FRIDAY, JUNE 18, 1852.

By the QUEEN.

A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA R.

WHEREAS by the Act of Parliament passed in the tenth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, for the relief of His Majesty's Roman Catholic Subjects, it is enacted that no Roman Catholic Ecclesiastic, nor any member of any of the Religious Orders, Communities, or Societies of the Church of Rome, bound by monastic or religious vows, should exercise any of the Rites or Ceremonies of the Roman Catholic Religion, or wear the habits of his Order, save within the usual places of Worship of the Roman Catholic Religion, or in private houses; And whereas it has been represented to Us that Roman Catholic Ecclesiastics, wearing the habits of their Orders, have exercised the Rites and Ceremonies of the Roman Catholic Religion in high-ways and places of public resort, with many persons in ceremonial dresses, bearing banners, and objects or symbols of their Worship, in procession, to the great scandal and annoyance of large numbers of Our people, and to the manifest danger of the public peace. And whereas it has been represented to Us that such violation of the law has been committed near places of public Worship during the time of Divine Service, and in such a manner as to disturb the Congregations assembled therein; We have therefore thought it Our bounden duty, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, solemnly warning all those whom it may concern, that, whilst We are resolved to protect Our Roman Catholic subjects in the undisturbed enjoyment of their legal rights and religious freedom, We are determined to prevent and repress the commission of all such offences as aforesaid, whereby the offenders may draw upon themselves the punishments attending the violation of the laws, and the peace and security of Our Dominions may be endangered.

Given at Our Court, at Buckingham-Palace, this fifteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, and in the fifteenth year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

India House, June 14, 1852.

The following Dispatches have been this day received at the East India House:—

The Governor-General of India in Council to the Secret Committee of the East India Company.

(Extract.) Fort William, May 3, 1852.

We have the honour to transmit to you a copy of the further papers regarding Rangoon affairs.

In these documents our sentiments are expressed in warm, but not exaggerated terms: for, in truth, no language could be employed too strong to convey the praise which is justly due to the gallantry, the fortitude, the patience, temper and discipline which have been exhibited during the several operations on the coast, by all branches of the combined force, and by those who have led them so well.

We beg most respectfully and most earnestly to commend the services of these brave men, according to their several ranks and recorded merit, to the gracious consideration of Her Majesty the Queen, and to the approbation and favour of the Court of Directors.

We have, &c.

NOTIFICATION.

Fort William, April 28, 1852.

THE Governor-General of India in Council having failed to obtain redress from the Court of Ava for injuries which had been inflicted on British Subjects, in gross violation of existing Treaties, was compelled to declare that reparation should be exacted by force of arms.

To that end an expedition was immediately prepared and despatched to the coast, in the hope that a blow promptly struck against the Burmese Power might possibly lead to a concession of the just and moderate demands advanced by the Government of India, and might thus avert the necessity for engaging in extended and costly war.

The Governor-General in Council has had the satisfaction of publishing, for general information, Dispatches which announce the success of the expedition in the capture of Martaban; in the destruction of the formidable defences constructed along the river, and in the assault and occupation of the fortifications of Rangoon.

The Governor-General in Council cannot employ terms too strong in expressing his unqualified approbation of the brilliant service which has thus been performed, and his gratitude to those by whose joint exertions it has been achieved.

His admiration is due equally to the perfect cordiality and concert with which Navy and Army have acted together; to the gallantry which has been conspicuous in the field; and to the fortitude and patience with which all have endured, without a murmur, a fierceness of climate, whose deadly influence is unhappily too well attested by the number of those who have fallen victims to its effects.

The Governor-General in Council especially desires to offer to the Commander-in-Chief of Her Majesty's Naval Forces in these seas his warm acknowledgments of the ready co-operation and of the very effective aid which his Excellency has afforded to the Government of India by the powerful squadron under his command, whose operations he has so ably directed, and in whose services he has borne so distinguished a part.

To Lieutenant-General Godwin, commanding the Forces in Ava, the Governor-General in Council begs leave to tender his most full and cordial thanks for the manner in which, by his intrepidity, his energy, and ability, he has brought the military operations of the force to their present successful issue; and to congratulate him upon having thus won fresh and higher honours upon the same scene on which he formerly gained so much distinction.

