And whereas it is expedient that provision should be made in pursuance of the said recited enactment to enable parties to appeal in civil causes from the decisions of the Supreme Court of Judicature of the Island of Jamaica to Her Majesty in Council, the same not being a Court of Error or of Appeal.

It is hereby ordered by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that any person or persons may appeal to Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, in her or their Privy Council, from any final judgment, decree, order, or sentence of the said Supreme Court of Judicature, as a Court of civil judicature, or as a Court of revenue or of escheat, in such manner, within such time, and under and subject to such rules, regulations, and limitations as are hereinafter mentioned; that is to say: in case any such judgment, decree, order, or sentence, shall be given or pronounced for or in respect of any sum or matter at issue above the amount or value of three hundred pounds sterling, or in case such judgment, decree, order, or sentence shall involve directly or indirectly, any claim, demand, or question to or respecting property in any civil right amounting to or of the value of three hundred pounds sterling, the person or persons feeling aggrieved by any such judgment, decree, order, or sentence may, within fourteen days next after the same shall have been pronounced, made, or given, apply to the said Court, by motion, for leave to appeal therefrom to Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, in her or their Privy Council, or if the said Court be not sitting, then by petition to either of the Judges of the said Court. And the Right Honourable Earl Grey, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
