NAVAL MEDALS.

ADMIRALTY, January 25, 1851.

Three years and seven months have now elapsed since notice was first issued by command of Her Majesty, in the Gazette of 1st June 1847, requiring all persons to make application who should consider themselves qualified to receive a Medal for their services during the late wars, as therein specified.

Although above 17,000 Officers, seamen, and marines, and soldiers serving as marines, have, after investigation, been declared qualified, it is supposed that some claims may be still outstanding:

My Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty therefore direct that all remaining claims, under the Gazette notices of 1st June 1847, 1st June 1848, and 11th February 1850, be brought forward without loss of time; and notice is hereby given, that no claim will be taken into consideration, unless it is submitted before the 1st May next ensuing.

By Command of their Lordships,

J. PARKER.

Commission signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County Palatine of Lancaster.

Joseph Jones, Esq. to be Deputy Lieutenant.
Dated 23d January 1851.

Portsea Island Union.—Portsmouth Parish.

To the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the parish of Portsmouth, in the county of Southampton ;

To the Clerk or Clerks to the Justices of the Petty Sessions held for the division or divisions in which the said parish is situate ;

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS the population of the parish of Portsmouth, in the county of Southampton, according to the last census, exceeds two thousand persons ; And whereas at a meeting of the vestry of the said parish, held, after public notice in that behalf, on the twenty-ninth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, it was resolved,—

That this Vestry doth hereby authorise and direct the Churchwardens of this parish of Portsmouth to make application to the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in England to make an Order, under their seal of office, that so much of an Act of Parliament passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled “ An Act to prevent the holding of vestry or other meetings in churches, and for regulating the appointment of vestry clerks,” as relates to regulating the appointment, duties, and payment of vestry clerks, shall be applied to, and put in force within the parish of Portsmouth ; and this Vestry doth hereby generally authorise the said Churchwardens to take and adopt all such proceedings and measures as may be necessary for obtaining such Order.

And whereas the Churchwardens of the said parish have made their application in writing to the Poor Law Board, pursuant to the above Resolution.

Now therefore, We, the said Poor Law Board, under the authority of the several Statutes in that behalf made and provided, do hereby order and direct that so much of the said Act passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled “ An Act to prevent the holding of vestry or other meetings in churches, and for regulating the appointment of vestry clerks,” as relates to the appointment of a vestry clerk, shall forthwith be applied to, and be put in force within the said parish of Portsmouth.

And we do hereby order and direct that a copy of this Order shall be published in the London Gazette.

Given under our hand and seal of office, this twentieth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one.

M. T. BAINES, President.

GEO. NICHOLLS, Secretary.

Cowes.—Legal Quay.

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom for Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby, under the authority of an Act passed in the session of the ninth and tenth years of the present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled “ An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs,” appoint the following place, within the port of Cowes, to be a legal quay for the lading and unloading of goods, and we do hereby declare the bounds and extent of such quay to be as follows ; that is to say :—

All that open place, quay, or wharf, with the stages projecting therefrom, situate at West Cowes, called the Medina Commercial Wharf, extending in length, southerly from the north end of the stage on the south-east side of the said wharf, two hundred and six feet, or thereabouts, and extending in length, southerly from the north end of the stage on the north-west side of the said wharf, one hundred and sixty-seven feet, or thereabouts, and being in breadth, at the widest part, one hundred and six feet, or thereabouts.
