TUESDAY, JULY 6, 1852.

BUCKINGHAM-PALACE, July 1, 1852.

THIS day Her Majesty, accompanied by His Royal Highness Prince Albert, proceeded in state from Buckingham-Palace to the House of Peers, where she arrived soon after two o'clock; and was received on alighting from her state coach, by the Lord Chancellor, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord Privy Seal, Sir Augustus Clifford, Bart., C.B., Deputy Great Chamberlain, (in the absence of the Lord Willoughby de Eresby,) the Lord Steward of the Household, the Duke of Wellington, Garter King of Arms, and the Yeoman Usher of the Black Rod, and proceeded to the robing-room in the customary manner.

Her Majesty was there robed, and the procession moved into the House in the usual order;—the sword of state was borne by the Duke of Wellington, the cap of maintenance by the Marquess of Winchester, and the crown by the Earl of Derby.

Her Majesty being seated on the Throne, and His Royal Highness Prince Albert on a Chair on the left side of the Cloth of Estate, the Great Officers of State and others standing on the right and left, James Pulman, Esquire, Yeoman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a message from Her Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their immediate attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, Her Majesty was pleased to give the Royal Assent to

An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis.

An Act to make better provision respecting the supply of water to the metropolis.

An Act to remove doubts as to the constitution of the bishopric of Christchurch, in New Zealand, and to enable Her Majesty to constitute such bishopric, and to enable Her Majesty further to subdivide the diocese of New Zealand.

An Act to amend the practice and course of proceeding in the High Court of Chancery.

An Act for amending the law for granting patents for inventions.

An Act for the relief of the suitors of the High Court of Chancery.

An Act to authorize the use by the Shrewsbury and Birmingham Railway Company of the Navigation Street Station, in Birmingham, and for other purposes.

An Act for making a railway or tramroad from the Aberllefenny Slate Quarries, in the parish of Talylyn, in the county of Merioneth, to the river Dovey, in the parish of Towyn, in the same county, with branches therefrom, and for other purposes.

After which Her Majesty was pleased to deliver the following most gracious Speech to both Houses of Parliament:—

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I AM induced by considerations of public policy to release you at an earlier period than usual from your Legislative duties.

The zeal and diligence, however, with which you have applied yourselves to your Parliamentary labours, have enabled Me, in this comparatively short Session, to give My assent to many measures of high importance, and, I trust, of great and permanent advantage.

I receive from all Foreign Powers assurances that they are animated by the most friendly dispositions towards this Country, and I entertain a confident hope that the amicable relations happily subsisting between the principal European States may be so firmly established, as, under Divine Providence, to secure to the World a long continuance of the blessings of peace.

To this great end My attention will be unremittingly directed.

I rejoice that the final settlement of the affairs of Holstein and Schleswig, by the general concurrence of the Powers chiefly interested, has removed one cause of recent difference, and of future anxiety.

The amicable termination of the discussions which have taken place between the Sublime Porte and the Pacha of Egypt afford a guarantee for the tranquillity of the East, and an encouragement to the extension of commercial enterprise.

The refusal on the part of the King of Ava, of redress justly demanded for insults and injuries offered to My Subjects at Rangoon, has necessarily led to an interruption of friendly relations with that Sovereign.

The promptitude and vigour with which the Governor-General of India has taken the measures thus rendered unavoidable, have merited My entire approbation; and I am confident that you will participate in the satisfaction with which I have observed the conduct of all the naval and military forces—European and Indian—by whose valour and discipline the important captures of Rangoon and Martaban have been accomplished, and in the hope that I entertain that these signal successes may lead to an early and an honourable peace.

Treaties have been concluded by My naval Commanders with the King of Dahomey, and all the African Chiefs whose rule extends along the Bight of Benin, for the total abolition of the slave-trade, which is at present wholly suppressed upon that coast.

I have had great satisfaction in giving My assent to the measure which you have wisely adopted for the better organization of the Militia—a Constitutional Force which, being limited to purposes of internal defence, can afford no just ground of jealousy to neighbouring Powers, but which, in the event of any sudden and unforeseen disturbance of My Foreign relations, would at all times contribute essentially to the protection and security of My Dominions.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I thank you for the liberal provision which you have made for the exigencies of the public service.

The expenditure which you have authorised shall be applied with a due regard to economy and efficiency.

The recent discoveries of extensive gold fields have produced in the Australian Colonies a temporary disturbance of society, requiring prompt attention. I have taken such steps as appeared to Me most urgently necessary for the mitigation of this serious evil. I shall continue anxiously to watch the important results which must follow from these discoveries.

I have willingly concurred with you in an Act, which, by rendering available to the service of those Colonies the portion arising within them of the hereditary revenue placed at the disposal of Parliament on My accession to the Throne, may enable them to meet their necessarily increased expenditure.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I have gladly assented to the important Bills which you have passed for effecting reforms long and anxiously desired in the practice and proceedings of the Superior Courts of Law and Equity; and generally, for improving the Administration of Justice. Every measure which simplifies the forms, and diminishes the delay and expense of legal proceedings, without introducing uncertainty of decision, impairing the authority of the Courts, or lowering the high standard of the Judicial Bench, is a valuable boon conferred on the community and the measures which you have adopted for promoting extramural interment of the dead, and for improving the supply of water, may be considered as the remedy of evils, the existence of which has long been a reproach to this great Metropolis, and may conduce to the health and comfort of its inhabitants.

The extension of popular rights and legislative powers to My Subjects resident in the Colonies, is always to me an object of deep interest, and I trust that the Representative Institutions which, in concert with you, I have sanctioned for New Zealand, may promote the welfare and contentment of the population of that distant but most interesting Colony, and confirm their loyalty and attachment to My Crown.

It is My intention without delay to dissolve this present Parliament, and it is My earnest prayer that, in the exercise of the high functions which, according to our free Constitution, will devolve upon the several constituencies, they may be directed by an All-wise Providence to the selection of Representatives whose wisdom and patriotism may aid Me in My unceasing endeavours to sustain the honour and dignity of My Crown, to uphold the Protestant Institutions of the Country, and the Civil and Religious Liberty which is their natural result, to extend and improve the National Education, to develop and encourage Industry, Art, and Science, and to elevate the moral and social condition, and thereby promote the welfare and happiness of My People.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by Her Majesty's command, said—

My Lords and Gentlemen,

It is Her Majesty's Royal Will and Pleasure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Friday the Twentieth day of August next, to be then held; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Friday the Twentieth day of August next.

By the QUEEN.
