LORD CHAMBERLAIN'S OFFICE, April 7, 1852.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room at St James's Palace, on Thursday, 13th May next, at two o'clock, to Celebrate Her Majesty's Birth-day.

N.B.—The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars.

The Ladies who purpose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing-Room, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names legibly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Presence-chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

It is particularly requested that written cards only be delivered.

Board of Green Cloth, Buckingham-Palace,
May 7, 1852.

Notice is hereby given, that the carriages proceeding to Her Majesty's Drawing-Room at St James's-Palace on Thursday the 13th of May, are to fall into line and go down the left-hand side of St James's Street, enter at the iron gate nearest the Palace, set down at the Arcade, turn round, and go out by the iron gate nearest Marlborough House, to wait in St James's Square. When called, they are to pass from the square through Charles Street, into Regent Street and Jernyn Street, go down St James's Street as before, take up, and go away through Pall Mall.

No hackney carriages will be admitted within the gates.

For all persons having the privilege of the entree, tickets will be delivered at the Board of Green Cloth, on Tuesday next, from eleven till three o'clock; their carriages are to pass through Constitution Hill Gate, into St James's Park: those belonging to the Ambassadors and Foreign Ministers are to set down at the Ambassadors' entrance in Marlborough Court, at the east end of St James's Palace, and wait there till called: those belonging to the Cabinet Ministers and Great Officers of State are to set down in the Middle Court, and wait there: the carriages of all other persons having the entree are likewise to set down in the Middle Court, and wait in Stable Yard, or St James's Park, till called: they are then to take up in the same order as they had set down, and pass away up St James's Street.

No carriage will be admitted with company a second time with the same ticket; to prevent which, it must be produced at Constitution Hill Gate and Stable Yard Gate also, where a corner of it will be torn off by the Marshalmen in attendance; and no person can be allowed the privilege of the entree by any other approach to the Palace than as above directed.

MONTROSE, Lord Steward.

WESTMINSTER, May 3, 1852.

This day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorized by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by Her Majesty, for declaring Her Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to
