proposed extended municipal boundaries, and to levy the same over the said district, and to abolish all privileges or exemptions from payment thereof. And Notice is also hereby given, that it is intended by the said Bill or Bills to ask powers to regulate the imposition and collection of the land-tax, payable by the City of Edinburgh, Burghs of Canongate and Leith, and eight Southern Districts of the said City. And Notice is also hereby given, that it is intended by the said Bill or Bills also to transfer to the said Magistrates and Town-Council of Edinburgh, the whole powers, trusts, and functions of the trustees of the middle district of roads in the County of Edinburgh, or City of Edinburgh paving-board, with their whole property and effects, to be used and exercised by the said Magistrates and Councillors of Edinburgh, with such amended powers as may be necessary, in room of the said trustees or board, in time to come; and that power will also be sought to remove all toll-bars from within the said proposed extended municipal boundaries of the said City, and to prevent the erection of such in future; and also to add to the road-trustees of the said county of Edinburgh, as members of the said body, the additional Bailies to be appointed for the said City, under the authority of the said Bill or Bills. And Notice is also hereby given, that it is intended by the said Bill or Bills to enable the Lord Provost and Bailies of the said City, qua Sheriffs, and also Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said City and liberties, resident within the said proposed extended municipal boundaries, to hold Courts for the determination of suits for the recovery of debts of such description and amount contracted or arising within the said boundaries as are or may be recovered before Sheriffs or Justices of the Peace respectively, under the existing Small-Debt Acts; and by which Bill or Bills powers are meant to be taken to enable the said Magistrates and Town-Council to make arrangements for the continued employment of the officers, clerks, collectors, and others acting under the Acts before recited, or for making such new or additional appointments as may be necessary: And, generally, it is meant to apply to the said Bill or Bills for such powers as are necessary or seem calculated, and may be sanctioned by Parliament, for carrying out the extension and consolidation of the municipal government and administration of the said City as before mentioned, and the other objects of the said Bill or Bills in the most complete and efficient manner; and also, to enable the said Magistrates to exercise the full and exclusive right and power to grant licenses for the sale of spirituous and other liquors within the said proposed extended municipal boundaries, under the Act of the ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth before recited.

SCOTTISH MIDLAND JUNCTION RAILWAY.

AMENDMENT AND BRANCH TO LAURENCEKIRK.

NOTICE of the intention to present a Petition for leave to re-introduce into Parliament a Bill to enable the SCOTTISH MIDLAND JUNCTION RAILWAY COMPANY to make a Branch Railway from near the Royal Burgh of Forfar to, or near to, the Town of Laurencekirk, in the County of Kincardine, and to amend the Acts relating to the said Railway,—

WHEREAS, in compliance with the standing orders of both Houses of Parliament, there were duly inserted, in the month of November last, in the Edinburgh Gazette, and also in Newspapers published in the Counties of Forfar, Perth, and Aberdeen, Notices of the intention to apply to Parliament, in the then ensuing Session, for an Act to vary, alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to the Scottish Midland Junction Railway; and to empower the Scottish Midland Junction Railway Company to make and maintain the Branch Railway herein after described, or some part thereof, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith: That is to say, a Branch Railway to diverge out of and from the main line of the Scottish Midland Junction Railway, at or near to the Farm House of Campbelton, in the parish of Forfar, and county of Forfar, and to terminate by a junction with the Aberdeen Railway, at or near to the western extremity of the town or burgh of Laurencekirk, in the parish of Conveth or Laurencekirk, in the county of Kincardine:

And, Whereas, leave was given to introduce the said Bill accordingly, and the said Bill passed the Honourable the House of Commons, with various alterations and amendments, and was read a second time in the Right Honourable the House of Lords, but no farther proceedings were had thereon, and the said Bill was suspended as authorised by the resolutions of both Houses of Parliament of 10th June 1847:

And Notice is Hereby Given, that it is intended to present a Petition to the Honourable the House of Commons, in the next Session of Parliament, for leave to re-introduce the said Bill as the same was read a second time in the Right Honourable the House of Lords, and to proceed to pass the said Bill as authorised by the aforesaid Resolutions of both Houses of Parliament.

Dated this Eighth day of November, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Forty-seven.

SCOTTISH MIDLAND JUNCTION RAILWAY.

AMENDMENT AND BRANCHES TO BIRNAM AND TO DUNKELD BRANCH OF SCOTTISH MIDLAND JUNCTION RAILWAY;

AND POWER TO ABANDON PART OF THE ORIGINAL LINE OF THE SAID DUNKELD BRANCH.

