

mentioned," and "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act for encouraging the Art of making new Models, and Casts of Busts, and other things therein mentioned," which two Acts are in the said Designs Act, 1850, called the "Sculpture Copyright Acts," must furnish to the Registrar such copy, drawing, or print, or such description, writing, or print, as in the judgment of the Registrar shall be sufficient to identify the particular sculpture, model, copy, or cast, in respect of which registration is desired, and the name of the person claiming to be the proprietor, together with his place of abode or business, or other place of address, or the name, style, or title of the firm under which he trades.

V. The Registrar shall affix a number upon every such copy, drawing, print, or description of any design, sculpture, model, copy, or cast, so to be furnished to him as aforesaid, denoting the order in which the same has been received by him, and a corresponding number upon the duplicate and triplicate copy, drawing, print, or description, directed to be furnished to him as aforesaid; and he shall register every such copy, drawing, print, or description, in the order in which it is received by him, by entering the number thereof, and also the title or class thereof, in a book to be kept by him for that purpose; and he shall keep a proper index of all the designs, sculpture, models, and copies or casts so registered, according to the titles thereof, or arranged in such classes as to afford ready access to the same.

VI. Whenever any such registration is made, the Registrar shall retain and file in his office one of the copies, drawings, prints, or descriptions hereinbefore required to be furnished to him, and he shall return the other thereof, (when two only are furnished) to the person by whom the same was furnished, having first affixed thereon, or attached thereto a certificate, whereby he shall certify under his hand and seal of office, the fact of such registration, and the date, and the name of the registered proprietor, or the style or title of the firm under which he trades, together with his place of abode or business, or other place of address; and he shall cause the remaining copy, drawing, print, or description (when three have been furnished), having the certificate of provisional registration affixed thereon, to be deposited in the place of public exhibition so to be certified as aforesaid.

VII. Persons desirous of having the transfer of any registered design registered, must furnish to the Registrar the written transfer of such design, or other sufficient evidence of their title, together with a written request to register, to the effect set forth in the 6th section of the Designs Act, 1842, and the Registrar shall thereupon insert the name of the new proprietor in the register. If a certificate of the transfer be desired, the certified copy of the design, or an exact copy thereof, must be furnished to the Registrar for the purpose of having such certificate affixed thereon; and the Registrar shall accordingly affix thereon a certificate under his hand and seal of office, containing the like particulars as are herein required in the case of a certificate of the registration of a design.

VIII. Any person desirous of ascertaining whether any copyright exists, in respect to any particular design there be any copyright existing, must produce to the Registrar such design, together with the registration mark thereof; or he may produce such registration mark only; or in the case of a design provisionally registered, the number thereof; and thereupon the Registrar shall give to such person a certificate under his hand and seal of office, stating whether there be any copyright of such design existing, and if there be, then in respect to what particular article of manufacture or substance such a copyright exists, and the term of such copyright, and the number and date of the registration thereof, and also the name and place of abode or business, or other address of the registered proprietor thereof.

IX. All the services hereinbefore directed to be performed by the Registrar are to be performed on payment of such fees as may be from time to time fixed by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

Signed by order, of the Lords of the said Committee,

JAMES BOOTH, one of the Joint Secretaries of the said Committee.
