FRIDAY, MARCH 15, 1850.

LORD CHAMBERLAIN'S OFFICE,
February 21, 1850.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness Prince Albert will, by the desire of Her Majesty, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Wednesday, 20th March next, at two o'clock.

It is Her Majesty's pleasure that presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered equivalent to presentations to The Queen.

Addresses to The Queen may either be forwarded to Her Majesty through the Secretary of State for the Home Department, or may be reserved until Her Majesty shall hold a Levee.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE LEVEE AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who purpose to attend the Levees at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Presence Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented, are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to present them, should be sent to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock, on the Monday previous to the Levee, in order that they may be submitted for approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall be made at the Levee, but in conformity with the above Regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them.

The State Apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half-past one o'clock.

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 9th day of March 1850,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the law respecting the office of County Coroner," it is enacted, that when and so often as it shall seem expedient to the Justices of any county in England, that such county should be divided into two or more districts for the purposes of that Act, or that any alteration should be made of any division theretofore made under that Act, it shall be lawful for the said Justices in general or quarter sessions assembled, to resolve that a petition be presented to Her Majesty praying that such division or alteration be made, and that such petition, with a description of the several proposed districts, and of the boundaries thereof, with the reasons upon which the petition is founded, shall be certified to Her Majesty under the hands and seals of two or more of the Justices present when such petition shall be agreed to, and that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if she shall think fit, with the advice of Her Privy Council, after taking into consideration any such petition, and also any Petition which may be presented to Her by any coroner of the same county concerning such proposed division or alteration, or whenever it shall seem fit to Her Majesty to direct the issue of a writ de coronatore eligendo, for the purpose of authorizing the election of an additional coroner above the number of those who have been customarily elected in such county, to order that such county shall be divided into such and so many districts for the purposes of the said Act, as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, shall seem expedient, and to give a name to each of such districts, and to determine at what place within each district the Court for the election of coroner for such district shall be holden; and every such order shall be published in the London Gazette.

And whereas it appearing to the Justices of the Peace for the county of Salop, that the division of that county made under, and by virtue, and for the purposes of the said Act, by an Order of Her Majesty in Council, bearing date the thirtieth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand
