TO THE CREDITORS OF

PETER FORRESTER, late Merchant in Edinburgh, as an individual, and also as one of the partners of the firms or companies of Peter and Francis Forrester and Company, merchants in Leith, and of Peter Forrester and Company, Forresters and Company, and Peter and Francis Forresters, or Peter and Francis Forresters and Co. merchants in Edinburgh.

Upon an application by the said Peter Forrester, with concurrence of Robert Allan, accountant in Edinburgh, trustee upon the sequestrated estate of the said Peter Forrester, and of the said Companies in which he was a partner, and four fifths of his creditors in number and value, for a discharge of all his debts contracted prior to the 20th of August 1793 (the date of the sequestration), the Lords of Council and Session, upon the 16th instant, pronounced the following interlocutor: "The Lords having heard this petition, they appoint the same to be intimated upon the walls of the Inner and Outer House in common form, and also to be advertised in the Edinburgh Gazette, that all parties having interest may object thereto if they think fit; and, upon such intimation and advertisement being duly made and published, the Lords declare they will, in terms of the statute, resume the consideration of this petition, and proceed to determine therein, with or without objections."

In terms of the above interlocutor this intimation is made to all concerned.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

ANDREW WILSON, late Merchant in Lanark. Richard Vary, the trustee, requests the creditors to meet in the house of Robert Soanerville, vintner there, on the 4th of February next, at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of receiving their final dividends, and granting a discharge. Of which this intimation is made to all concerned. Jan. 18. 1799.
