FRIDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1849.

THE following ADDRESSES were presented to the Queen, on the occasion of Her Majesty's late return from Scotland, and were very graciously received by Her Majesty:—

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Mayor and Magistrates of the Borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed, and of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the said Borough, in Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

We, your Majesty's faithful and devoted subjects, the Mayor and Magistrates of the Borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed, and the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the said Borough, in Council assembled, beg to approach your Majesty with the expression of our unfeigned loyalty and attachment.

We cannot, on such an occasion, forget how much the public and private morality of the people, and the safety and stability of the State, depend upon the conduct and character of the Sovereign; and we gladly proclaim our belief that the love and reverence which your Majesty's private life and public career have inspired, greatly conduced to avert from our shores the shock of that political tempest which on the Continent rent society to its foundations and overturned the most established Governments.

We beg to express our grateful sense of the warm and lively interest which your Majesty evinces in the welfare and happiness of the people committed to your charge; and we fervently pray that God may shield from every harm that sacred life which is bound up with the destiny of millions, and preserve your Majesty to enjoy many happy years to be the ornament and example of the age in which we live.

Given under the common seal of the said Borough, and under the hands of the said Mayor and Magistrates, at Berwick-upon-Tweed, this 24th day of September 1849.

(Here follow the signatures.)

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

We, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, in Council assembled, approach your Majesty with the tender of a respectful but heartfelt welcome.

We recur with a grateful recollection to the period of your Majesty's former visit to the Town of Birmingham, in the company of your Majesty's august Mother, when the hopes of the people hailed your Majesty as presumptive to the Throne, and we rejoice in this opportunity of renewing to your Majesty those expressions of sincere attachment with which the inhabitants then so cordially greeted the presence of their future Sovereign.

We beg most respectfully to express to your Majesty our warm admiration of your Majesty's Constitutional Government, our affectionate devotion to your Majesty's Person, and our unswerving loyalty to the Throne.

It is our earnest prayer that your Majesty, blessed in the affections of your Illustrious Consort and the tender love of your Children, may long be spared to extend the genial influence of your Majesty's bright example throughout all classes in these Kingdoms, and to receive the grateful homage of a loyal and faithful people.

In testimony whereof, the corporate common seal of the said Borough is hereunto affixed, the 28th day of September 1849.

SAMUEL THORNTON, Mayor.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria.

May it please your Majesty,

We, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Nobility, Magistrates, Clergy, Ministers, Gentry, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Darlington and the neighbourhood, approach your Majesty with feelings of the most respectful and dutiful attachment to your august Person and Throne, and beg to offer the warmest and most cordial expression of our welcome on this your first royal progress through the county of Durham.

We beg to express our grateful sense of the deep interest which your Majesty has ever been graciously pleased to evince in the welfare of your Majesty's subjects at large, and which has been so especially shown towards the inhabitants of Ireland by the late royal visit to that country, which we fervently hope will strengthen the ties that attach them to your Majesty's Throne and Person.

We pray that your Majesty's reign may be long and prosperous, characterised by that continued progress in social advancement which has rendered Great Britain so pre-eminent amongst surrounding Nations.

We heartily desire that the remainder of your Majesty's journey may be safely accomplished, and that you, your Royal Consort, and Children, may possess every blessing which the Almighty can bestow, and every happiness which this world can afford.

Signed on behalf of the Nobility, Magistrates, Clergy, Ministers, Gentry, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the town of Darlington and the neighbourhood, in the county of Durham, in public meeting assembled,

FRANCIS MEWBURN, Chief Bailiff of Darlington.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

We, your Majesty's most faithful and devoted subjects, the Clergy of the Deanery of Derby, beg leave to approach your Majesty with feelings of hearty loyalty and profound veneration.

Recent eventful occurrences constrain us to express our thankfulness to Him who controlleth all things, that the Constitution under which it is our privilege to live, and which we regard as the bulwark of civil and religious liberty, has been preserved in safety amidst the political convulsions of other countries; and that loyalty to your Majesty's Throne and Person reigns unabated amongst all classes of the British Empire.

Alive to the influence which descends from regal example through every grade in society, we regard with unfeigned admiration and gratitude your Majesty's unvarying and faithful discharge of all domestic duties, together with your anxious solicitude to uphold the interests of true religion.

We hail with thankfulness your Majesty's firm attachment to that pure branch of Christ's Catholic Church established in these Realms, in which it is our happiness to discharge our ministerial functions; and we desire to assure your Majesty that it is our constant endeavour to instruct the people committed to our care in the principles of that pure Christianity which inculcates supreme love to God, obedience to the higher powers, and the exercise of fervent charity to all men.

We avail ourselves of the opportunity thus graciously afforded us of testifying our dutiful attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, to offer up our earnest prayer to Him whose "Providence ordereth all things in heaven and in earth," that He may be pleased long to spare your Majesty to reign in peace and happiness, in piety and justice, over an enlightened, godly, and prosperous people.

We beg leave to subscribe ourselves, with fervent sentiments of loyalty and devotion, your Majesty's most dutiful subjects.

On the conclusion of that excursion, during which your Majesty has encountered none but loyal hearts, we beg your Majesty to believe that you have not met with any more loyal and true than those of the Inhabitants of this Borough.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

We, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of your Majesty's Ancient Borough of Gateshead, avail ourselves, with pride and pleasure, of the opportunity afforded by this your Majesty's first visit to these parts, to tender to your Majesty the sincerest homage of our fidelity, and to your Majesty and your Royal Consort and Children our warmest welcome and most cordial congratulations.

