At the Court at Osborne-House, Isle of Wight,
the 18th day of August 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas there was this day read at the Board a Report from the General Board of Health, dated the third day of August one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in the words following; that is to say:—

"We, the General Board of Health, appointed for the purposes of the Public Health Act, 1848, have, in pursuance of the provisions of that Act, upon the petition of not less than one-tenth of the inhabitants rated to the relief of the poor of and within the township of Baildon, in the parish of Otley, in the county of York, the said township being a place having a known and defined boundary (the number of the said petitioners greatly exceeding thirty in the whole), directed William Lee, a Superintending Inspector appointed for the purposes of the said Public Health Act, to visit the said township, and to make public inquiry, and to examine witnesses as to the sewerage, drainage, and supply of water, the state of the burial-grounds, the number and sanitary condition of the inhabitants, and as to any local Acts of Parliament in force within such township, for paving, lighting, cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with water, or improving the said township, or having relation to the purposes of the said Public Health Act; also as to the natural drainage areas, and the existing municipal, parochial, or other local boundaries, and the boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the purposes of that Act;

"And the said Superintending Inspector having previously given the notices directed by the said Public Health Act, proceeded upon the said inquiry in the manner directed by that Act, and hath reported in writing to the said Board upon the said several matters with respect to which he was directed to inquire, and upon certain other matters with respect to which he deemed it expedient to report for the purposes of that Act;

"And copies of the said Report, accompanied by a notice stating that written statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any matter contained in or omitted from the said Report, or any amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as directed by the said Public Health Act, and the time for forwarding such statements has now elapsed; and the statement that has been received by the said Board has been duly deposited as required by that Act;

"And it appears by the said Report that there is no local Act of Parliament in force within the said township for paving, lighting (otherwise than for the profit of proprietors or shareholders), cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with water, or improving such township, or any part thereof, or in anywise relating to the purposes of the said Public Health Act;

"Now therefore, we, the said General Board of Health, do hereby, in pursuance of the Public Health Act, humbly report to your Majesty that it appears to us to be expedient:

"1. That the Public Health Act, 1848, and every part thereof, except the section numbered 50 in the copies of that Act printed by your Majesty's printers, should be applied to and be in force within and throughout the entire area, places, and parts of places comprised within the said township of Baildon, in the parish of Otley, in the county of York, and that such area, places, and parts of places should be and constitute a district for the purposes of the said Public Health Act accordingly.

"2. That the Local Board of Health to be elected under the said Public Health Act, should consist of nine persons, and that the entire number should be elected for the whole of the said district.

"3. That the first election of the said Local Board of Health should take place on the sixteenth of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.

"4. That one-third in number of the said Local Board should go out of office on the thirty-first day of March in each year subsequently to that in which the said election takes place; but in case the day so appointed should fall on a Sunday, or on a day appointed for public fast or thanksgiving, then the said one-third should go out of office on the day next following.

"That every person at the time of his election as member of the said Local Board, and so long as he shall continue in office by virtue of such election, be resident, as in the said Public Health Act, 1848, is required, and be seized or possessed of real or personal estate, or both, to the value or amount of not less than three hundred pounds, or should be so resident, and rated to the relief of the poor of some parish, township, or place, of which some part is within the said district, upon an annual value of not less than six pounds.

"6. That at the first election of the said Local Board, the Reverend Joseph Mitton, Incumbent of Baildon, should have the powers and perform the duties vested in or imposed upon the Chairman of the Local Board of Health by the Public Health Act, 1848, in relation to the election by owners of property and rate-payers, and should perform all other duties which it may be requisite for him to perform in conducting and completing the said first election; and in case the said Joseph Mitton, from illness or other sufficient cause, should be unable to exercise or discharge such powers or duties, or should be absent, or should refuse to act, then Samuel Clapham, Esq. of Esholt, should exercise and perform such of the said powers and duties as then remain to be exercised or performed.

"7. That the fourteen days' notice of qualification required by the Public Health Act, 1848, to be given by owners of property, in order to entitle them to vote at the said first election, should be given to the said Joseph Mitton, at the house of Mr John Ellison, Overseer, Westgate, within the district aforesaid; or in case he should refuse, or be unable to receive the same, then to the said Samuel Clapham, at his counting-house, Prospect Mill, likewise within the said district of Baildon.

"Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this third day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.

(Signed) EDWIN CHADWICK.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said Report into consideration, is pleased to approve thereof, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby, under and in pursuance of the Public Health Act, 1848, order and direct—

1. That from and after the date of this Order, the Public Health Act, and every part thereof, except the section numbered 50 in the copies of that Act, printed by Her Majesty's printers, shall be applied to, and be in force within and throughout the entire area, places, and parts of places comprised within the boundaries of the township of Baildon, in the parish of Otley, in the county of York; and that such area, places, and parts of places shall be and constitute a district for the purposes of the said Public Health Act accordingly.

2. That the Local Board of Health to be elected under the said Public Health Act, shall consist of nine persons, and that the entire number shall be elected for the whole of the said district.

3. That the first election of the said Local Board of Health shall take place on the sixteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.

4. That one-third in number of the said Local Board of Health shall go out of office on the thirty-first day of March in each year subsequently to that in which the said election takes place; but in case the day so appointed shall fall on a Sunday, or on a day appointed for public fast or thanksgiving, then such one-third shall go out of office on the day next following.

5. That every person, at the time of his election as member of the said Local Board, and so long as he shall continue in office by virtue of such election, be resident, as in the said Public Health Act, 1848, is required, and be seized or possessed of real or personal estate, or both, to the value or amount of not less than three hundred pounds, or shall be so resident and rated to the relief of the poor of some parish, township, or place, of which some part is within the said district, upon an annual value of not less than six pounds.

6. That at the first election of the said Local Board of Health, the Reverend Joseph Mitton, Incumbent of Baildon, shall have the powers and perform the duties vested in or imposed upon the Chairman of the Local Board of Health by the Public Health Act, 1848, in relation to the election by owners of property and rate-payers, and shall perform all other duties which it may be requisite for him to perform in conducting and completing the said first election; and in case the said Joseph Mitton, from illness or other sufficient cause, shall be unable to exercise or discharge such powers or duties, or shall be absent, or shall refuse to act, then Samuel Clapham, Esq. of Esholt, shall exercise and perform such of the said powers and duties as then remain to be exercised or performed.

7. WM. L. BATHURST.

INDIA-BOARD, August 20, 1852.

THE following Dispatches have been received at the East India House:—

Lieutenant-General H. Godwin, C.B., Commanding the Forces in Ava, Arracan, and Tenasserim Provinces, to C. H. Allen, Esq. Secretary to the Government of India.

*Head Quarters, Rangoon,
June 9, 1852.*

(Extract.)

I HAVE the honour to report, for the information of Government, that on the morning of the 26th of May, Martaban was attacked by a Burmese force of 1000 or 1200 men, which was gallantly beaten back by the 49th Madras Native Infantry in garrison there, under the command of Major Hall. The operations are reported to me as follows:—

At about half-past six A.M. of the 26th of May the pickets at Martaban were fired on in a desultory manner by the enemy for upwards of an hour, when a strong skirmishing party, led by Captain Stuart, sufficed to dislodge them. Our loss has been very trifling; 1 private killed, and 1 subadar, 1 naick, and 11 privates wounded.

During the day a party was sent out by the officer commanding, to scour the country around, but they met with no opposition, and the place had been unmolested up to the time of the last report. On the opening of the fire of our guns, the steam-frigate Feroze, which had 200 men of the 51st Light Infantry on board, landed part of them at Martaban, to aid in the defence of the place, and the remainder proceeded in boats up the river, and took the enemy in reverse and caused them considerable loss.

The troops appear to have behaved very well, and the exertions of Major Hall, who commanded the post; of Captains Rickards and Stewart, of the 49th Madras Native Infantry, who commanded the party that went to scour the country; and of Lieutenant Purvis, who commanded the Artillery, were very meritorious. Captain Lynch and the troops on board the Feroze, under Captain Anderson, were as usual prompt, and the good judgment displayed by the former officer tended to the complete confusion of the enemy.

