

His Royal Highness was congratulated by His Excellency and the Knights present, and took his seat at the table.

Ulster then announced that the Right Honorable Robert Shapland Baron Carew, was in attendance, and His Excellency directed that his Lordship should be introduced to receive the honour of Knighthood, on which he was introduced between Ulster King of Arms and the Gentleman Usher, and kneeling on his right knee, His Excellency conferred upon him the honour of Knighthood, after which his Lordship retired into the Entrée Room.

His Lordship was then introduced by the two Junior Knights present, and invested, with the same ceremonies.

Ulster then, by His Excellency's command, called over the names of the Knights Companions present, beginning with the Junior, who each rose from his seat as his name was pronounced, and the Chapter broke up.

W. BETHAM,
Ulster and Knight Attendant.

By the Lord Lieutenant-General and General
Governor of Ireland.

CLARENDON,

Whereas, under the provisions of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Third and Fourth years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, entitled "An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws relative to Jurors and Juries in Ireland," the Justices assembled at the October Quarter Sessions of the Peace holden in and for the Division of Clogher, in the County of Tyrone, at Clogher, in the said Division, on the 16th day of October last, duly fixed a Special Sessions to be holden at the Sessions' House in Clogher, on Friday the 14th day of November instant, within and for the division of Clogher, in said County of Tyrone, for the purpose of examining the Lists of Jurors returned by the High Constables and Collectors within said division, pursuant to the provisions in said Act contained, and did give public notice of such place and time.

And whereas it has been represented unto us by the Clerk of the Peace for said County of Tyrone, that the lists of persons returned pursuant to the provisions of said recited Act for the said division of Clogher, could not be examined or corrected by reason that only two Magistrates having attended, the said Sessions could not be effectually holden for the purpose aforesaid :

And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Second and Third Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, entitled "An Act to Amend two Acts of the Third and Fourth, and Fourth and Fifth years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, for consolidating and amending the Laws relative to Jurors and Juries in Ireland," it is enacted, That in every case in which in any County at large, or any Division thereof, or in any County of a City, or County of a Town, such Special Session shall not be effectually held for the purpose in said Act stated, whether by reason of a sufficient number of Justices not attending, or by reason of a Day or Place not being fixed for the holding of such Sessions, or by any other cause, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by Warrant under his or their hand or hands, to fix a Day, and also a Place in such

County or Division, or County of a City, or County of a Town, for holding a Special Session for the purpose of examining the List of Jurors, as in the said Act of the Third and Fourth years of the Reign of His said late Majesty is directed :

Now We, George William Frederick, Earl of Clarendon, Lord Lieutenant-General and General Governor of Ireland, do, by this Our Warrant, in pursuance of the Authority so vested in Us, under and by virtue of the provisions of said recited Act of the Second and Third Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, appoint and fix that a Special Sessions for the purpose of examining the List of Jurors, as in the said Act of the Third and Fourth years of the Reign of His said late Majesty is directed, shall be held at Clogher, in and for the said Division of Clogher, on the 6th day of December next, being fifteen days from the publication of this Our Warrant, of which all persons concerned are to take Notice.

Given at Her Majesty's Castle of Dublin, this 20th day of November, 1851.

By His Excellency's Command,
T. N. REDINGTON.

By the Lord Lieutenant General and General
Governor of Ireland.

CLARENDON.

Whereas, under the provisions of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Third and Fourth years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, entitled "An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws relative to Jurors and Juries in Ireland," the Justices assembled at the October Quarter Sessions of the Peace, holden in and for the Division of Dundalk, at Ardee, in the said Division, on the 17th day of October last, duly fixed a Special Sessions to be holden at the Sessions' House in Dundalk, on the 17th day of November instant, within and for the County of Louth, for the purpose of examining the Lists of Jurors returned by the High Constables and Collectors within said Division, pursuant to the provisions in said Act contained, and did give Public Notice of such place and time :

And whereas it has been represented unto Us by the Clerk of the Peace for said County of Louth, that the Lists of Persons returned pursuant to the provisions of said recited Act, for the said County of Louth, could not be examined or corrected by reason that no Magistrate having attended, said Sessions could not be effectually holden for the purpose aforesaid :

And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Second and Third years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, entitled "An Act to amend two Acts of the Third and Fourth, and Fourth and Fifth years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, for consolidating and amending the Laws relative to Jurors and Juries in Ireland," it is enacted, That in every case in which, in any County at large, or any Division thereof, or in any County of a City, or County of a Town, such Special Sessions shall not be effectually held for the purpose in said Act stated, whether by reason of a sufficient number of Justices not attending, or by reason of a Day or Place not being fixed for the holding of such Sessions, or by any other cause, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by Warrant under his or their hand or hands, to fix a Day, and also a Place in such County or Division, or County of a City, or County
