ARTICULO III.

No se impondrán en los dominios Británicos á los buques de la República, ni á los generos importados ó esportados en buques Dominicanos, derechos de tonelada, importacion, ú otros derechos ó cargas, mayores que los que se imponen ó se impusieren á los buques nacionales, ó á iguales generos importados ó esportados en buques nacionales en y de los puertos habilitados. El importe de los derechos de salvamento en semejantes casos será determinado, caso de disputa, por arbitros nombrados por ambas partes.

ARTICULO VI.

Siendo la intencion de ambas Partes Contratantes la de sujetarse por el presente Tratado á tratarse una á otra sobre las bases de la Nacion mas favorecida, se conviene por este entre ambas, en que todo favor, privilegio, ó inmunidad cualquiera, en materia de comercio y navegacion, que cualquiera de ambas Partes Contratantes tiene concedido actualmente, ó concediere en adelante, á subditos ó ciudadanos de otro estado, se estienda y aplique á los subditos ó á los ciudadanos de la otra Parte Contratante, gratuitamente, si la con-

ARTICLE VII.

Each Contracting Party may appoint Consuls for the protection of trade, to reside in the dominions or territories of the other; but no such Consul shall enter upon the exercise of his functions until he shall have been approved and admitted, in the usual form, by the Government of the country to which he is sent.

The Diplomatic Agents and Consuls of each of the two Contracting Parties, residing within the dominions or territories of the other, shall enjoy the same rights, immunities, privileges, and exemptions, which are or may be granted to the Diplomatic Agents or Consuls, of equal rank, of the most favoured Nation.

ARTICLE VIII.

Liberty shall also be granted to them to bury in burial places—which in the same manner they may freely establish and maintain—such subjects of Her Britannic Majesty who may die in the territories of the said Republic. In like manner the citizens of the Dominican Republic shall enjoy, within all the dominions of Her Britannic Majesty, a perfect and unrestrained liberty of conscience, and shall be allowed to exercise their religion, publicly or privately, within their own dwelling-houses, or in the chapels and places of worship appointed for that purpose.

ARTICLE IX.

Slavery being perpetually abolished in the Dominican Republic, and having been already declared by her an act of piracy, punishable with the pain of death, the Dominican Republic engages to permit any British vessel of war which may be furnished with special Instructions under the Treaties between Great Britain and Foreign Powers, and with the formalities as are provided for in such cases by the said Treaties, relative to the prevention of the infamous Slave Trade, to visit any vessels sailing under the Dominican flag which may on reasonable grounds be suspected of being engaged in this vile trade in slaves; it being understood that the distances and places between which the right of visit shall be exercised, as moreover expressed in the Treaties with other Powers for Cuba and Porto Rico, shall likewise refer to the same distance of twenty leagues from the coasts of the Dominican Republic; and if, by the result of the visit, it should appear to the officer in command of such British vessel of war, that the suspicions which led thereto are well grounded, the vessel shall be sent without delay to the port of Santo Domingo in the Dominican Republic, and shall be delivered up to the local authorities, to be proceeded against according to the laws of the Republic.

It is understood that the present Article shall not be extended to other cases which might occasion detentions and inconveniences to the Dominican vessels in their voyages and commercial enterprises, during which, on the contrary, they cesion hecha en favor de aquel otro Estado fuere gratuita, ó para corresponder á una compensacion aproximativa del valor proporcional y efecto que mutuamente se convenga, si la concesion hubiere sido condicional.

ARTICULO VII.

Cada una de las Partes Contratantes podrá nombrar Consules para la proteccion del comercio, y residir en los territorios ó dominios de la otra; pero ningun Consul empezará á desempeñar sus funciones hasta haber sido aprobado y admitido, en las formas acostumbradas, por el Gobierno del pais al que es enviado.

Los Agentes Diplomaticos y Consules de cada una de las dos Partes Contratantes residentes en los territorios ó dominios de la otra, gozarán de los mismos derechos, inmunidades, privilegios, y exenciones que son concedidos ó que se concedieren á los Agentes Diplomaticos ó Consules de igual rango de la Nacion mas favorecida.

ARTICULO VIII.

Los subditos de Su Majestad Británica residentes en la República Dominicana, no serán inquietados, perseguidos, ni molestados por razon de su religion; mas gozarán de una perfecta libertad de conciencia en ella y en el ejercicio de su Creencia, en sus propias casas ó capillas particulares. Tambien será permitido enterrar á los subditos de Su Majestad Británica que murieren en los territorios de dicha República, en sus propios cementerios, que podrán del mismo modo libremente establecer y entretener. Asi mismo, los ciudadanos de la República Dominicana gozarán en todos los dominios de Su Majestad Británica, de una perfecta é ilimitada libertad de conciencia, y del ejercicio de su religion, publica ó privadamente, en las casas de su morada, ó en las capillas y sitios de culto destinados para el dicho fin.

ARTICULO IX.

