YORK, NEWCASTLE, AND BERWICK RAILWAY

(DEVIATION OF BISHOP AUCKLAND BRANCH—EXTENSION OF TIME FOR PURCHASE OF LANDS AND COMPLETION OF WORKS ON PART OF THE RAILWAYS AUTHORISED BY THE YORK, NEWCASTLE, AND BERWICK (MAIN-LINE IMPROVEMENT) RAILWAY ACT 1848—AND AMENDMENT OF ACTS).

NOTICE is Hereby Given, that Application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session for an Act to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge, and to repeal some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to the York, Newcastle, and Berwick Railway Company (lately called the York and Newcastle Railway Company, and originally the Newcastle and Darlington Junction Railway Company), passed respectively in the 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th, 10th, 11th, 12th, 13th, 14th, and 15th years of the reign of her present Majesty, and also of two several Acts relating to the lately dissolved Railway Company called the Newcastle and Berwick Railway Company, passed respectively in the 9th and 10th years of the reign of her present Majesty, so far as the same are yet unrepealed and relate to the said York, Newcastle, and Berwick Railway Company, and to vary and extinguish some of the rights, exemptions, privileges, and restrictions granted, protected, reserved, limited, or otherwise provided for by all or some or one of the said Acts, or of the other Acts of Parliament relating to or affecting the York, Newcastle, and Berwick Railway Company aforesaid, and to confer other rights, exemptions, privileges, and restrictions, or otherwise to repeal the said Acts, and to consolidate all or some of the provisions thereof, and of the said intended Act in one Act. And it is proposed by the said intended Act to empower the York, Newcastle, and Berwick Railway Company to make a deviation in the line of the Bishop Auckland Branch Railway, as authorised by the York, Newcastle, and Berwick Main Line Improvement Railway Act 1848, between the point where the same Branch Railway crosses a brook running through a field in the township of Framwellgate and parish of St Oswald, in the county of Durham, numbered 200 on the plan of the said Branch Railway, deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Durham, in the month of November 1846, and referred to by the said last-mentioned Act, and the point where the same Branch Railway intersects a fence lying on the south side of a field in the township of Hunwick and Helmington, and parish of Saint Andrew Auckland, in the said county of Durham, numbered 20 on the same last-mentioned plan, and to abandon so much of the said authorised Branch Railway as lies between the said points, and in lieu of the portion of Railway so to be abandoned to enable the said York, Newcastle, and Berwick Railway Company to make and maintain the Railway following, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, that is to say, a Railway commencing by a junction with the present authorised line of the said Branch Railway, at the said point where the same crosses the said brook, in the said field, in the said township of Framwellgate, and parish of Saint Oswald, numbered 200 on the said plan, which point is marked A. on the maps or plans to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, and thence passing from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places following, or some of them, that is to say, St Oswald, Framwellgate, Crossgate, Elvet, Broom, extra-parochial place between the township of Elvet and the township of Brandon, and Byshottles Brandon and Byshottles, Brancepeth, Stockley, Willington, Helmington Row, Saint Andrew Auckland, and Hunwick and Helmington, all in the said county of Durham, and terminating at the said point where the said present authorised Branch Railway intersects the said fence on the south side of the said field, in the said township of Hunwick and Helmington, and parish of Saint Andrew Auckland, numbered 20 on the said plan deposited in the month of November 1846, as aforesaid, which last-mentioned point is marked B. on the said maps or plans to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned.

