GLASGOW, August 14, 1849.

THE following ADDRESSES were presented to His Royal Highness PRINCE ALBERT, who was graciously pleased to receive the same in person:—

To His Royal Highness Prince Albert.

May it please your Royal Highness.

We, Her Majesty's loyal and attached subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Dean of Faculties, Principal of the College, and Professors in the University of Glasgow, in Senate assembled, desire to offer to your Royal Highness, on your arrival in this part of Her Majesty's Dominions, the tribute of our respectful homage, and expression of our affectionate regard.

Contemplating in your Royal Highness the Consort of our gracious and beloved Queen, a Prince whose personal character and conduct have endeared him to all classes of Her subjects, and the enlightened patron of those literary and scientific pursuits which it is our province to teach and to promote, we gladly join in the cordial welcome with which your presence is hailed by the whole community with whom we are surrounded. We anticipate from the repeated visits of your Royal Highness to this Ancient Kingdom a fresh impulse to the cultivation of every branch of useful knowledge and the liberal arts; and we rest assured that the deep concern which, as a parent, your Royal Highness must take in the subject of education, will secure to such establishments as ours the benefit of your attention to our interest, and encouragement in the performance of our duties.

We pray that our Father in Heaven may long spare your Royal Highness to augment the domestic bliss of our Sovereign, and to train up the youthful family, to whose progress we look forward with the profoundest interest, in those virtues and accomplishments of which, in your own person, so bright an example is exhibited; and that when your earthly course is finished, you may enjoy the Heavenly Crown prepared for His good and faithful servants.

Sealed with the University's Seal, and signed in name, and by appointment of the Senate of the University at Glasgow, the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine.

DUNCAN MACFARLAN, Vice-Chancellor of the University, and Principal of Glasgow College.

To His Royal Highness Prince Albert.

May it please your Royal Highness,

We, Her Majesty's most loyal and devoted subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Glasgow, being met in Presbytery, entreat permission to approach your Royal Highness with our dutiful congratulations on your arrival in this the Metropolitan City of the populous and extensive district under our spiritual superintendence.

We entertain the most sincere respect for your Royal Highness, as the chosen partner of our beloved Sovereign. We participate in the esteem entertained for you, we believe universally, on account of the public and private virtues which adorn your character; and we look with no common interest on the important duty which is devolved on your Royal Highness, of watching over the tender years, and forming the infant minds of your Royal Offspring.

We pray that their daily expanding virtues may reward your care, and especially that the Prince, to whom we anticipate, at a period remote we trust, but yet auspicious, the destinies of the British Empire will be committed, may emulate and surpass the brightest examples of that piety, public spirit, purity of life, and benevolence, which exalt and adorn the Crown of a Patriot King.

That the God and Father of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, may continue to our gracious Queen, to your Royal Highness, and to the Children He has given you, the many blessings He has bestowed in this life, and that He may receive you at length into His Kingdom and Glory, is our fervent and united prayer.

Signed in our name, and in our presence, and by our appointment, by

M. LEISHMAN, D.D. Moderator.

Glasgow, August 8, 1849.

To His Royal Highness Prince Albert.

May it please your Royal Highness,

We, Her Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Free Church Presbytery of Glasgow, desire to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of the most cordial affection, respect, and esteem.

As a Prince descended from a family signalized by zeal for truth and liberty—as personally dis-
