C. C. GREVILLE.

At the Court at Balmoral, the 24th day of September 1850,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth Report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth Report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in the parish of Sawley, in the county of Derby, and diocese of Lichfield:

Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, with especial view to the better care of populous parishes, that arrangements may from time to time be made by the authority therein provided; that is to say, a scheme duly prepared by us and ratified by an Order of your Majesty in Council for improving the value or making a better provision for the spiritual duties of ill-endowed parishes or districts, by means of such alterations in the exercise of patronage, as may be agreed upon by patrons, with the consent of the bishop; and where a bishop himself is one of the patrons, with the consent of the archbishop.

"And whereas the united benefice of Risley and Breaston, in the said parish of Sawley, is in the patronage of the Right Honourable George Harry Grey Earl of Stamford and Warrington, and therefore does not fall within the provisions of the several Orders of your Majesty in Council, respecting grants in augmentation of benefices and churches, out of the moneys or estates in our hands, under the said Act, so far as such provisions relate to unconditional grants; and in order to bring it within such provisions the said Earl desires to transfer his right of patronage in such united benefice in manner hereinafter mentioned;

"We therefore recommend and propose, with the consents of the most Reverend John Bird Archbishop of Canterbury, and of the Right Reverend John Bishop of Lichfield, and also of the said George Harry Grey Earl of Stamford and Warrington, in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme, that the patronage of, and right of nomination to the said united benefice of Risley and Breaston shall become, and be transferred to, and absolutely vested in the said John Bishop of Lichfield and his successors, Bishops of Lichfield, for ever.

"And whereas by reason of the prebend of Sawley having become vacant since the passing of the said Act, the lands and premises described in the schedules marked A and B hereunto annexed, formerly belonging thereto, have become vested in us under the provisions, and for the purposes of such Act:

"And whereas the chief of such purposes is that of making better provision for the cure of souls in such manner as may be deemed most expedient:

"And, whereas, after due consideration of the wants and circumstances of the said parish, we deem it expedient that the lands and premises so described as aforesaid should be applied towards making better provision for the cure of souls therein, in manner hereinafter mentioned:

"We therefore further recommend and propose that the piece or parcel of land and premises so particularly described in the said schedule hereunto annexed, marked A as aforesaid, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law, other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the gazetting thereof, be transferred to, and become absolutely vested in possession in the Reverend Samuel Hey, perpetual curate of the united benefice of Sawley aforesaid, with Wilne and Long Eaton, and his successors, perpetual curates thereof, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that in like manner and at the same time the pieces or parcels of land and premises so particularly described in the said schedule hereunto annexed, marked B as aforesaid, shall be transferred to, and become, and be absolutely vested in the Reverend Henry Banks Hall, perpetual curate of the united benefice of Risley and Breaston, and his successors, perpetual curates thereof, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures
