TUESDAY, JULY 4, 1848.

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 27th day of June 1848,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day the Right Honourable John George Brabazon Earl of Bessborough and the Right Honourable Samuel March Phillips were, by Her Majesty's command, sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took their respective places at the Board accordingly.

Whereas by a certain Order in Council, made on the twenty-sixth day of September one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, for regulating the trade and commerce of the district of Natal, in South Africa, certain duties of Customs were directed to be levied upon certain goods, wares, and merchandizes imported into the said district; and whereas it is expedient to exempt agricultural implements imported into the said district from the payment of such duties:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of the publication of this Order in the said district, no duties of Customs shall be levied in the said district upon agricultural implements imported into the said district, any thing in the said first-mentioned Order in Council to the contrary notwithstanding:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, and the Right Honourable Earl Grey, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, shall give the necessary directions herein as to them respectively doth appertain.

WM. L. BATHURST.