NOTICE is Hereby Given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next Session, for an Act to vary, alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions, or some of them, of the Acts relating to the Scottish Midland Junction Railway, passed respectively in the eighth and ninth, and ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty: And it is also proposed by the said Act so to be applied for, to enable the Scottish Midland Junction Railway Company to make and maintain the Branch Railways hereinafter mentioned, or some part or parts thereof, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, and approaches thereto; that is to say, First, a Branch Railway to diverge out of the main line of the Scottish Midland Junction Railway at a point on the lands of Shielhill, near to the village of Stanley, and to terminate at or near the village of Birnam, in the parish of Little Dunkeld; which said Branch Railway and Works will pass from, in, through, or into the parishes and places following, or some of them, that is to say, Auchtergaven, Kinclaven, and Little Dunkeld, in the county of Perth; and Second, a Branch Railway to diverge out of the said first-mentioned intended Branch Railway at a point on the lands of Gillyburn, in the Parish of Little Dunkeld, and to terminate by a Junction with the Dunkeld Branch of the Scottish Midland Junction Railway, as authorised by the Scottish Midland Junction Railway Branches Act, 1846, at a point thereon near to the boundary between the parishes of Kinclaven and Little Dunkeld, and at the distance of two miles or thereby from the main line of the said Scottish Midland Junction Railway; which said intended Branch Railway and Works will pass from, in, through, or into, the parishes of Little Dunkeld and Kinclaven aforesaid, or one of them: And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to authorise and enable the Scottish Midland Junction Railway Company, to abandon or relinquish so much of the said Dunkeld Branch of the Scottish Midland Junction Railway, authorised as aforesaid, as extends from the point of junction with such last mentioned intended Branch Railway hereinbefore described to the termination of the said Dunkeld Branch, authorised as aforesaid, at or near to the Burgh of Dunkeld, and which portion of the said Branch Railway so intended to be abandoned or relinquished, as aforesaid, is situated in the parishes of Kinclaven, Caputh, and Little Dunkeld, or some of them.

And Notice is Hereby Given, that it is intended to take power for the compulsory purchase of lands, houses, and other property that may be required for the purposes aforesaid, and to levy tolls, rates, and duties on and for the use of the said Branch Railways and other works, and to alter the tolls, rates, and duties authorised to be levied upon and for the use of the Scottish Midland Junction Railway and Branches by the aforesaid Acts relating to the said Railway and Branches, and also to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of rates, tolls, or duties, and to vary, alter, or extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would in any manner interfere with the objects aforesaid, and to confer other rights and privileges; and power is also intended to be taken by the said Act to divert or alter within the parishes and places aforesaid, all turnpike and other roads, streets, railways, tramways, gas pipes, water pipes, sewers, rivers, streams, and water courses which it may be necessary to interfere with in the construction of the said intended Branch Railways and other Works in the manner and to the extent shown upon the Plans deposited as after-mentioned: And it is also intended by the said Act to take power to the Scottish Midland Junction Railway Company to raise a farther sum of money, by the creation of New Stock or otherwise, for the purposes aforesaid, or some of them, and for other purposes connected with the said Railway:

And Notice is Hereby Given, that Plans and Sections and Duplicates thereof, describing the lines or situations and levels of the said intended Branch Railways and other Works, and also describing the lands, houses, and other property to be taken and used for the purposes thereof, together with a Book or Books of Reference to such Plans, containing the names of the Owners or reputed Owners, Lessees or reputed Lessees and Occupiers of such lands, houses, and other property, respectively, and also a Copy of the Notice of the said intended application to Parliament, as published in the Edinburgh Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection on or before the thirtieth day of November, in the present year, in the Office of the principal Sheriff Clerk of the County of Perth at Perth; and that a Copy of so much of the said Plans, Sections, and Book or Books of Reference as relates to each Parish in or through which the said intended Branch Railways and other Works are intended to be made, and Copies of the said Gazette Notice will be deposited on or before the said thirtieth day of November, in the present year, with the Schoolmaster, and if there be no Schoolmaster, then with the Session-Clerk of each of such Parishes respectively, at their respective residences.

Dated this Eighth Day of November, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Forty-Seven.

TRANSFER OF THE CRINAN CANAL— AMENDMENT OF THE CRINAN AND CALEDONIAN CANAL ACTS.

