NOTICE TO THE PARTNERS OF THE CLYDE SHIPPING COMPANY.

THE Annual General Meeting of the Partners is to be held within the Black Bull Inn, Glasgow, on Monday the 6th of March next, at two o'clock afternoon.

And Whereas, by the 34th Article of the Contract of Copartnership of the said Company, it is enacted, 'That it shall be lawful to, and in the power of the Members assembled at any General Meeting called for that purpose by one-tenth part of the Company, or any three of the Directors, to prolong and extend the endurance of this Copartnership, and the Contract by which it is constituted, to any number of years beyond the aforesaid period of fifteen years; provided always that such prolongation shall not exceed another period of fifteen years; And if two-thirds of the shares represented at such meeting shall agree to such prolongation or extension of the Contract, their determination shall be obligatory on the whole Company; provided also that the said meeting shall be called by public advertisement and circular letters from the Manager, as aforesaid, two months at least before such meeting, in which the purpose thereof shall be expressly specified. And it is accordingly hereby agreed, that a Minute, entered in the Books of the Company, declaratory of their resolution to this effect, shall be effectually binding and obligatory upon the Company without any other form or writing whatever.'

Now Notice is hereby given, that at the above mentioned General Meeting a motion or resolution will be submitted, to prolong and extend the endurance of the said Copartnership, and of the Contract by which it is constituted, for another period of fifteen years after the 11th day of January 1849, when the period of the present Contract expires; and also certain resolutions, to be then specified, on the terms of the said Contract; which motion and alterations will be then and there considered and decided upon.