Siendo perpetuamente abolida la esclavitud en la República Dominicana, y estando ya el trafico de esclavos declarado por ella como acto de pirateria, que se castiga con el ultimo suplicio; la República Dominicana se obliga á permitir á aquellos buques de guerra Británicos que estuvieren provistos de las Instrucciones especiales, segun los Tratados entre la Gran Bretana y las Potencias extranjeras, y con las formalidades y en los casos previstos por dichos Tratados relativos á impedir el infame Trafico de Esclavos, visitar los buques que naveguen bajo el Pabellon Dominicano que puedan, con fundado motivo, ser sospechados de ocuparse en tan infame trafico; entendiendose que el derecho de visita se ejercerá ademas de las distancias y lugares expresados en los Tratados con otras Potencias para las Islas de Cuba y Puerto Rico, tambien á la misma distancia de veinte leguas de las costas de la República Dominicana; y si el resultado de la visita presentáre al oficial comandante del buque de guerra Británico, que las sospechas que dieron lugar á ella estan bien fundadas, el buque sin dilacion será enviado al puerto de Santo Domingo, en la República Dominicana, y entregada á las autoridades locales para que se proceda contra él conforme á las leyes de la República.

Está entendido que el presente Artículo no será extensivo á otros casos que puedan ocasionar tardanzas y gravámenes á los buques Dominicanos en sus viajes y empresas comerciales, cuando por el contrario deben esperar toda asistencia y pro-are authorized to expect protection and assistance; hence, if the case should arise, which however is not to be supposed, that the Dominican Republic should consider to receive by this concession any vexatious molestations, it rests with her to withdraw it, after having given, a year previous, due notice thereof.

ARTICLE X.

In order that the two Contracting Parties may have the opportunity of hereafter treating and agreeing upon such other arrangements as may tend still further to the improvement of their mutual intercourse, and to the advancement of the interests of their respective subjects and citizens, it is agreed that the present Treaty shall remain in force and vigour for the term of ten years from the date of the exchange of the ratifications; and either of the Contracting Parties shall have the right of giving to the other Party notice of its intention to terminate, at the expiration, of the said ten years, the stipulations relating to commerce and navigation, which shall cease to be binding after ten years; and all those that relate to peace and amity shall remain obligatory to both Nations.

ARTICLE XI.

The present Treaty shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Santo Domingo within the space of eight months, to be accounted from the date of this Treaty, or sooner, if such be possible.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have affixed thereto the seals of their arms:

ADDITIONAL ARTICLE.

As the circumstances of the existing war with the Haytian Nation might oblige the Dominican Republic to recur to extraordinary measures, it is specially understood and agreed between the two Contracting Parties that the Dominican Republic shall have perfect liberty of making, during the same, such laws as may place her in a state to secure her defence, notwithstanding the stipulation contained in Article II that the subjects of Her Britannic Majesty shall not be restrained or affected by any monopoly, contract, or exclusive privilege of purchase or sale; and as her disposition is constant to attract and protect commerce, it does not enter into her views to adopt any measure of limiting it, except in the case that the existing war should continue.

The present Additional Article shall have the same force and validity as if it were inserted, word for word, in the Treaty signed this day, and shall be ratified at the same time. And in consequence of the exception it contains, it is equally understood that the sanction or disapprobation of the Treaty is specially reserved to Her Britannic Majesty.

In testimony whereof the Undersigned have, in virtue of their full powers, signed and sealed the present Article.

teccion; pero, si como no es de suponer, llegare el caso de que la República Dominicana, creyere recibir por esta concesion alguna molestia vejatoria, quedará por el mismo hecho hábil para retirarla, haciendo con antelacion de un año la debida notificacion.

ARTICULO X.

A fin de que ambas Partes Contratantes pueden tener ocasion en adelante de tratar y convenir cualquier otro punto que pueda tender á mejorar todavia mas sus mutuas relaciones y adelantamiento de los intereses de los ciudadanos y subditos respectivos, se ha convenido que el presente Tratado permanecerá en su fuerza y vigor por el termino de diez años, contados desde la fecha del canje de las ratificaciones; teniendo cualquiera de las Partes Contratantes el derecho de hacer á la otra la notificacion de su intencion de terminar, al vencimiento de dichos diez años, las estipulaciones relativas á comercio y navegacion, que quedarán sin efecto, trascurridos los diez años; y en todo lo relativo á paz y amistad, permanecerá obligatoria á ambas Naciones.

ARTICULO XI.

El presente Tratado será ratificado y las ratificaciones canjeadas en Santo Domingo dentro del termino de ocho meses, ó antes si fuere posible, contados desde la fecha de este Tratado.

En fé de lo cual los respectivos Plenipotenciarios lo han firmado, y sellado con los sellos de sus armas.

Hecho en Santo Domingo, el sexto dia de Marzo, en el año de Gracia de mil ochocientos y cincuenta.

ARTICULO ADICIONAL.

Las circunstancias de la guerra actual con la Nation Haytiana pudiendo obligar á la República Dominicana á recurrir á medidas extraordinarias, esta especialmente entendido y establecido entre las Partes Contratantes, que la República Dominicana tendrá entera libertad de hacer durante ella tales leyes que la pongan en estado de defensa, no obstante la estipulacion contenida en el Artículo II con respecto á no poder los subditos de Su Majestad Británica ser restringidos ó afectados por ningun monopolio, contrata, ó exclusivo privilegio de compra ó venta alguna; y que siendo constante su disposicion á atraer y proteger el comercio, no entra en sus miras la adopcion de ninguna medida para coartarlo, sino en caso de la continuacion de la guerra actual.

El presente Artículo Adicional tendrá la misma fuerza y efecto como si hubiese sido inserto, palabra por palabra, en el Tratado firmado hoy, y será ratificado al mismo tiempo. En consecuencia de la escepcion que contiene, esta igualmente entendido que la sancion ó desaprobacion del Tratado queda especialmente reservada á Su Majestad Británica.

En testimonio de lo cual los abajo firmados, en virtud de sus plenos poderes, han firmado y sellado el presente Artículo.