NOTICE is hereby given, That it is intended to apply to Parliament in the ensuing Session, for leave to bring in a Bill to continue, alter, and amend, or to repeal, or consolidate, or renew, with new or additional powers and provisions, the following Acts of Parliament, viz.—An Act passed in the 33d year of the reign of his Majesty King George the Third, (c. 104,) intituled, ‘An Act for making and maintaining a Navigable Canal from Loch Gilp to Loch Crinan, in the Shire of Argyll;’ An Act passed in the 39th year of the reign of his said Majesty King George the Third, (c. 27,) intituled, ‘An Act for amending and rendering more effectual an Act passed in the 33d year of the reign of his present Majesty, intituled, ‘An Act for making and maintaining a Navigable Canal from Loch Gilp to Loch Crinan, in the Shire of Argyll;’” An Act passed in the said 39th year of the reign of his said Majesty King George the Third, (c. 71,) intituled, ‘An Act for empowering the Company of Proprietors of the Forth and Clyde Navigation to repay into the Court of Exchequer in Scotland the sum advanced to them for the purpose of completing the said Navigation; for repealing so much of an Act of the 24th year of his present Majesty, as relates to the said Company, and for enabling the Barons of the said Court of Exchequer to advance part of the sum so to be received to the Company of Proprietors of the Crinan Canal, on certain conditions;’ An Act passed in the 45th year of the reign of his said Majesty King George the Third, (c. 85,) intituled, ‘An Act for authorising the Commissioners of his Majesty’s Treasury in Great Britain to advance a certain sum of money to be applied in completing the Crinan Canal;’ An Act passed in the 46th year of the reign of his said Majesty King George the Third, (c. 155,) intituled, ‘An Act for applying certain Balances arising from the Forfeited Estates in Scotland towards making

‘Canals, Harbours, and other Public Works there;’ An Act passed in the 51st year of the reign of his said Majesty King George the Third, (c. 117,) intituled, ‘An Act for granting to his Majesty certain sums of money out of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain, and for applying certain monies therein mentioned for the Service of the Year 1811, and for further appropriating the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament;’ An Act passed in the 56th year of the reign of his said Majesty King George the Third, (c. 135,) intituled, ‘An Act for authorising the Barons of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland to order the payment of a certain sum of money, to be applied in completing the Crinan Canal.’

By which Bill it is intended to alter or modify the Tolls, Rates, and Duties leviable by or under the said recited Acts, or any of them, to alter the mode of assessing and levying such Tolls, Rates, and Duties; to levy, in whole or in part, other and different Tolls, Rates, and Duties, for the maintaining and keeping in repair the Crinan Canal and Works connected therewith: And it is also intended by the said Bill to authorise the Commissioners of the Caledonian Canal to acquire, by compulsion or otherwise, the said Crinan Canal and Works thereof; together with all Lands and Houses belonging to the Shareholders or Proprietors of the said Crinan Canal, and all the powers, rights, and privileges in relation thereto, contained in the said Acts, and to vest the said Crinan Canal, and works and property, rights and privileges, in the said Commissioners, absolutely freed and discharged from every right and interest of the said Shareholders and others.

And it is also intended by the said Bill to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from payment of Rates, Tolls, and Duties, and other rights and privileges, and to take all other powers necessary for carrying the intended Act into execution.

And Notice is also given, that it is intended by the said Bill to alter and amend the following Acts, viz.—An Act passed in the 43d year of the reign of his Majesty King George the III., (c. 102,) intituled, ‘An Act for granting to his Majesty the sum of Twenty Thousand Pounds towards defraying the Expence of making an Inland Navigation from the Eastern to the Western Sea, by Inverness and Fort-William, and for taking the necessary steps towards executing the same;’ An Act passed in the 44th year of the reign of his said Majesty King George the III., (c. 62,) intituled, ‘An Act for making and maintaining an Inland Navigation, commonly called ‘The Caledonian Canal,’ from the Eastern to the Western Sea, by Inverness and Fort-William in Scotland;’ An Act passed in the 6th year of the reign of his Majesty King George the IV., (c. 15,) intituled, ‘An Act to explain and amend two Acts passed in the Forty-third and Forty-fourth years of the reign of his late Majesty King George the Third, for making and maintaining an Inland Navigation, commonly called “The Caledonian Canal,” by establishing further checks upon the expenditure of Public Money for that purpose in certain cases;’ An Act passed in the 3d and 4th years of the reign of her present Majesty, (c. 41,) intituled, ‘An Act to authorise the Commissioners of her Majesty’s Treasury to grant a lease of the Caledonian Canal for a term of years,

'and to regulate the future management thereof.' And by the said Bill it is intended to incorporate the said Commissioners of the Caledonian Canal, and to take power to add to their number, for the purposes not only of the Crinan Canal, but also of the Caledonian Canal, and to confer other powers, privileges, and authorities on the said Commissioners.
