LORD CHAMBERLAIN'S OFFICE, March 2, 1852.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Levee at St James's-Palace, on Wednesday, 24th March instant, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S
LEVEE, AT ST JAMES'S PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who purpose to attend Her Majesty's Levee at St James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Presence-chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to present them, should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, on the Monday previous to the Levee on the 24th of March instant, before twelve o'clock, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall be made at the Levee but in conformity with the above Regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to the Queen.

The State Apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court until half-past one o'clock.

Notice is hereby given, that all persons having Petitions or Addresses to present to Her Majesty at the Levee, are to send a card (having on it their names, a statement of the object of such Petitions or Addresses, and the names of the persons from whom they come,) to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock on the Monday previous to the Levee on the 24th of March instant; and that two other cards, having on them precisely what is written upon that sent to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, are to be taken to the Levee; one of the two cards to be delivered to the Page in the Ante-Room, and the other to the Lord Chamberlain, who will read its contents to Her Majesty; and, on these occasions, no other statement is to be addressed to Her Majesty.

A Deputation to present an Address is not to exceed four persons.

LORD CHAMBERLAIN'S OFFICE, March 2, 1852.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing Room at St James's Palace, on Thursday the 1st of April next, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING-ROOM.

The Ladies who purpose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing-Room, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names legibly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Presence-chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

And those Ladies who are to be presented are hereby informed, that it is absolutely necessary that their names, together with the names of the Ladies who are to present them, should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's Office on Tuesday the 30th of March instant, before twelve o'clock, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall take place unless the name of the Lady presenting, together with that of the Lady to be presented, shall appear on the card to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, which name shall correspond with those previously sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

It is particularly requested, that in every case written cards only be delivered.

OFFICE OF ORDNANCE, February 26, 1852.

The following Regulations are to be observed in relation to the construction of the vessels to be moored at the places appointed under the provisions of an Act of the 14 and 15 Queen Victoria, chap. 67, sect. 6, intituled "An Act to repeal so much of an Act of the 12th year of King George the Third, relating to the making and carriage of gunpowder as exempt therefrom certain gunpowder magazines and stores, near Liverpool, and to make certain temporary provisions with regard to the said magazines and stores." Any person failing to observe these Regulations will be guilty of a misdemeanor, and punished accordingly:

1. That no iron be employed in the construction of any part of the vessel.
2. That wing passages are to be constructed between the sides of the vessel and the magazine for powder.
3. That the door or doors into the magazine shall in no case be opposite to a scuttle or door-way through ship's side or gangway.
4. That the ladder-way from the deck be protected by a close bulk-head on each side.
5. That every vessel be fitted with a lightning conductor on the plan of Sir Snow Harris; and that the mast or spar in which the conductor is fitted shall be in height above the deck at least two thirds of the length of the vessel from stem to stern.
6. That no bull-eyes or convex or plano-convex glasses be used in the decks, scuttles, or any part of the vessel.
7. That all glass used in the scuttles through the ship's side, ports, &c. shall be plate glass, not ground, of not less than half an inch in thickness; and copper wire gauze to be used in the scuttles for the admission of air.
8. Means on deck are also to be provided for the admission of water through the bottom of the vessel, through two or more circular apertures of not less than one foot in diameter, on either side of the keel.
7. The quantity of powder to be deposited at any one time in such vessels is limited by the Master-General to 10,000 barrels, of 100 pounds each.

When the magazines or vessels are constructed, Regulations will be issued for the mode of storing, safe keeping, and receiving and delivering gunpowder to and from the vessels.

CLARENCE PAGET, Secretary to the Master-General.
