The Speech of the Lords-Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Thursday, January 31, 1850 :—

My Lords and Gentlemen,

WE are commanded by her Majesty to assure you that Her Majesty has great satisfaction in again having recourse to the advice and assistance of Her Parliament.

The decease of Her Majesty Queen Adelaide has caused her Majesty deep affliction; the extensive charity and exemplary virtues of her late Majesty will always render her memory dear to the Nation.

Majesty happily continues in peace and amity with Foreign Powers.

In the course of the Autumn, differences of a serious character arose between the Governments of Austria and Russia on the one hand, and the Sublime Porte on the other, in regard to the treatment of a considerable number of persons who, after the termination of the civil war in Hungary, had taken refuge in the Turkish territory.

Explanations which took place between the Turkish and Imperial Governments have fortunately removed any danger to the peace of Europe which might have arisen out of these differences.

Her Majesty having been appealed to on this occasion by the Sultan, united her efforts with those of the Government of France, to which a similar appeal had been made, in order to assist by the employment of Her good offices in effecting an amicable settlement of those differences, in a manner consistent with the dignity and independence of the Porte.

Her Majesty has been engaged in communications with Foreign States upon the measures which might be rendered necessary by the relaxation of the restrictions formerly imposed by the Navigation Laws of this Country.

The Governments of the United States of America and of Sweden have promptly taken steps to secure to British ships, in the ports of their respective countries, advantages similar to those which their own ships now enjoy in British ports.

With regard to those Foreign States whose Navigation Laws have hitherto been of a restrictive character, Her Majesty has received from nearly all of them assurances which induce her to hope that our example will speedily lead to a great and general diminution of those obstacles which previously existed to a free intercourse by sea between the Nations of the world.

In the Summer and Autumn of the past year, the United Kingdom was again visited by the ravages of the Cholera; but Almighty God, in His mercy, was pleased to arrest the progress of mortality, and to stay this fearful pestilence. Her Majesty is persuaded that we shall best evince our gratitude by vigilant precautions against the more obvious causes of sickness, and an enlightened consideration for those who are most exposed to its attacks.

Her Majesty in her late visit to Ireland derived the highest gratification from the loyalty and attachment manifested by all classes of Her subjects. Although the effects of former years of scarcity are painfully felt in that part of the United Kingdom, they are mitigated by the present abundance of food, and the tranquillity which prevails.

Her Majesty has great satisfaction in congratulating you on the improved condition of commerce and manufactures.

It is with regret that her Majesty has observed the complaints which in many parts of the Kingdom have proceeded from the owners and occupiers of land. Her Majesty greatly laments that any portion of her subjects should be suffering distress, but it is a source of sincere gratification to her Majesty to witness the increased enjoyment of the necessaries and comforts of life, which cheapness and plenty have bestowed upon the great body of Her people.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

Her Majesty has directed the estimates for the year to be laid before you, they have been framed with a strict regard to economy, while the efficiency of the various branches of the public service has not been neglected.

Her Majesty has seen with satisfaction the present state of the revenue.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Some of the measures which were postponed at the end of the last session for want of time for their consideration, will be again laid before you. Among the most important of these is one for the better government of the Australian Colonies.

Her Majesty has directed various measures to be prepared for the improvement of the condition of Ireland. The mischiefs arising from party processions, the defects of the laws regulating the relations of Landlord and Tenant, the imperfect state of the Grand Jury Acts, and the diminished number of electors for members to serve in Parliament, will, together with other matters of serious consequence, form the subjects of measures to be submitted for your consideration.

Her Majesty has learnt with satisfaction that the measures which have been already passed for the promotion of the public health are in a course of gradual adoption, and Her Majesty trusts that both in the metropolis and in various parts of the United Kingdom, you will be enabled to make further progress in the removal of evils which affect the health and well-being of her subjects.

The favour of Divine Providence has hitherto preserved this Kingdom from the wars and convulsions which, during the last two years, have shaken so many of the States of the Continent of Europe.

