CLARENDON.

WHEREAS, under the provisions of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, entitled "An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws relative to Jurors and Juries in Ireland," the Justices assembled at the October Quarter Sessions of the Peace, holden in and for the division of Maryborough, at Maryborough, in the said division, on the seventeenth day of October last, duly fixed a Special Sessions to be holden at the Sessions' House in Maryborough, on Tuesday the nineteenth day of November instant, within and for the division of Maryborough, in the King's County, for the purpose of examining the Lists of Jurors returned by the High Constables and Collectors within said division, pursuant to the provisions in said Act contained, and did give public notice of such place and time:

And whereas it has been represented unto Us by William Caldbeck, Clerk of the Peace for said Queen's County, that the Lists of Persons re-

And whereas, by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, entitled "An Act to amend two Acts of the third and fourth and fourth and fifth years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, for consolidating and amending the Laws relative to Jurors and Juries in Ireland," it is enacted that in every case in which in any county at large, or any division thereof, or in any county of a city, or county of a town, such Special Sessions shall not be effectually held for the purpose in said Act stated, whether by reason of a sufficient number of Justices not attending, or by reason of a day or place not being fixed for the holding of such Sessions, or by any other cause, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by Warrant under his or their hand or hands, to fix a day, and also a place in such county or division, or county of a city, or county of a town, for holding a Special Session for the purpose of examining the List of Jurors, as in the said Act of the third and fourth years of the reign of His said late Majesty is directed:

Now We, George William Frederick Earl of Clarendon, Lord Lieutenant-General and General Governor of Ireland, do, by this Our Warrant, in pursuance of the authority so vested in Us, under and by virtue of the provisions of said recited Act of the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, appoint and fix that a Special Sessions, for the purpose of examining the List of Jurors, as in the said Act of the third and fourth years of the reign of His said late Majesty is directed, shall be held at Maryborough Court-House, in and for the said division of Maryborough, on the twelfth day of December next, being sixteen days from the publication of this Our Warrant; of which all persons concerned are to take notice.

Given at Her Majesty's Castle of Dublin, this 22d day of November 1850.
