

And for every ounce in weight above the weight of four ounces, there shall be charged and taken two additional rates of postage, and every fraction of an ounce above the weight of four ounces shall be charged as one additional ounce; and each progressive and additional rate, chargeable under this clause, shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding half an ounce in weight.

And we further direct that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to extend to any letters passing by the post between the United Kingdom and any part of the German Postal Union via France or the Netherlands, or Ham-burgh, nor to any letters passing by the post between the United Kingdom and any part of the German Postal Union, via Belgium, sent otherwise than in the Prussian closed mails, which respective letters are to be charged with the same rates of postage as if this present Warrant had not been signed.

And we further direct that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the exemptions and privileges granted by the said recited Act, or by an Act made and passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the management of the Post-office;" and that all such exemptions and privileges shall remain in full force.

And we further direct that the term "German Postal Union," used in this Warrant, shall include the Kingdoms, States, and Countries of Austria, Baden, Bavaria, Bremen, Brunswick, Ham-burgh, Hanover, Lubeck, Luxemburgh, Mecklenburgh-Schwerin, Mecklenburgh-Strelitz, Oldenburgh, Prussia, Saxony, Wurtenburgh, and the countries included in the postal district of the Principality of Tour and Taxis (Lippe excepted), and that the other terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

And we further direct that this Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.

Provided lastly, and we hereby declare and direct that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any two of them, by Warrant under their hands, at any time hereafter, to alter or repeal any of the rates hereby altered, or the regulations hereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time to appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.
