NOTICE.

By the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

CLARENDON.

Whereas by an Act passed in this present Session of Parliament, in the eleventh year of Her Majesty's reign, entitled “An Act for the better Prevention of Crime and Outrage in certain parts of Ireland, until the first day of December, One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, to the end of the then next Session of Parliament,” it is amongst other things enacted, “That from and after the day named in the Proclamation in said Act first-mentioned, it shall be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by Notice to be published in the Dublin Gazette, and posted in manner in said Act mentioned, from time to time to require all persons (not being Justices of the Peace, or persons in Her Majesty's Naval or Military Service, or in the Coast Guard Service, or in the Service of the Revenue, or in the Police or Constabulary Force, or Special Constables, or persons duly licensed to kill game, or persons to whom any license shall have been granted under said Act,) residing or being within any county, county of a city, county of a town, barony, half barony, or other district named in said Proclamation, or any part thereof respectively, on or before a day to be named in such notice, to deposit or leave at a place or places to be named in such notice, or at the nearest police station or barrack, any gun or guns, pistol or pistols, or other fire-arm or fire-arms, or any part or parts of any gun, pistol, or other fire-arms, or any sword or swords, cutlass or cutlasses, pike or pikes, bayonet or bayonets, or any bullets, gunpowder, or ammunition which he, she, or they may have in his, her, or their custody, power, or possession :”

And Whereas by Our Proclamation, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council in Ireland, bearing date at the Castle of Dublin, the eighteenth day of July, One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, We declared, that from and after the twentieth day of July, One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, the said Act should apply to and be in force in the county of the city of Dublin :

Now Notice is hereby given, that We require all persons (not being Justices of the Peace, or persons in Her Majesty's Naval or Military Service, or in the Coast Guard Service, or in the Service of the Revenue, or in the Police or Constabulary Force, or Special Constables, or persons duly licensed to kill game, or persons to whom any license shall have been granted under this Act,) residing or being within the said county of the city of Dublin, on or before Tuesday the twenty-fifth day of July, One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, to deposit and leave at the offices of the Superintendents of the Metropolitan Police for the respective police divisions in which such persons reside, or at the police stations or barracks nearest to their respective residences ; the said offices being respectively situate as undermentioned, viz.—

For the A Division, at the Police Barrack in Kevin Street ;

For the B Division, in the Lower Castle-yard, Dublin Castle ;

For the C Division, at No. 93, Amiens Street ; and

For the D Division, at No. 24, Phoenix Street ;

all and every gun or guns, pistol or pistols, or other fire-arm or fire-arms, and any part or parts of any gun, pistol, or other fire-arms, and any sword or swords, cutlass or cutlasses, pike or pikes, bayonet or bayonets, and any bullets, gunpowder, and ammunition which he, she, or they may have in his, her, or their custody, power, or possession :

And Notice is hereby further given, that every person who, after the said twenty-fifth day of July, One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, shall knowingly have in his or her custody, power, or possession any gun, pistol, or other fire-arm, or part or parts of any gun, pistol, or fire-arm, or any sword, cutlass, pike, or bayonet, or any bullets, gunpowder, or ammunition, contrary to the provisions of said Act, will be liable, on conviction thereof, to be imprisoned, with hard labour, for a term of two years.

Dublin Castle, 21st day of July 1848.

By his Excellency's Command,

T. N. REDINGTON.