The Governor-General in Council has great satisfaction in publicly rendering to Commodore Lambert his sincere acknowledgments of the promptitude with which he gave his assistance to the Government of India, of his constant exertion on its behalf during a trying service, and especially of the prominent share he has now borne in the destruction of the river defences; thus materially facilitating the movements of the squadron, and the ultimate success of the attack.

The best thanks of the Governor-General in Council are due to Brigadier Elliot commanding the Madras Brigade, and to Lieutenant-Colonel Reynolds, who, after having taken a part in every operation of the troops, has assumed the command of the Bengal Brigade, from which illness, which the Governor-General in Council regrets, has removed Brigadier Warren.

The Governor-General in Council is happy to record his appreciation of the essential service rendered by Captain Lynch, the senior officer of the Indian Navy, to whose ability, judgment, and discretion his Excellency the Rear-Admiral has borne his testimony on this occasion.

And his Lordship in Council at the same time desires to mark his sense of the services of Commander Mellersh, of Commander Fishbourne, by whose aid the Government has largely profited, of Commander Tarleton, Commander Luard, Lieutenant Rice, R.N., Captain Neblett, of H. C. Steamer Phlegethon, and of Surgeon Minter, whose personal exertions have been severally commended by his Excellency.

The Governor-General in Council has to add his warm acknowledgments of the valuable assistance afforded during the attack on the land defences of Rangoon by Lieutenant Dorville, R.N., and the Naval Brigade under his orders.

The Governor-General in Council has further remarked with gratification the distinguished conduct of Captain Brooking, of H. C. Steamer Proserpine. His Lordship in Council wishes to express his warm approbation of conduct which has elicited the applause, both of the Admiral and of the General who witnessed it.

The conspicuous gallantry of Major Fraser, commanding the Engineers, and his indefatigable exertions since the expedition was resolved upon, more especially in the field, command the highest praise, and the best thanks of the Supreme Government.

To Lieutenant-Colonel Foord, commanding the Artillery; to Major Turton and Major Reid, of the Bengal Artillery; to Major Montgomery, of the Madras Artillery; to Lieutenant-Colonel Coote, of Her Majesty's 18th, who has been severely wounded; to Lieutenant-Colonel Thomson, of the 40th Native Infantry; to Lieutenant-Colonel Johnson, of 26th Madras Native Infantry, and to Major Lockhart, of Her Majesty's 80th Regiment; to Captain Mayhew, Deputy Adjutant-General, whose value is specially remarked; to Captain Allan, Deputy Quartermaster-General; to Captain Call and Captain Smith, Brigade Majors; to Lieutenant Robertson, Deputy Commissary of Ordnance; to Captain Gillespie, who led the assault at Martaban; and Captain Campbell, of Her Majesty's 18th; to Captain Rundall, commanding Madras Sappers and Miners; to Captain Chads and Lieutenant Lambert, Aides-de-Camp to the Lieutenant-General; the services of all of whom have been noticed with approbation by General Godwin, the Governor-General in Council begs to offer his earnest thanks.

The Governor-General in Council has to offer his thanks to Lieutenant-Colonel Bogle, Commissioner of the Tenasserim Provinces, for the valuable aid he rendered to General Godwin in connexion with the attack upon Martaban; and his Lordship in Council particularly desires to record his approbation of the energetic and successful exertions of the Commissioner in giving effect to the preparations of the Government for ensuring, as far as possible, the health and comfort of the troops to be employed upon the expedition.

Captain Latter, who has discharged his functions hitherto to the entire satisfaction of the Government, has added to his claims by the duty which he well performed in the assault on the Pagoda at Rangoon.

Not only to the officers he has thus specially named, but to all the officers, to the non-commissioned officers, of whatever designation, and to the soldiers and sailors of the force, the Governor-General in Council desires to convey his true and hearty thanks for the alacrity, the endurance, the bravery, and good conduct they have displayed during the several operations in which they have been engaged.

The Governor-General in Council deeply laments to know that our success has not been achieved without the sacrifice of valued lives.

He deplors the loss of Major Oakes, and of Brevet Major Griffith, of the Madras Army; of Lieutenant Armstrong, of Her Majesty's 51st Regiment; of Lieutenant Donaldson, of Bengal Engineers; of Lieutenant Doran, of Her Majesty's 18th, who nobly perished in the front of the assault; and of the Reverend Mr Baker, Chaplain of Her Majesty's ship Fox, and other brave men, who died in the performance of their several duties in the service of their Country.

