TUESDAY, AUGUST 22, 1848.

At the Court at Osborne-House, Isle of Wight, the 11th day of August 1848,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board, a Report of the Right Honourable the Lords of a Committee of Council, dated the tenth instant, in the words following, viz.—

“Your Majesty having been pleased by your Order in Council of the thirtieth day of October last, to refer unto this Committee, for consideration, an Act passed in the tenth year of your Majesty's reign, intituled “An Act for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in England,” with directions to report to your Majesty, what order, in their opinion, it might be proper to make for paying the Judges and certain Officers of the County Courts, established under the provisions of the said Act, by salaries, instead of fees :

“The Lords of the Committee, in obedience to your Majesty's said order of reference, have taken the said Act into consideration, and having ascertained that, in accordance with the provisions of the said Statute, the Lord High Chancellor of England had appointed sixty Judges to preside over the whole of the said County Courts, are pleased humbly to report, as their opinion, to your Majesty, that an Order in Council, to the effect following, should be made for the purposes of the said Act, that is to say :

“That, from and after the thirtieth day of September one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, the sixty Judges of the Courts, held under the provisions of the said Act of the tenth year of your Majesty's reign, should be paid by salaries ; and that each of such sixty Judges should be paid one thousand pounds per annum, at such times and in such manner as the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may think fit to direct.”

And Whereas notice was given and published in the London Gazette, on Tuesday the second day of November last, that, after the expiration of one calendar month from the date of the publication of that notice, Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, would take into consideration the propriety of making an Order, under the provisions of the said Act, for paying the Judges, Clerks, Bailiffs, and Officers of the said Courts, by salaries instead of fees, or in such other manner as might be deemed expedient :

Her Majesty, having taken the premises into consideration, is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to Order, and it is hereby Ordered, that from and after the thirtieth day of September one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, the sixty Judges of the Courts, held under the provisions of the said Act, shall be paid by salaries instead of fees ; and that each of such sixty Judges shall be paid, as and for his salary, one thousand pounds per annum, at such times and in such manner as the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may think fit to direct.