And it is also proposed to apply for powers in the said intended Act to stop up, divert, or alter, whether temporarily or permanently, all such turnpike roads and other highways, streams, canals, navigations, railways, and tramroads within the said parishes, townships, and extra-parochial and other places aforesaid, or some of them, as it may be necessary to stop up, divert, or alter, for the purposes of such proposed railway and other works.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to take powers for the purchase, by compulsion or otherwise, of lands and houses for the purposes of the said intended railway and works, and to alter, vary, or extinguish all existing rights and privileges connected with such lands and houses, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction, maintenance, and use of the said proposed railway and works, and to confer other rights and privileges, and also to levy tolls, rates, and duties, for, or in respect of the use of the said intended railway and works, and to confer such exemptions from the payment of such tolls, rates, and duties, as may be thought expedient.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to extend the time granted by "The York, Newcastle, and Berwick (Auckland Branch) Railway Act 1851," for the making and completion of the railways and works which were authorised by the York, Newcastle, and Berwick (Main Line Improvement) Railway Act 1848, to be constructed and made, and for the compulsory purchase of lands and houses required for the purposes thereof, so far as relates to the railway firstly thereby authorised to be made, commencing by a junction with the railway heretofore called the Newcastle and Berwick Railway, in the township and parish of Gateshead, in the said county of Durham, and terminating by a junction with that part of the main line of railway belonging to the York, Newcastle, and Berwick Railway Company aforesaid, formerly called the Newcastle and Darlington Junction Railway, at or near a point where the road or highway leading from Pitlington to the city of Durham crosses over the said main line of railway in the township and parish of Saint Giles, in the said county of Durham; and also so far as relates to that part of the said Bishop Auckland Branch Railway authorised by the said last-mentioned Act which lies between the point where the same joins the said Railway firstly authorised by the said last-mentioned Act, and which point is marked C on the said plan of the said Bishop Auckland Branch Railway deposited as aforesaid, and referred to by the said last-mentioned Act, and the point marked F on the same plan in the field numbered thereon 154, in the township of Framwellgate and parish of Saint Oswald, in the said county of Durham. And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to empower the Company and the owners of certain private lines of railway communicating with certain collieries to enter into all necessary contracts and arrangements in reference to the conveyance by the Company upon their lines of railway of coals, minerals, and other articles and things passing to or from such collieries, and for the discontinuance of the conveyance thereof by such private lines.

And notice is hereby further given, that on or before the 30th day of November instant, maps, plans, and sections of the proposed new line of railway, together with a book of reference to such plans, and a copy of this notice as published in the London and Edinburgh Gazettes, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Durham, at his office in Durham, and that on or before the said 30th day of November a copy of so much of the said maps, plans, sections, and book of reference as relates to each parish in or through which the said intended new Railway and Works are proposed to be made, and also a copy of this notice, will be deposited with the Parish Clerk of each such parish at his place of abode.

Dated this 6th day of November 1851.

YORK, NEWCASTLE, AND BERWICK RAILWAY

(DEVIATION OF THIRSK AND MALTON BRANCH—POWER FOR THE MALTON AND DRIFFIELD JUNCTION RAILWAY COMPANY TO SUBSCRIBE TOWARDS AND ENTER INTO AGREEMENTS WITH RESPECT TO THE THIRSK AND MALTON BRANCH; AND TO RAISE FURTHER CAPITAL FOR SUCH PURPOSES—AND AMENDMENT OF ACTS).

NOTICE is Hereby Given, that Application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session for an Act to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge, and to repeal some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to the York, Newcastle, and Berwick Railway Company (lately called the York and Newcastle Railway Company, and originally the Newcastle and Darlington Junction Railway Company), passed respectively in the 5th, 6th, 7th, 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th, 13th, 14th, and 15th years of the reign of her present Majesty, and also of two several Acts relating to the lately dissolved Railway Company called the Newcastle and Berwick Railway Company, passed respectively in the 9th and 10th years of the reign of her present Majesty, so far as the same are yet unrepealed, and relate to the said York, Newcastle, and Berwick Railway Company; and to vary and extinguish some of the rights, exemptions, privileges, and restrictions granted, protected, preserved, limited, or otherwise provided for, by all or some or one of the said Acts, or of the other Acts of Parliament relating to or affecting the York, Newcastle, and Berwick Railway Company aforesaid, and to confer other rights, exemptions, privileges, and restrictions, or otherwise to repeal the said Acts, and to consolidate all or some of the provisions thereof and of the said intended Act in one Act.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to empower the York, Newcastle, and Berwick Railway Company to make a deviation in the line of the Thirsk and Malton Branch Railway, as authorised by "The Newcastle and Darlington Junction (Thirsk and Malton Branches) Railway Act 1846," between the road or way leading from New Malton, in the township and parish of Old Malton, in the North Riding of the County of York, numbered 68 in the plans of the said branch railway, deposited with the respective Clerks of the Peace for the North and East Ridings of the said County of York, in the month of November 1845, and referred to by the said last-mentioned Act, and the point where the same branch railway joins the railway belonging to the York and North Midland Railway Company, called the York and Scarborough Railway, in the township and parish of Norton, in the said East Riding, as shown on the same last-mentioned plans, and to abandon so much of the said authorised Branch Railway as lies between the same point and the said road or way numbered 68, and in lieu of the portion of railway so to be abandoned to enable the York, Newcastle, and Berwick Railway Company to make and maintain the railway following, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith (that is to say), a railway commencing by a junction with the Malton and Driffield Junction Railway, on the north-west side of the turnpike road leading from New Malton to Scarborough, in the said township and parish of Norton, in the said East Riding of the County of York, where such road is carried by a bridge over the said Malton and Driffield Junction Railway, and thence passing, from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places following, or some of them (that is to say), Norton, New Malton, St Léonard, and St Michael, New Malton, Settrington, and Old Malton, all in the said North and East Ridings of the County of York, and terminating by a junction with the said present authorised Thirsk and Malton Branch Railway on the south-east side of the said road or way, numbered 68 as aforesaid, in the said township and parish of Old Malton.

