

DORWARD'S HOUSE OF REFUGE
FOR THE DESTITUTE IN MONTROSE.

ALTERING AND MODIFYING POWERS OF TRUST-DISPOSITION AND DEEDS OF CONSTITUTION AND SETTLEMENT.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that it is intended to apply to Parliament in the ensuing Session, for leave to bring in a Bill for explaining and modifying the powers and provisions of the Trust-Disposition and Assignment, or Deed of Constitution for the erection and endowment of a House of Refuge for the Destitute in Montrose, made by William Dorward, Esquire, deceased, Merchant in Montrose, dated the 16th, and recorded in the Books of Council and Session at Edinburgh the 20th days of February 1838; and also of the Trust-Disposition and Settlement made by the said William Dorward, dated the 31st day of January 1839, and Codicils and Letters of various dates relative thereto; which Trust-Disposition and Settlement and Codicils were recorded in the Burgh Court-Books of Montrose on the 14th day of April 1848; and for enlarging, modifying, and declaring the powers of the Trustees or Managers of the said House of Refuge, in the application of the Trust-Funds, and the regulation and management of the said House of Refuge, and matters relating thereto: By which Bill it is intended to authorise the said Trustees or Managers to enlarge the existing Buildings of the said House of Refuge, and to erect or acquire additional Buildings, and to defray the expence, to an extent to be limited, out of the Capital of the said Funds;—to enlarge their powers as to the application of the Interest of the Capital to the various purposes of the said House of Refuge;—to authorize them, where necessary or expedient, to invest the said Funds on heritable security, and in the purchase of Feu-duties in Scotland generally;—to regulate the manner and forms in which Titles and Securities are to be taken, and investments or deposits to be made;—to regulate and simplify the form of assuming Trustees into the private Trust of the said William Dorward, and to alter the qualification of Heritors eligible to be Trustees or Managers;—also, to extend the disqualification applicable to the eligibility of individuals as inmates of the said House of Refuge to individuals admitted into the same, becoming disqualified after admission;—to explain and declare the powers and authority of the Trustees or Managers to educate, within the said House of Refuge, the Children admitted thereto, and to provide the means of such education accordingly; And it is also intended to confer upon the Trustees or Managers all necessary powers in regard to the appointment, duties, regulation, and remuneration of Treasurers, Clerks, Medical Attendants, Chaplains, or other officers and servants, and to empower the said Trustees or Managers to make, establish, and enforce all requisite and proper Bye-Laws, Rules, and Regulations for the appointment, conduct, and government of the said House of Refuge, and the inmates, officers, and servants, and all other persons employed in and about the same, and for keeping the accounts of the said funds, and auditing and publishing the same;—to authorize the Trustees or Managers to appoint Committees of their number, with all necessary powers, and to alter, modify, explain, and declare the powers of the said Trustees or Managers, in relation to, and in furtherance of the objects of the said Deed of the said William Dorward, and for all other purposes necessary or relating thereto; And it is also intended by the said Bill to incorporate the Trustees or Managers, and their successors in office, into one body corporate and politic, with perpetual succession, and a common Seal, with power to sue and be sued, to acquire, hold and transfer property heritable and moveable, and with the other usual rights, powers, and privileges of a Corporate Body; and to confer, vary, or extinguish all rights, powers and privileges necessary for fully carrying into effect the several purposes of the said Bill.

Dated this 19th day of October 1850.