It shall be the first care of the Most Noble the Governor-General in Council to bring the conduct and services of the naval and military forces on the coast of Burmah under the most favourable notice of Her Majesty's Government, and of the Honourable East India Company.

By Order of the Most Noble the Governor-General in Council,

C. ALLEN,

Officiating Secretary to the Government of India.

Lieutenant-General H. Godwin, C. B., Commanding the Forces in Ava, Arracan, and Tenasserim Provinces, to C. Allen, Esq. Secretary to the Government of India.

SIR,

Rangoon, April 22, 1852.

I HAVE the honour to advise you, for the information of the Governor-General of India in Council, that everything remains quiet in this neighbourhood. There are various accounts of the defeated Burmese Army, under the late Governor of Rangoon, and they tend to the conclusion that he may be retreating up the country with a very small force.

The inhabitants of the villages around visit Rangoon, and bring in various articles for sale. The old inhabitants are partially settling themselves in the vicinity of the Old Town; and great numbers of Burmese are in our employ as coolies.

It has been reported to me that a detachment of the 26th Madras Native Infantry, in garrison at Martaban, had marched against a post occupied by the enemy, which it most spiritedly routed on the 11th inst., without loss; and that, on the 14th the pickets at Martaban were attacked, and the enemy beaten off with great spirit by the same corps, commanded by Captain Welch, at a very trifling loss. All this will, I have no doubt, subside on the fall of Rangoon becoming known.

I sincerely regret having omitted to bring to the notice of the Governor-General in Council, in my Dispatch of the 18th inst., how much I am indebted to Mr Crisp, Junior, for his able assistance in conducting the army through very difficult ground on its progress to the Great Pagoda, which he performed, under the fire of the enemy, with great coolness and courage.

I rejoice greatly to say the wounded are doing very well. The skill, the labour, the attention, and the humanity of Superintending-Surgeon Montgomerie, and of the Medical Department generally under him, call for the warmest approbation of the Government.

Major Fraser, Commanding Engineer, has been indefatigable in his exertions in his own department, and indeed everywhere, to get this place into some order and cleanliness.

He has requested me to bring to the notice of the Governor-General in Council the gallant conduct of Second Lieutenant W. S. Trevor, Assistant Field Engineer, who was the first on the ladder, and there wounded, at the White House Stockade, on the 12th, as also of Lieutenants Craster (Bengal) and Mayne (Madras) Engineers, who were very forward on the same occasion.

My greatest pleasure, however, is to bring before His Lordship in Council the admirable conduct and temper of this force;—its discipline and regularity of demeanour are unexceptionable.

I have, &c.

H. GODWIN, Lieutenant-General Commanding the Forces in Ava, Arracan, and Tenasserim Provinces.

NOTIFICATION.

Fort William, May 1, 1852.

THE Most Noble the Governor-General in Council directs that the following Extract of a further Dispatch received from Lieutenant-General Godwin, C. B., commanding the Forces in Ava, Arracan, and Tenasserim Provinces, dated the 22d ultimo, be published for general information:

"I sincerely regret having omitted to bring to the notice of the Governor-General in Council, in my Dispatch of the 18th instant, how much I am indebted to Mr Crisp, Junior, for his able assistance in conducting the army through very difficult ground on its progress to the Great Pagoda, which he performed, under the fire of the enemy, with great coolness and courage.

"I rejoice greatly to say the wounded are doing very well. The skill, the labour, the attention, and the humanity of Superintending-Surgeon Montgomerie, and of the Medical Department generally under him, call for the warmest approbation of the Government.

"Major Fraser, Commanding Engineer, has been indefatigable in his exertions in his own department, and indeed everywhere, to get this place into some order and cleanliness.

The Governor-General in Council has great satisfaction in acknowledging the skill and attention exhibited by Superintending-Surgeon Montgomerie; and he rejoices to learn that by the exertions of the Medical Department the wounded men are doing well.

The Governor-General in Council begs to offer his thanks to the officers now brought under his notice; to Lieutenant Trevor and to Lieutenant Craster, Bengal Engineers; to Lieutenant Mayne, Madras Engineers; as well as to Mr Crisp, Junior, whose services has been noticed by the Lieutenant-General.

By Order of the Governor-General of India in Council,

C. ALLEN,

Officiating Secretary to the Government of India.