And it is also proposed to apply for powers in the said intended Act to stop up, divert, or alter, whether temporarily or permanently, all such turnpike roads, and other highways, streams, canals, navigations, railways, and tramroads, within the said parishes, townships, and extra-parochial and other places aforesaid, or some of them, as it may be necessary to stop up, divert, or alter, for the purposes of such proposed Railway and other works. And it is also proposed by the said intended Act, to take powers for the purchase, by compulsion or otherwise, of lands and houses, for the purposes of the said intended railway and works; and to alter, vary, or extinguish all existing rights and privileges connected with such lands and houses, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction, maintenance, and use of the said proposed railway and works, and to confer other rights and privileges; and also to levy tolls, rates, and duties for or in respect of the use of the said intended railway and works, and to confer such exemptions from the payment of such tolls, rates, and duties as may be thought expedient.

And notice is hereby further given, that on or before the 30th day of November instant, maps, plans, and sections of the proposed new line of railway, together with a book of reference to such plans, and a copy of this notice as published in the London and Edinburgh Gazettes, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the said North Riding of the County of York at his office in Northallerton in the same Riding, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the said East Riding of the County of York at his office in Beverley in the same Riding; and that on or before the said 30th day of November instant, a copy of so much of the said maps, plans, sections, and book of reference as relates to each parish in or through which the said intended new railway and works are proposed to be made, and also a copy of this notice as published in the London and Edinburgh Gazettes, will be deposited with the Parish Clerk of each such parish at his place of abode.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is proposed by the said intended Act to empower the Malton and Driffield Junction Railway Company to subscribe towards the construction of the said Thirsk and Malton Branch Railway, and of the said intended new portion thereof, and to accept, take, and hold shares in the capital authorised to be raised by the Newcastle and Darlington Junction (Thirsk and Malton Branches) Railway Act 1846, for the purposes of such Act, and either to raise a further sum of money, or to apply their corporate funds for such purposes, and to cancel and merge in the capital stock of such Company all or any shares therein which have been forfeited or which may be or may become liable to be forfeited, and to issue new shares in lieu thereof, with or without preference or priority in payment of dividends, or other special privileges attached thereto.

And by the proposed Act it is intended to enable the said Malton and Driffield Junction Railway Company, and the said York, Newcastle, and Berwick Railway Company, to enter into agreements as to the working, management, and maintenance of the said Thirsk and Malton Branch Railway, and the said intended new portion thereof, and the division and apportionment of the rates, tolls, and charges levied and received thereon, and the payment of the costs and expenses of the working, management, and maintenance thereof, and (so far as it may be necessary) to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of "The Malton and Driffield Junction Railway Act 1846," and "The Malton and Driffield Junction Railway Amendment Act 1851," or one of such Acts.

GLASGOW IMPROVEMENT.

(POLICE AND STATUTE LABOUR, PAVING, LIGHTING, WATCHING, AND CLEANSING, AND AMENDMENT OF ACTS).

