

The Edinburgh Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1851.

GENERAL ORDER.

HORSE GUARDS, November 24, 1851.

HER Majesty does not require that the Officers of the Army should wear any other Mourning, on the present melancholy occasion of the death of Field Marshal His late Majesty the King of Hanover, than a black crape round the left arm, with their uniforms.

By Command of Field Marshal the Duke of Wellington, Commander-in-Chief.
G. BROWN, Adjutant-General.

ADMIRALTY, November 24, 1851.

Her Majesty does not require that the Officers of the Fleet or Marines should wear any other Mourning, on the present melancholy occasion of the death of His late Majesty the King of Hanover, than a black crape round the left arm, with their uniforms.

J. PARKER.

ADMIRALTY, November 25, 1851.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to appoint Colonel Charles Menzies, Royal Marines, and Lieutenant-Colonel Thomas Wearing, Royal Marines, to be Aides-de-Camp to Her Majesty.—Dated 20th November 1851.

FOREIGN OFFICE, November 22, 1851.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to appoint Lieutenant-Colonel Henry Creswicke Rawlinson, C.B., now Her Majesty's Consul at Bagdad, to be Her Majesty's Consul-General at that City.

DOWNING-STREET, November 25, 1851.

The Queen has been pleased to appoint Lieutenant-Colonel Robert Henry Wynyard, Companion of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, to be Lieutenant-Governor of the province of New Ulster, in New Zealand.

Her Majesty has also been pleased to appoint Captain Edward Frome, of the Corps of Royal Engineers, to be Collector of Customs for the Island of Trinidad.

DUBLIN-CASTLE, November 18, 1851.

This day His Excellency the Earl of Clarendon, Grand Master, by Her Majesty's Command, held a Chapter of the Most Illustrious Order of Saint Patrick.

There were present the Earls of Charlemont, Howth, Miltown, Rosse, and Fingal; Viscount Massareene; His Grace the Archbishop of Dublin, Chancellor; the Very Rev. the Dean of St Patrick's, Registrar; Lt.-Col. the Hon. Robert Boyle, Secretary; Col. Sir George Morris, Usher of the Black Rod; and Sir William Betham, Ulster King of Arms and Knight Attendant.

The Knights Companions, in their Mantles and Collars only, and the Officers of the Order in their Mantles, Ribands, and Badges, assembled in the Entrée Room of Dublin Castle.

At two o'clock the Knights were called over by Ulster, and, preceded by the Officers of the Order, proceeded to the Chapter Room, where His Excellency the Grand Master was seated in the Chair of State, and the Knights Companions took their places at the table according to their respective Stalls.

His Excellency then commanded Ulster King of Arms and Knight Attendant, to read Her Majesty's Letter authorizing the Chapter to be held, which being done, His Excellency communicated to the Chapter that, in obedience to Her Majesty's Commands, the Chapter would proceed to invest His Royal Highness Sir George Duke of Cambridge, K.G., and the Right Hon. Robert Shapland Baron Carew, with the Riband and Badge of the Most Illustrious Order.

Ulster then announced that His Royal Highness the Duke of Cambridge was in attendance, whereupon His Excellency requested the two Junior Knights, the Earl of Fingal and Viscount Massareene, to introduce His Royal Highness, who accordingly retired to the Entrée Room and shortly returned with His Royal Highness, (Ulster bearing before them the Insignia of the Order on a velvet cushion,) conducted him to the right of the Chair of State, when His Royal Highness repeated after the Archbishop of Dublin, Chancellor of the Order, the Declaration appointed by the Statutes, which he subscribed, and His Excellency, assisted by the two Senior Knights, then placed the Riband and Badge over the right shoulder, pronouncing the Admonition appointed by the Statutes, after which