PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to the "Militia in England," it is amongst other things enacted, that "it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to raise, and from time to time to keep up, any number not exceeding eighty thousand private militia men, to serve for the several Counties, Ridings, and places required by the therein first recited Act to raise militia; fifty thousand of whom may be raised in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, and thirty thousand in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three."

And it is thereby provided "that if it shall happen that the number of men to be raised in either of such years shall not be fully raised in the year in which the same is appointed to be raised, the number deficient may be raised as soon as may be thereafter."

And it is thereby further enacted, that "it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, forthwith, after the passing of the said Act, and afterwards, from time to time, as occasion may appear to Her Majesty to require, to ascertain and fix the number of militia men who shall, until other quotas shall be fixed in like manner, serve for each County, Riding, and place; and the numbers so fixed as aforesaid shall be transmitted to the respective lieutenants of the said Counties, Ridings, and places, from time to time; and notice of the same shall be published in the London Gazette, and the numbers so from time to time appointed by Her Majesty shall be the quotas of the several Counties, Ridings, and places, until other quotas are appointed in like manner."