NOTICE is Hereby Given, That it is intended to apply to Parliament, in the ensuing Session, for leave to bring in a Bill to continue, alter, enlarge, and amend, or wholly or partially to repeal the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled,—“An Act to consolidate, amend, and extend, the provisions of several Acts for the better paving, watching, lighting, and cleansing, and for regulating the Police of the City of Glasgow and adjoining districts; and also, for managing the Statute Labour of the said City, and for other purposes in relation thereto.” And another Act, passed in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of her present Majesty, intituled,—“An Act to extend the municipal boundaries of the City of Glasgow; to amend the Acts relating to the Police and Statute Labour of the said City and adjoining districts, and for other purposes in relation to the Municipality and Police of the said City;” and the several Acts recited or referred to in the said two recited Acts. By which Bill it is intended to provide for the better paving, lighting, watching, cleansing, or improving of the City of Glasgow, within the extended Municipal limits or boundaries thereof, as defined in the last-mentioned Act; to take powers to provide for, regulate, and place under proper control, the formation, and laying out, widening, enlarging, and improving of all Streets, Lanes, Thoroughfares, Passages, and Places; the erection of Houses and Buildings, and the formation of Sewers and Drains; to fix and regulate the width of Streets, Lanes, and Thoroughfares, and the height and dimensions of Houses and Buildings; to provide for the removal and prevention of Nuisances, Annoyances, and Obstructions; the supplying of Houses and Buildings with Fresh Air; the providing of Places for Public Recreation, and Public Baths and Wash-houses; the management of Churchyards and other Burial Places, and, if necessary, the shutting up of Churchyards and Burial Places; and the adoption of all such other measures, matters, and things as may be necessary to render more effective the systems of Police and Statute Labour, and to promote the health, comfort, and safety of the inhabitants, and the general improvement and good government of the said City; to acquire by compulsory purchase, or by voluntary agreement, and to hold Lands and Houses; and to borrow Money, for the purposes of the said Acts, and of the said Bill, or some of them; to increase, alter, re-adjust, or diminish, all or any of the existing Rates, Duties, or Assessments leviable under the said Acts or any of them; and to impose and levy new Rates, Duties, and Assessments, for and in respect of the several purposes of the said Bill, in lieu of or in addition thereto; to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from payment of Rates, Duties, or Assessments; and to confer, vary, or extinguish, all powers, rights, and privileges, necessary for carrying the purposes of said Bill into execution and effect.

And it is also intended by the said Bill to incorporate therewith the enactments and provisions of an Act, passed in the 13th and 14th years of the reign of her present Majesty, intituled, "An Act to make more effectual provision for regulating the Police of Towns and populous Places in Scotland, and for paving, draining, cleansing, lighting, and improving the same;" or some of such enactments and provisions in so far as applicable, and with such alterations as may be requisite.

GLASGOW UNION ARCADE.

ABANDONMENT OF THE UNDERTAKING, AND DISSOLUTION OF THE COMPANY.

NOTICE is Hereby Given, That application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next Session for leave to bring in a Bill to authorise the dissolution and winding up of "The Union Arcade Company," incorporated by "The Union Arcade Act, 1846," and the abandonment of the Arcade, and works, and the whole undertaking which the said Company were by the said Act empowered to make and maintain, and which Arcade and works, and the lands, houses, and other heritages, which were intended to be taken for the purposes thereof, are delineated and described upon the plan thereof, referred to in the said Act, as deposited, together with a Book of Reference thereto, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands, houses, and other heritages, and the Municipal Sheriff Clerk of the County of Lanark; and it is also intended by the said Bill to enable the said Company, or the Directors thereof, or other person or persons, to be appointed by the said Bill to sell, dispose, and convey the lands, houses, and other property and effects belonging to, or held in trust for the said Company, to realise the prices and proceeds thereof, to collect, recover, and compound the debts or claims due to, and to pay and discharge the debts, liabilities, and expenses of, and relating to the said Company and undertaking, and to pay and divide the whole moneys and funds which may remain in their hands to and among the Shareholders of the said Company: And it is also intended by the said Bill to repeal the said Act, and to vary or extinguish all rights, powers, and privileges, in any way relating to the said undertaking, or conferred by the said Act in favour of any corporate or incorporate body or person whatsoever, or otherwise, and to make such farther provisions as may be necessary, or expedient, for effectually carrying out the above mentioned purposes.

KELVIN BRIDGE (GLASGOW) AND OTHER WORKS.

