Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1852.

LORD CHAMBERLAIN'S OFFICE, February 16, 1852.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Levee at St James's Palace, on Wednesday, 3d March next, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE, AT ST JAMES'S PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who purpose to attend Her Majesty's Levee at St James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Presence-chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to present them, should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, on the Monday previous to the Levee on the 3d of March next, before twelve o'clock, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall be made at the Levee but in conformity with the above Regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to the Queen.

The State Apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court until half-past one o'clock.

Notice is hereby given, that all persons having Petitions or Addresses to present to Her Majesty at the Levee, are to send a card (having on it their names, a statement of the object of such Petitions or Addresses, and the names of the persons from whom they come,) to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock on the Monday previous to the Levee on the 3d of March next; and that two other cards, having on them precisely what is written upon that sent to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, are to be taken to the Levee; one of the two cards to be delivered to the Page in the Ante-Room, and the other to the Lord Chamberlain, who will read its contents to Her Majesty; and, on these occasions, no other statement is to be addressed to Her Majesty.

A Deputation to present an Address is not to exceed four persons.

Given at Her Majesty's Castle of Dublin, the 21st day of February 1852.

By His Excellency's Command,
T. N. REDINGTON.

DUBLIN CASTLE, February 23, 1852.

The Lord Lieutenant has been pleased to appoint Bartholomew Warburton, Esq. R.M. to take charge of the District of Ballybot, in the County of Armagh, under the provisions of the Act 6 Wm. 4, c. 13.

The Lord Lieutenant has directed James Little, Esq. R.M. to take charge of the county of Wicklow, as Resident Magistrate, under the provisions of the Act 6 Wm. 4, c. 13, in the room of Bartholomew Warburton, Esq. appointed to another county.

Whereas the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, by and with the advice of the Privy Council of Ireland, did, on the twenty-third day of December 1847, by a Proclamation published in the Dublin Gazette, declare that from and after the twenty-ninth day of December 1847, an Act passed in the eleventh year of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for the better prevention of crime and outrage in certain parts of Ireland, until the thirty-first day of December 1849, and to the end of the then next Session of Parliament," and which Act was continued in full force and effect by an Act passed in the fourteenth year of the Reign of Her said Majesty, to the thirty-first day of December 1851, and from thence until the end of the then next Session of Parliament, should apply to the county of Tipperary.

Now His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, does, by this Warrant under the hand of his Under Secretary, appoint Patrick C. Howley, Esq. to grant, at his discretion, at such time and times, and place and places, to be named in such manner as in the said Act is mentioned, a Licence or Licences to any person or persons to have, within the district named in the said Proclamation, in his, her, or their own dwelling-house or dwelling-houses only, or to carry and have within the same district, any gun or guns, pistol or pistols, or other fire-arm or fire-arms, or part or parts of any gun, pistol, or other fire-arm, or any sword or swords, cutlass or cutlasses, pike or pikes, bayonet or bayonets, or any bullets, gunpowder, or ammunition.

Dated at Dublin Castle this twenty-first day of February 1852.

By His Excellency's Command,
T. N. REDINGTON.

Whereas the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, by and with the advice of the Privy Council of Ireland, did, on the eighth day of December 1851, by a Proclamation published in the Dublin Gazette, declare that from and after the eleventh day of said month of December 1851, an Act passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for the better prevention of crime and outrage in certain parts of Ireland, until the thirty-first day of December 1849, and to the end of the then next Session of Parliament," and which Act was continued in full force and effect by an Act passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of Her said Majesty, to the thirty-first day of December 1851, and from thence until the end of the then next Session of Parliament, should apply to the parishes of Derrynoose and Keady, in the baronies of Tiranny and Armagh, in the county of Armagh:

Now His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, does, by this Warrant, under the hand of his Under Secretary, appoint William C. Morony, Esq. to grant, at his discretion, at such time and times, and place and places, to be named in such manner as in the said Act is mentioned, a Licence or Licences to any person or persons to have, within the district named in the said Proclamation, in his, her, or their own dwelling-house or dwelling-houses only, or to carry and have within the same district, any gun or guns, pistol or pistols, or other fire-arm or fire-arms, or part or parts of any gun, pistol, or other fire-arm, or any sword or swords, cutlass or cutlasses, pike or pikes, bayonet or bayonets, or any bullets, gunpowder, or ammunition.

Dated at Dublin Castle, this twenty-first day of February 1852.

By His Excellency's Command,
T. N. REDINGTON.

Whereas the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, by and with the advice of the Privy Council of Ireland, did, on the eighth day of December 1851, by a Proclamation published in the Dublin Gazette, declare that from and after the eleventh day of said month of December 1851, an Act passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for the better prevention of crime and outrage in certain parts of Ireland, until the thirty-first day of December 1849, and to the end of the then next Session of Parliament," and which Act was continued in full force and effect by an Act passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of Her said Majesty, to the thirty-first day of December 1851, and from thence until the end of the then next Session of Parliament, should apply to the parishes of Clontibret and Mucknow, in the barony of Cremorne, in the county of Monaghan:

Now His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, does, by this Warrant under the hand of his Under Secretary, appoint Charles Hunt, Esq. to grant at his discretion, at such time and times, and place and places, to be named in such manner as in the said Act is mentioned, a Licence or Licences to any person or persons to have, within the district named in the said Proclamation, in his, her, or their own dwelling-house or dwelling-houses only, or to carry and have within the same district, any gun or guns, pistol or pistols, or other fire-arm or fire-arms, or part or parts of any gun, pistol, or other fire-arm, or any sword or swords, cutlass or cutlasses, pike or pikes, bayonet or bayonets, or any bullets, gunpowder, or ammunition.

Dated at Dublin Castle, this twenty-first day of February 1852.

By His Excellency's Command,
T. N. REDINGTON.

Whereas the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, by and with the advice of the Privy Council of Ireland, did, on the thirty-first day of July 1848, by a Proclamation published in the Dublin Gazette, declare that from and after the second day of August 1848, an Act passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for the better prevention of crime and outrage in certain parts of Ireland, until the thirty-first day of December 1849, and to the end of the then next Session of Parliament," and which Act was continued in full force and effect by an Act passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of Her said Majesty, to the thirty-first day of December 1851, and from thence until the end of the then next Session of Parliament, should apply to the baronies of Upper Fews and Upper Orier, in the county of Armagh.

Now His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, does, by this Warrant under the hand of his Under Secretary, appoint William C. Morony, Esq. to grant at his discretion, at such time and times, and place and places, to be named in such manner as in the said Act is mentioned, a Licence or Licences to any person or persons to have, within the district named in the said Proclamation, in his, her, or their own dwelling-house or dwelling-houses only, or to carry and have within the same district, any gun or guns, pistol or pistols, or other fire-arm or fire-arms, or part or parts of any gun, pistol, or other fire-arm, or any sword or swords, cutlass or cutlasses, pike or pikes, bayonet or bayonets, or any bullets, gunpowder, or ammunition.

Dated at Dublin Castle, this twenty-first day of February 1852.

By His Excellency's Command,
T. N. REDINGTON.
