FOREIGN-OFFICE, November 26, 1850.

The Queen has been pleased to approve of Mr George Simpson as Vice Consul at Liverpool for the Emperor of Hayti.

The Queen has been pleased to approve of M. Nicolas Vitalis as Consul at Malta for His Majesty the King of Greece.

WHITEHALL, November 20, 1850.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed William Nicholas Brugg, of Okehampton, in the county of Devon, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

By the Lord Lieutenant-General and General Governor of Ireland.

CLARENDON.

WHEREAS, under the provisions of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, entitled "An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws relative to Jurors and Juries in Ireland," the Justices assembled at the October Quarter Sessions of the Peace, holden in and for the division of Maryborough, at Maryborough, in the said division, on the seventeenth day of October last, duly fixed a Special Sessions to be holden at the Sessions' House in Maryborough, on Tuesday the nineteenth day of November instant, within and for the division of Maryborough, in the King's County, for the purpose of examining the Lists of Jurors returned by the High Constables and Collectors within said division, pursuant to the provisions in said Act contained, and did give public notice of such place and time:

And whereas it has been represented unto Us by William Caldbeck, Clerk of the Peace for said Queen's County, that the Lists of Persons returned by the High Constables pursuant to the provisions of said recited Act, for the said division of Maryborough, could not be examined or corrected by reason of the attendance of only two Magistrates, whereby said Sessions could not be effectually holden for the purpose aforesaid:

And whereas, by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, entitled "An Act to amend two Acts of the third and fourth and fourth and fifth years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, for consolidating and amending the Laws relative to Jurors and Juries in Ireland," it is enacted that in every case in which in any county at large, or any division thereof, or in any county of a city, or county of a town, such Special Sessions shall not be effectually held for the purpose in said Act stated, whether by reason of a sufficient number of Justices not attending, or by reason of a day or place not being fixed for the holding of such Sessions, or by any other cause, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by Warrant under his or their hand or hands, to fix a day, and also a place in such county or division, or county of a city, or county of a town, for holding a Special Session for the purpose of examining the List of Jurors, as in the said Act of the third and fourth years of the reign of His said late Majesty is directed:

Now We, George William Frederick Earl of Clarendon, Lord Lieutenant-General and General Governor of Ireland, do, by this Our Warrant, in pursuance of the authority so vested in Us, under and by virtue of the provisions of said recited Act of the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, appoint and fix that a Special Sessions, for the purpose of examining the List of Jurors, as in the said Act of the third and fourth years of the reign of His said late Majesty is directed, shall be held at Maryborough Court-House, in and for the said division of Maryborough, on the twelfth day of December next, being sixteen days from the publication of this Our Warrant; of which all persons concerned are to take notice.

Given at Her Majesty's Castle of Dublin, this 22d day of November 1850.

By His Excellency's Command,
T. N. REDINGTON.

By the Lord Lieutenant-General and General
Governor of Ireland.

CLARENDON.

WHEREAS, under the provisions of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, entitled "An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws relative to Jurors and Juries in Ireland," the Justices assembled at the October Quarter Sessions of the Peace, holden in and for the division of Dundalk, at Ardee, in the said division, on the 18th day of October last, duly fixed a Special Sessions to be holden at the Sessions' House, in the Town of Dundalk, on Monday the 18th day of November instant, within and for the county of Louth, for the purpose of examining the Lists of Jurors returned by the High Constables and Collectors within said county, pursuant to the provisions in said Act contained, and did give public notice of such place and time;

And whereas it has been represented unto Us by the Clerk of the Peace for said county of Louth, that the Lists of Persons returned, pursuant to the provisions of said recited Act, for the said county of Louth, could not be examined or corrected by reason of the non-attendance of John Farley, Collector of Grand Jury Cess for the barony of Lower Dundalk, in said county, at an adjournment of the said Special Sessions, holden at the Sessions' House, in the town of Dundalk aforesaid, on the 22d day of the said month of November instant, whereby said adjourned Sessions could not be effectually holden for the purpose aforesaid:

And whereas, by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, entitled "An Act to amend two Acts of the third and fourth and fourth and fifth years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, for consolidating and amending the Laws relative to Jurors and Juries in Ireland," it is enacted, that in every case in which in any county at large, or any division thereof, or in any county of a city, or county of a town, such Special Sessions shall not be effectually held for the purpose in said Act stated, whether by reason of a sufficient number of Justices not attending, or by reason of a day or place not being fixed for the holding of such Sessions, or by any other cause, it shall and may be lawful, for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by Warrant under his or their hand or hands, to fix a day, and also a place in such county or division, or county of a city, or county of a town, for holding a Special Session for the purpose of examining the List of Jurors; as in the said Act of the third and fourth years of the reign of His said late Majesty is directed:

Now We, George William Frederick Earl of Clarendon, Lord Lieutenant-General and General Governor of Ireland, do, by this Our Warrant, in pursuance of the authority so vested in Us, under and by virtue of the provisions of said recited Act of the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, appoint and fix that a Special Sessions, for the purpose of examining the List of Jurors, as in the said Act of the third and fourth years of the reign of His said late Majesty is directed, shall be held at Dundalk, in and for the said county of Louth, on the 12th day of December next, being sixteen days from the publication of this Our Warrant; of which all persons concerned are to take notice.

Given at Her Majesty's Castle of Dublin, this 25th day of November 1850.

By His Excellency's Command,
T. N. REDINGTON.

THE PATENT MARBLE COMPANY.
(PURCHASE AND USE OF PATENTS, INCORPORATION OF COMPANY, AND OTHER PURPOSES.)

NOTICE is Hereby Given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session for leave to bring in a Bill to authorize the purchase, hiring, or leasing by a Company or Partnership called or intended to be called "The Patent Marble Company," of the following letters patent and the privileges thereby respectively granted and incident thereto, that is to say: letters patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, bearing date at Westminster, the 26th day of April, 1849, granting unto Charles Iles, of Bordesley Works, Birmingham, machinist, his executors, administrators, and assigns, the sole use of his invention "for Improvement in manufacturing Picture Frames, Inkstands, and other Articles in dies or moulds, also in producing Ornamental Surfaces" in England and Wales, and the town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, and also any other letters patent at any time heretofore or hereafter to be made, granting any right or privilege of working, using, exercising, or vending of the said invention, or of any invention, all or any part of which shall be any manner of improvement in, or upon, or addition to, or shall in any way relate to, or be founded on the inventions mentioned in the before-mentioned letters patent or any of them, or any part of such inventions respectively, and the privileges thereby granted or any part thereof, and the rights, profits, and advantages granted or to be granted in or by such existing or future letters patent, or any part thereof, and to enable the Patentees or Grantees named in such letters patent, their executors, administrators, and assigns, and every person in whom such letters patent, or any or either of them, or the privileges thereby granted or any part thereof, now are, or is, or shall at any time hereafter be vested, to sell, transfer, assign, and dispose of, or otherwise assure and to grant licenses to work the same, and all their part, share, right, title, and interest of, in, or to the same letters patent, or any or either of them, or the said privileges, rights, profits, and advantages comprised, given, granted, or conferred as aforesaid, unto or in trust for the said Company, and to enable or permit the Company to which such letters patent shall be transferred, to make, use, and exercise the inventions, rights, and privileges granted by such letters patent, and also to grant licenses to any party or parties to use or exercise such inventions as aforesaid, or any of them.

And it is also intended by the said Bill to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which the Patentees or Grantees named in such letters patent, their executors, administrators, and assigns, or any other person or persons now hath, or have, or may hereafter have, in, under, or in reference to the said letters patent or any of them, and to confer the same or similar rights and privileges upon the said Company, and also to confer, vary, and extinguish other rights and privileges, and exemptions, interfering with or necessary for the purpose of the said Company.

And it is also intended to insert in the said Bill clauses and provisions for incorporating the said Company, and for granting to the said Company power to purchase by agreement, and to hold lands, tenements, and hereditaments, and to sue and be sued in the name or names of the said Company, or one or more of the directors or officers thereof, and for the general constitution and regulation of the said Company. And also such powers and provisions as are usually inserted in Bills of a similar nature, and such other powers and provisions as may be deemed necessary or expedient.

Dated this twenty-sixth day of November 1850.
