

with respect to which he deemed it expedient to report for the purposes of that Act;

"And copies of the said Report, accompanied by a notice, stating that written statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any matter contained in or omitted from the said Report, or any amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as directed by the Public Health Act, and the time for forwarding such statements has now elapsed, and the statement which has been received by the said Board has been duly deposited, as required by that Act;

"And it appears by the said Report, that there is no local Act of Parliament in force within the said borough for paving, lighting (otherwise than for the profit of proprietors or shareholders), cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with water, or improving such borough, or any part thereof, or in anywise relating to the purposes of the said Public Health Act;

"Now therefore, We, the said General Board of Health, do hereby, in pursuance of the said Public Health Act, humbly report to your Majesty, that it appears to us to be expedient that the Public Health Act, 1848, and every part thereof, except the section numbered 50 in the copies of that Act, printed by your Majesty's printers, should be applied to, and be in force within and throughout the entire area, places, and parts of places comprised within the boundaries at present fixed, as aforesaid, as the boundaries of the said borough of Bangor, and that such area, places, and parts of places should be and constitute a district for the purpose of the said Public Health Act accordingly.

"2. That the Local Board of Health, to be elected under the said Public Health Act, shall consist of nine persons, and that the entire number shall be elected for the whole of the said district.

"3. That the first election of the said Local Board of Health shall take place on the first day of October one thousand eight hundred and fifty.

"4. That one-third in number of the said Local Board shall go out of office on the thirty-first day of March in each year subsequently to that in which the said election takes place.

"5. That every person, at the time of his election as member of the said Local Board, and so long as he shall continue in office by virtue of such election, be resident, as in the said Public Health Act, 1848, is required, and be seized and possessed of real or personal estate, or both, to the value or amount of not less than eight hundred pounds, or shall be so resident and rated to the relief of the poor of some parish, township, or place, of which some part is within the said district, upon an annual value of not less than twenty-five pounds.

"6. That at the first election of the said Local Board, Hugh Beaver Roberts, Esq. shall have the powers, and perform the duties vested in or imposed upon the Chairman of the Local Board of Health by the Public Health Act, 1848, in relation to the election by owners of property and rate-payers, and shall perform all other duties which may be requisite for him to perform in conducting and completing the said first election; and in case the said Hugh Beaver Roberts, from illness, or other sufficient cause, shall be unable to exercise or discharge such powers or duties, or shall be absent, or shall refuse to act, then Henry Lloyd Jones, Esq. shall exercise and perform such of the said powers and duties as then remain to be exercised or performed.

"7. That the fourteen days' notice of qualification required by the Public Health Act, 1848, to be given by owners of property, in order to entitle them to vote at the said first election, shall be given to the said Hugh Beaver Roberts, at his residence at Bryn Menai, within the said district of Bangor; or in case he shall refuse, or be unable to receive the same, then to the said Henry Lloyd Jones, Solicitor, at his residence at Frondeg, within the same district.

"Given under our hands and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this twenty-third day of July one thousand eight hundred and fifty.

(Signed) ASHLEY.

EDWIN CHADWICK."

Now therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said Report into consideration, is pleased to approve thereof, and, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby, under and in pursuance of the Public Health Act, 1848, order and direct, that from and after the date of this Order, the Public Health Act, and every part thereof, except the section numbered 50 in the copies of that Act, printed by Her Majesty's printers, shall be applied and be in force within and throughout the entire area, places, and parts of places comprised within the boundaries of that part of the parish of Bangor known as the Parliamentary borough of Bangor, in the county of Carnarvon, as such boundaries are fixed for the purposes of an Act passed in the second and third years of the reign of King William the Fourth, intituled, 'An Act to settle and describe the divisions of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, so far as respects the election of members to serve in Parliament,' and that such area, places, and parts of places shall be, and constitute a district for the purposes of the said Public Health Act accordingly.

2. That the Local Board of Health, to be elected under the said Public Health Act, shall consist of nine persons, and that the entire number shall be elected for the whole of the said district.

3. That the first election of the said Local Board of Health shall take place on the first day of October one thousand eight hundred and fifty.

4. That one-third in number of the said Local Board shall go out of office on the thirty-first day of March in each year subsequently to that on which the said election takes place,

5. That every person, at the time of his election as member of the said Local Board, and so long as he shall continue in office by virtue of such election, be resident, as in the said Public Health Act, 1848, is required, and be seized or possessed of real or personal estate, or both, to the value or amount of not less than eight hundred pounds, or shall be so resident and rated to the relief of the poor of some parish, township, or place, of which some part is within the said district, upon an annual value of not less than twenty-five pounds.

6. That at the first election of the said Local Board, Hugh Beaver Roberts, Esq. shall have the powers, and perform the duties vested in or imposed upon the Chairman of the Local Board of Health by the Public Health Act, 1848, in relation to the election by owners of property and rate-payers, and shall perform all other duties which it may be requisite for him to perform in conducting and completing the said first election; and in case the said Hugh Beaver Roberts, from illness, or other sufficient cause, shall be unable