NOTICE is Hereby Given, That it is intended to apply to Parliament in the ensuing Session, for leave to bring in a Bill for an Act for Powers to certain Trustees to be thereby authorised to Construct and Maintain a BRIDGE across the RIVER KELVIN, at or near to the site of the present WOODEN BRIDGE across said River leading to HILLHEAD, in the Parishes of Govan and Barony respectively, and the City of Glasgow, and County of Lanark, with all proper Piers, Abutments, Walls, Banks, Ways, Roads of Communication, and other proper accommodations, for the purpose of forming a good and substantial Road or Bridge way across the said River Kelvin; and it is intended to take powers by the said Bill to improve, widen, and straighten, and to alter the lines, levels, and inclinations of the following Roads or Streets, or some of them, that is to say, the Road or Street on the Lands of Hillhead called King-Street, leading from said intended Bridge to the centre of Smith-Street, on the said Lands of Hillhead, and also that part of Eldon-Street, on the Lands of Blytheswood, leading also from said intended Bridge to, or near to buildings named Kelvin Row; all which Works are intended to be made in, and will pass from, through, or into the said Parishes, and the City aforesaid, or some of them and County aforesaid; and it is intended by the said Bill to take powers for the compulsory purchase of Lands and other Heritages, and also to levy Tolls and Pontages for the use of the said Bridge and improved Roads or Streets. And also, to impose, levy, and assess on and from the Owners or Occupiers of the following Lands and Heritages, such annual rate or assessment for the purposes of the said Bridge and Works as may be expedient; that is to say, the Lands of Hillhead, Gilmorehill, and Donaldshill, all in the said Parish of Govan. And it is also intended, by said Bill, to raise a sufficient sum of money on the credit of the said Tolls and Pontages, Rate, and Assessment or otherwise; and to take such farther powers and provisions as may be expedient and usual for the purposes aforesaid. And it is also intended, by said Bill, to authorise such exemptions to be given from the payment of the said Tolls, Pontages, Rate, and Assessment, to the Proprietors of Lands and Houses, and other Property, on both sides of said River, and others who may contribute to the expense of said Works, as may be considered just and expedient. And it is also intended to extinguish all rights and privileges in relation to the Lands and Heritages to be acquired as aforesaid, or in relation to the said Roads or Streets, or any of them in respect of servitudes, or otherwise, or which might in any way interfere with the construction of the said Works, and to confer new rights and privileges. And it is also intended to extinguish any obligation which may exist in the Title-deeds of any of the said Lands, for the support and maintenance of the said existing Wooden Bridge. And it is also intended to take power, and to enable the said Trustees, on the completion of the said proposed New Bridge, to take down and remove the said Wooden Bridge, and to sell and dispose of the materials thereof, and apply the proceeds towards the purposes of the said Works. And it is farther intended by the said Bill to alter and amend, so far as may be necessary, the Act of 9th and 10th Vict., cap. 289, entitled—"An Act to extend the Municipal Boundaries of the City of Glasgow; to amend the Acts relating to the Police and Statute Labour of the said City and adjoining districts, and for other purposes in relation to the Municipality and Police of the said City and the several Acts therein recited." And also an Act passed in the 8th and 9th Victoria, cap. 41, relating to the Highways, Bridges, and Ferries of Scotland, and the several Acts therein recited.

AND NOTICE IS HEREBY FURTHER GIVEN, That Plans and Sections of the said Bridge and Works, and duplicates thereof respectively, describing the Lands, Houses, and other Property intended to be taken and acquired, and describing the Lines, Situations, and Levels of the Works to be constructed thereon, as aforesaid: And also showing the extent to which it is intended to apply for powers of lateral deviation from the Lines of such proposed Works, together with Books of Reference to the said Plans, containing the names of the Owners or reputed Owners, Lessees or reputed Lessees, and Occupiers of such Lands and other Heritages respectively, together with a copy of this Notice as it will be published in the Edinburgh Gazette, will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection at the Office in Glasgow of the principal Sheriff-Clerk of the County of Lanark; and that a copy of so much of the said Plans, Sections, and Books of Reference as relates to each Parish or Royal Burgh or Municipality, in or through which the Works are intended to be made, together with a copy of this Notice, as it will be published in the Edinburgh Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection on or before the said 30th day of November, with the Schoolmaster, or if there be no Schoolmaster, then with the Session-Clerk of the said Parishes, at their respective Residences, and also with the Town-Clerk of the City or Royal Burgh of Glasgow, at his Office therein.
