FRIDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1850.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 24th day of September 1850,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," and of another Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend an Act for making better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-second day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty, in the words following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled, 'An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes;' and of another Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the seventh and eighth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to explain and amend an Act for making better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for altering the bounds of the district of Burley, in the county of York, and diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas it is by the secondly-recited Act enacted, that it shall be lawful, by the authority provided in the first-recited Act, at any time or times within twelve months after the date of the licence of the minister first licensed to any separate district, constituted under the provisions of the same Act, to alter the bounds of such district, although any alteration be not required with a view to the constituting of another separate district; provided always, that the scheme for making any such alteration shall be subject to all the provisions relating to schemes for constituting separate districts under the said first-recited Act; and that any portion of any such separate district which, by any such alteration as aforesaid, shall become detached or excluded therefrom shall, to all intents and purposes, again belong to and form part of the parish, chapelry, or district out of which such portion was taken, upon such separate district being originally constituted, or to and of any new district, as shall be determined by the like authority:

"And whereas so much of the chapelry of Headingley-cum-Burley, and of the district parish of Saint Stephen Kirkstall, in the said county of York, and diocese of Ripon, as were comprised within the hamlet of Burley, were duly constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, under the provisions of the said first-recited Act, by a scheme prepared by us, and ratified by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the thirtieth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, and since duly gazetted:

"And whereas the Reverend Thomas Sturgeon, the first minister of the said district, was duly licensed thereto on the twentieth day of October one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine:

"And whereas it has since been represented to us, and appears to us to be expedient, that the bounds of such district should be altered in the manner hereinafter mentioned:

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that the bounds of the said district of Burley shall be altered so as to exclude therefrom all that part of the said hamlet of Burley which is situate on the north-western side of an imaginary line commencing at a point (marked a on the map or plan hereunto annexed) on the northern boundary of such hamlet and at the south-eastern corner of a certain close of land called Green Lane Close, the property of and occupied by Edwin Birchell, the younger, and thence extending towards the south-west along the fence that separates such close from the property of William Beverley as far as the middle of Green-lane, leading from Burley to Headingley, and thence extending towards the south-east along the middle of such last-mentioned lane, and across the turnpike-road leading from Leeds to Kirkstall, to a point (marked b as aforesaid) where Dyson-lane enters the said turnpike-road, and thence along the middle of Dyson-lane aforesaid, as far as the Leeds and Bradford turnpike-road, and thence extending towards the north-west
