TUESDAY, MARCH 2, 1852.

LORD CHAMBERLAIN'S OFFICE, February 16, 1852.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Levee at St James's Palace, on Wednesday, 3d March next, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE, AT ST JAMES'S PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who purpose to attend Her Majesty's Levee at St James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Presence-chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to present them, should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, on the Monday previous to the Levee on the 3d of March next, before twelve o'clock, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall be made at the Levee but in conformity with the above Regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to the Queen.

The State Apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court until half-past one o'clock.

Notice is hereby given, that all persons having Petitions or Addresses to present to Her Majesty at the Levee, are to send a card (having on it their names, a statement of the object of such Petitions or Addresses, and the names of the persons from whom they come,) to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock on the Monday previous to the Levee on the 3d of March next; and that two other cards, having on them precisely what is written upon that sent to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, are to be taken to the Levee; one of the two cards to be delivered to the Page in the Ante-Room, and the other to the Lord Chamberlain, who will read its contents to Her Majesty; and, on these occasions, no other statement is to be addressed to Her Majesty.

A Deputation to present an Address is not to exceed four persons.

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 27th day of February 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Her Majesty in Council was this day pleased to declare the Right Honourable William, Earl of Lonsdale, Lord President of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and His Lordship took his place at the Board accordingly.

Her Majesty in Council was this day pleased to deliver the Great Seal to the Right Honourable Sir Edward Burtenshaw Sugden, Knt.; whereupon the oath of Lord Chancellor of Great Britain and Ireland was, by Her Majesty's command, administered to him; and he took his place at the Board accordingly.

Her Majesty having been pleased to deliver the custody of the Privy Seal to the Most Honourable James Brownlow William, Marquis of Salisbury,