We, the Clergy of the Cathedral and of the City of Gloucester, beg leave to avail ourselves of your Majesty's passage through this ancient city, to approach you with the expression of our loyal and devoted attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

At a time when so many nations are distracted by fearful civil commotions, we rejoice in the opportunity offered us of testifying our deep gratitude for the successful efforts of your Majesty to preserve the people committed to your charge in wealth, peace, and godliness, and our sense of those virtues which render the House of your Majesty and the Prince Consort a model to all the families of the land.

That Almighty God may be pleased to endue your Majesty and your Royal Family with His Heavenly Grace, and to prosper you with all happiness, is, and ever must be, Madam, the earnest prayer of our hearts.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the UNION OF MANCHESTER, in the County of Lancaster, and to all else whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by the Nuisances' Removal and Diseases' Prevention Act, 1848, it was enacted that when any part of the United Kingdom should appear to be threatened by any formidable epidemic, endemic, or contagious disease, the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any three or more of them

(the Lord President of the Council, or one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State being one), might, by Order or Orders, to be by them made, direct that the provisions contained in the said Act for the prevention of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases be put in force in Great Britain, and that every such Order should be in force for six calendar months, or for such shorter period as in such Order should be expressed; and whereas by an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (the Right Honourable Viscount Palmerston, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State being one), bearing date the 28th September 1848, the said provisions of the said recited Act were directed to be put in force throughout the whole of Great Britain, for a period of six calendar months thence next ensuing; and whereas by another Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, (the Most Honourable the Lord President of the said Council being one,) bearing date the 27th day of March 1849, the said recited Order of the 28th September 1848 was renewed for a period of six calendar months from the date of the said last-mentioned Order; and whereas by another Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, (the Most Honourable the Lord President of the said Council being one), bearing date the 25th September 1849, the said first-mentioned Order was renewed for a further period of six calendar months, from the said 25th day of September 1849, which said last-mentioned Order is now in force throughout the whole of Great Britain; and whereas the General Board of Health in Great Britain are, by the said recited Act, empowered, during the continuance in force of any such Order as above recited, to issue such Directions and Regulations as the said Board shall think fit, for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of such epidemic, endemic, or contagious diseases;

Now We, the General Board of Health, in exercise of the powers vested in us by the said recited Act, do hereby issue the following Directions and Regulations to extend to, and to be observed in the township of Manchester, within the Manchester Union, in the County of Lancaster, in Great Britain; and which Directions and Regulations we do hereby confine to the limits of the said township of Manchester, within the said Union:

1st. That the existing division of the Manchester township into five districts for medical relief be retained.

2nd. That the five Medical Officers at present attached to those districts shall act as Medical Superintendents, each acting as such within his respective district, and that each such Superintendent shall be responsible for the proper carrying out of the measures of prevention and relief hereinafter directed.

3rd. That five Dispensaries, situated in convenient parts of the said township, be opened, and continue open every day and every night; each Dispensary to be provided with a person in constant attendance, capable of administering medicine to all necessitous applicants; and that one of the Medical Officers of each district shall, in rotation, attend during every night at the Dispensary of his district, who shall attend to all calls throughout the district during the night.

4th. That a staff of thirteen Medical Officers be provided and located in the five medical relief districts, in such proportions as the necessities of each district may require, and who shall take the medical charge of all persons who may apply, or who may be referred to them within their respective districts; and that all necessitous cases be attended without a relieving officer's note.

5th. That nine Medical Visitors be appointed to make a daily visitation from house to house in the said districts, or some of them, according to the necessities of each, and that such visitors have with them a sufficient quantity of medicine for the treatment of cholera, or its premonitory symptoms.

6th. That a House of Refuge, with sixty beds, and suitable accommodations, be provided for the reception of persons whom it may be desirable to remove from infected localities.

7th. That an additional Cholera Hospital be provided in a convenient situation, with suitable accommodation, and a sufficient number of nurses.

8th. That a supply of nurses for attending on cholera patients, in their own houses, be provided.

9th. That a supply of blankets be provided at the Dispensaries, to be lent out to the poor on the recommendation of the district Medical Officers or superintendents.

10th. That notices be printed and carefully distributed from house to house throughout the districts, clearly detailing the arrangements made, and the places where application is to be made, in case of attack.

11th. That, if the Superintendents shall report to the Guardians that additional medical aid is necessary, the Board of Guardians shall immediately provide such additional aid, and the Superintendents shall transmit copies of such reports to the General Board of Health.

And in further exercise of the powers vested in us by the said recited Act, We do hereby direct, authorize, and require you, the Guardians of the Poor of the said Union, forthwith to provide, in the manner specified, in the above Directions and Regulations, for the dispensing of medicines, and for affording to persons afflicted by, or threatened with any epidemic, endemic, or contagious disease, such medical aid as may be required; and by yourselves or your officers, or by any persons employed by you in the administration of the laws for the relief of the poor, or by officers specially appointed in that behalf, forthwith to superintend and to see to the execution of the above Directions and Regulations, and to do and provide all such acts, matters, and things, as may be necessary for executing the same.
