TUESDAY, AUGUST 12, 1851.

BUCKINGHAM-PALACE, August 8, 1851.

THIS day Her Majesty, accompanied by His Royal Highness Prince Albert, proceeded in state from Buckingham-Palace to the House of Peers, where she arrived soon after two o'clock; and was received on alighting from her state coach, by the Lord Chancellor, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord Privy Seal, Sir Augustus Clifford, Bart. C.B. Deputy Great Chamberlain, (in the absence of the Lord Willoughby d'Eresby,) the Lord Steward of the Household, the Duke of Wellington, Garter King of Arms, and the Yeoman Usher of the Black Rod, and proceeded to the robing-room in the customary manner.

Her Majesty was there robed, and the procession moved into the House in the usual order;—the sword of state was borne by the Duke of Wellington, the cap of maintenance by the Marquess of Winchester, and the crown by the Marquess of Lansdowne.

Her Majesty being seated on the Throne, and His Royal Highness Prince Albert on a Chair on the left side of the Cloth of Estate, the Great Officers of State and others standing on the right and left, James Pulman, Esquire, Yeoman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a message from Her Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, Her Majesty was pleased to deliver the following most gracious Speech to both Houses of Parliament:—

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I am glad to be able to release you from your attendance in Parliament, and thank you for the diligence with which you have performed your laborious duties.

I continue to maintain the most friendly relations with Foreign Powers.

I am happy to be able to congratulate you on the very considerable diminution which has taken place in the African and Brazilian Slave Trade. The exertions of My squadron on the coasts of Africa and Brazil, assisted by the vigilance of the cruisers of France and the United States, and aided by the operations of the Brazilian Government, have mainly contributed to this result.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I thank you for the readiness with which you have granted the supplies necessary for the service of the year.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

It is satisfactory to observe that, notwithstanding very large reductions of taxes, the Revenue for the past year considerably exceeded the public expenditure for the same period. I am rejoiced to find that you have thereby been enabled to relieve My people from an impost which restricted the enjoyments of light and air in their dwellings. I trust that this enactment, with others to which your attention has been and will be directed, will contribute to the health and comfort of My subjects.

I thank you for the assiduity with which you have applied yourselves to the consideration of a measure for the purpose of checking the undue assumption of the Ecclesiastical Titles conferred by a Foreign Power. It gives Me the highest satisfaction to find that while repelling unfounded claims, you have held inviolate the great principles of religious liberty so happily established amongst us.

The attention you have bestowed on the administration of justice in the Courts of Law and Equity, will I trust prove beneficial, and lead to further improvement.

I have willingly given My consent to a bill relating to the Administration of the Land Revenues of the Crown, which will I hope conduce to the better management of that department, and at the same time tend to the promotion of works of public utility.

It has been very satisfactory to Me, on an occasion which has brought many Foreigners to the Country, to observe the spirit of kindness and goodwill which so freely prevails.

It is My anxious desire to promote among Nations the cultivation of all those Arts which are fostered by peace, and which in their turn contribute to maintain the peace of the World.

In closing the present Session, it is with feelings of gratitude to Almighty God that I acknowledge the general spirit of loyalty and willing obedience to the law which animate My people. Such a spirit is the best security at once for the progress and the stability of our free and happy Institutions.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by Her Majesty's command, said

My Lords and Gentlemen,

It is Her Majesty's royal will and pleasure that this Parliament be prorogued to Thursday the fourth day of September next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Thursday the fourth day of September next.

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 7th
day of August 1851,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

This day the Right Honourable George Augustus Constantine Henry Phipps (commonly called the Earl of Mulgrave,) and the Right Honourable Laurence Sullivan, were by Her Majesty's command sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took their respective places at the Board accordingly.

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 7th
day of August 1851,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas by an Act passed in the tenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, "for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in England," it is among other things enacted that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said Act be put in force in such county or counties as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, from time to time should seem fit, and to divide the whole or part of any such county (including all counties of cities and counties of towns, cities, boroughs, towns, ports, and places, liberties and franchises therein contained or thereunto adjoining), into districts, and to order that the County Court should be holden for the recovery of debts and demands under the said Act, in each of such districts, and from time to time to alter such districts as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit, and to order, from time to time, that the number of districts in and for which the Court should be holden, should be increased until the whole of such county should be within the provisions of the said Act, and with the advice aforesaid to alter the place of holding of any such Court, or to order that the holding of any such Court should be discontinued, or to consolidate any two or more of such districts, and from time to time, with the advice aforesaid, to declare by what name and in what towns and places the County Court should be holden in each district :

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by an Order in Council of the ninth day of March one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, to order that the said Act should be put in force in the counties and places therein specified, among which counties the county of Radnor was included, and the town of Presteigne was named as a place for holding one of the Courts of the said county of Radnor for the district in that behalf particularly mentioned in the said Order :

And whereas by certain other Acts made and passed in the thirteenth and in the fourteenth years of the reign of Her Majesty, the provisions of the said recited Act have been amended and extended :

And whereas it hath been represented that it would be of advantage to the public that a County Court should be holden at Knighton, in the county of Radnor, for the parishes and places thereunto adjacent, and which parishes and adjoining places are, by virtue of the said Order, now within the district of the County Court holden at the town of Presteigne.

Her Majesty having taken the premises into consideration, is Her Majesty pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the thirtieth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, the parishes and places of Brampton-Bryan, Bedstone, Bucknell, Stowe, Knighton, Heyop, Llanvair-Waterdine, Bettus or Bettws-y-Crwyn, Llanfihangel Beguildy, Llangynllo, Blethvaugh or Bleddfa, Llanfihangel-Rhydithon, Llandewy-Ystradenny, Llanbister, Llananno, Llanbadarn-Fynydd, and townships of Walford, Letton, and Newton, and Adforton, Stanway, Paytoe, and Grange, now in the district of the County Court of Radnorshire, holden at Presteigne, shall cease to be within the district of the said Court holden at Presteigne, and shall form the district of a County Court to be holden at Knighton; and a County Court, for the purposes of the above-mentioned Acts, shall accordingly, from and after such day, be held at Knighton aforesaid, by the name of the County Court of Radnorshire, holden at Knighton, for the parishes of Brampton-Bryan, Bedstone, Bucknell, Stowe, Knighton, Heyop, Llanvair-Waterdine, Bettus or Bettws-y-Crwyn, Llanfihangel Beguildy, Llangynllo, Blethvaugh or Bleddfa, Llanfihangel-Rhydithon, Llandewy-Ystradenny, Llanbister, Llananno, Llanbadarn-Fynydd, and townships of Walford, Letton, and Newton, and Adforton, Stanway, Paytoe, and Grange.

C. C. GREVILLE.
