NOTICE.

By the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

By an Act passed in the eleventh year of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the better Prevention of Crime and Outrage in certain parts of Ireland, until the first day of December, one thousand eight "hundred and forty-nine, and to the end of the "then next Session of Parliament," it was amongst other things enacted, "That whenever, in the judgment of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief-Governor or Governors of Ireland, by and with the advice of the Privy Council of Ireland, it shall be necessary for the prevention of crime and outrage, that the said Act should apply to any county, county of a city, or county of a town, or any barony or baronies, half barony or half baronies in any county at large, or any district of less extent than any barony or half barony in Ireland, to declare by Proclamation, to be published in the Dublin Gazette, that from and after a day to be named in such Proclamation, the said Act shall apply to any county, county of a city, or county of a town, or any barony or baronies, half barony or half baronies in any county at large, or any district of less extent than any barony or half barony in Ireland :

And whereas by one other Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue, for a time to be limited, an Act of the "eleventh year of Her present Majesty, for the "better prevention of Crime and Outrage in certain parts of Ireland," it is enacted, "That the "said recited Act of the eleventh year of Her "present Majesty shall be, and continue in full "force and effect until the thirty-first day of "December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, and from thence until the end "of the then next Session of Parliament."

And whereas by Our Proclamation, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council in Ireland, bearing date at the Castle of Dublin, the twenty-fourth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, We declared, that from and after the thirtieth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, the said Act should apply to, and be in force in and for the Electoral Divisions of Killymasney, Seacor, and Caravaddy, in the Poor-Law Union of Letterkenny; the Electoral Division of Meenacarcagh, in the Poor-Law Union of Stranorlar; and in and for the Townlands of Letterkenny, in the Barony of Kilmacrenan; and Oldtown, in the Barony of Raphoe, all in the County of Donegal :

Now Notice is hereby given, that We require all persons, (not being Justices of the Peace, or persons in Her Majesty's Naval or Military Service, or in the Coast Guard Service, or in the Service of the Revenue, or in the Police or Constabulary Force, or Special Constables, or persons duly licensed to kill game, or persons to whom any license shall have been granted under this Act,) residing or being within the district included in the said Proclamation, on or before Tuesday, the seventh day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, to deposit and leave at the police barrack, in the Town of Letterkenny, within the said district, or at the police station or barrack nearest to his, her, or their residence, all and every gun or guns, pistol or pistols, or other fire-arm or fire-arms, and any part or parts of any gun, pistol, or other fire-arms, and any sword or swords, cutlass or cutlasses, pike or pikes, bayonet or bayonets, and any bullets, gunpowder, and ammunition which he, she, or they may have in his, her, or their custody, power, or possession :

And Notice is hereby further given, that every person who, after the said seventh day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, shall knowingly have in his or her custody, power, or possession, any gun, pistol, or other fire-arm, or part or parts of any gun, pistol, or fire-arm, or any sword, cutlass, pike, or bayonet, or any bullets, gunpowder, or ammunition, contrary to the provisions of said Act, will be liable, on conviction thereof, to be imprisoned, with hard labour, for a term of two years.

Dublin-Castle, 31st day of December 1850,

By His Excellency's Command.