It is her Majesty's hope and belief, that by combining liberty with order, by preserving what is valuable, and amending what is defective, you will sustain the fabric of our Institutions as the abode and the shelter of a free and happy people.

By the QUEEN.

A PROCLAMATION.

In order to the Electing Two Peers of Scotland.

WHEREAS David Earl of Airlie and John Lord Colville of Culross were duly elected and returned to be two of the sixteen Peers of Scotland to sit in the House of Peers in the present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and are since deceased: In order to the electing two other Peers of Scotland to sit in their room, We do, by the advice of our Privy Council, issue forth this our Royal Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holyrood House, at Edinburgh, on Wednesday the thirteenth day of March next ensuing, between the hours of twelve and two in the afternoon, to nominate and choose two other Peers of Scotland to sit and vote in the House of Peers in this present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the room of the said David Earl of Airlie and John Lord Colville of Culross, deceased, by open election and plurality of voices of the Peers that shall be then present, and of the proxies of such as shall be absent (such proxies being Peers, and producing mandates in writing duly signed before witnesses, and both the constituents and proxies being qualified according to law); and the Lord Clerk Register, or such two of the Principal Clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his name, are hereby respectively required to attend such meeting, and to administer the oaths required by law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their votes; and immediately after such elections made and duly examined, to certify the names of the Peers so elected, and to sign and attest the same in the presence of the said Peers the electors, and return such certificates into our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain; and we strictly charge and command that this our Royal Proclamation be duly published at the Market-Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the county towns of Scotland twenty-five days at least before the time hereby appointed for the Meeting of the said Peers to proceed on such elections.

Given at our Court at Windsor, this thirtieth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and the nineteenth year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

WHITEHALL, January 26, 1850.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Richard Rogers Coxwell, of Dowdeswell-house, in the county of Gloucester, Esquire, in the Commission of the Peace, and a Deputy-Lieutenant for the said county, second, but eldest surviving son of the Reverend Charles Coxwell, Master of Arts, Rector of Dowdeswell aforesaid, by Anne, his late wife, youngest of the three daughters and co-heirs of the Reverend Richard Rogers, L. L. B., sometime also Rector of Dowdeswell, deceased, Her royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, in compliance with a proviso contained in the last will and testament of his maternal great-uncle Edward Rogers, late of Dowdeswell aforesaid, Esquire, take and henceforth use the surname of Rogers, in addition to and after that of Coxwell, and bear the arms of Rogers quarterly with his and their own family arms, such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise the said royal licence to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

THERE will be again exposed for Sale by Public Roup, within the British Hotel, Castle Street, Dundee, on Wednesday the 6th day of March next, at one o'clock afternoon,

All and Whole the following Property :—Two-fourth pro indiviso Parts or Shares of which belong to the Sequestrated Estate of JAMES DAVIDSON, Junior, Merchant and Flaxspinner in Dundee, viz.—

All and Whole that pleasant and commodious Residence or Dwelling-House called Westfield, near Dundee, with the Grounds thereto belonging, lying between the Magdalen Yard Road and the Perth Road, all as the same belonged to and were sometime possessed by the late John Davidson, Esq. Merchant in Dundee.

The House is well fitted for the accommodation of a genteel family. It contains Dining-Room, Drawing-Room, Parlour, six Bed-Rooms, inclusive of two Attic Bed-Rooms, Pantries and other conveniences, and is amply provided with Offices and Outhouses, including Stable and Gig-House.

The Grounds, extending to about an Acre, consist of a Lawn in front of the House, neatly laid out with Shrubberies, and of Garden Ground on each side of, and a large Green behind the House. Part of the Ground admits of being fenced off for Building Stances, without injury to the House or the privacy of the Gardens.

For permission to see the House and Premises, and for farther particulars, application may be made to David Small, Esq. Writer in Dundee, Trustee on the said Sequestrated Estate; or to John Bell and William Don, Writers, Castle Street, Agents for the Trustee and for the other Proprietors, in whose hands may be seen the Title-Deeds and Articles of Roup.

Dundee, February 4, 1850.