I have had excellent accounts from Bassein, of the 31st of May, from Captain Darroch, whom I left in command of the place till the arrival of Major Roberts, of the 9th Madras Native Infantry. These are highly creditable to that officer, and to Lieutenant Craster, of the Bengal Engineers, and show what a few days' well-directed exertions may do in placing a post in a state of excellent defence.

Captain Darroch further reports that everything is quiet around Bassein; the enemy had left the neighbourhood, and the inhabitants were coming in, in numbers, to seek protection under our rule.

The head-men of twenty-six villages had come to tender services, and to bring provisions of all sorts for the troops.

I have also the honour to report, for the information of the Governor-General in Council, the operations of a small expedition which I detached against Pegu on the 3d instant, under the command of Major Cotton, of the 67th Regiment Native Infantry, to co-operate with Captain Tarleton, of Her Majesty's frigate Fox, in driving out a strong force either from Sitang or Baling, who had taken possession of that city, so lately filled with a friendly population, and where there was a large granary.

I enclose Major Cotton's own report of his operations, which show great promptitude, good judgment, and brave conduct in himself and the troops he commanded.

The particulars, as to the conduct of the officers and men, and also the cheerful assistance given by Captain Tarleton and his naval contingent, I feel assured the Governor-General in Council will appreciate most favourably.

In concluding my Dispatch, I have only to congratulate the Government on the continued good conduct of its troops, on their excellent health, and perfect state of discipline for any duty they may be called on to perform.

I have, &c.

H. GODWIN, Lieutenant-General.

Major H. Cotton to Captain Mayhew, Assistant Adjutant-General of the Burmah Field Force.

SIR, Rangoon, June 9, 1852.

AGREEABLY to instructions furnished me by Lieutenant-Colonel Sturt, commanding 67th Regiment Native Infantry, I embarked on board the East India Company's steamer Phlegethon, Captain Neblett, on the morning of the 3d instant, in command of a detachment of the strength mentioned in the margin,* to co-operate with Captain Tarleton, Her Majesty's frigate Fox, in command of the naval portion of the expedition, in carrying out the instructions detailed in Lieutenant-Colonel Sturt's letter, and I have the honour to make the following report for the information of Lieutenant-General Godwin, C. B., commanding the Burmah field force.

We reached the village Peinkeong the same evening, and anchored; the next morning the troops were embarked in boats, and we proceeded up the Pegu river; when within a few miles, heavy firing was heard a-head, and from information obtained from the Peguers, I learnt that the enemy were in force on the right bank of the river, opposite the town. I immediately landed my detachment at half-past nine o'clock A. M. to attack them, and Captain Tarleton agreed to take the naval force and co-operate on the right. I shall leave Captain Tarleton to detail to Commodore Lambert his part of the engagement. I proceeded in skirmishing order with the detachment along the right bank of the river, for nearly two miles, through heavy swamp and jungle, and drove the enemy completely across the river, in the direction of the Great Pagoda; when, hearing heavy firing from the direction of the boats, I returned to render my aid to Captain Tarleton. I found, on crossing the river, he had had a smart engagement with the enemy, and repelled an attack made by them on the boats; and I was much gratified to hear from Captain Tarleton of the admirable conduct of a section of the Rifle Company 67th Regiment Native Infantry present at it, under the command of Captain E. W. Hicks. The men were by this time (one o'clock) much fatigued, and I resolved to remain for a couple of hours, and then proceed to attack the Great Pagoda, whither the enemy had been seen to retreat, having arranged with Captain Latter, that he should guard the boats with a party of Peguers.

We had not, however, rested very long, when a report was brought from the picket that the Burmese were coming down upon us in great numbers from the Pagoda. I went down and ascertained that such was the case, that they were coming down in skirmishing order, I should say at least 1000 men, and amongst them 30 or 40 were mounted upon ponies. I could plainly discern their leader from his dress and gold chattah. I immediately got my party under arms in extended order, Captains Tarleton and Neblett, the former with 30, and the latter with 20 seamen, joining. When the enemy had got well across the plain, in extent about three quarters of a mile, consisting of rice fields partially covered with water, I advanced with the whole detachment, and after a smart fire drove them into the jungle which surrounds the Pagoda. I then formed my detachment into column of sections, and, steadily advancing, stormed the south gate with the 80th and Sappers, while the Rifles under Captain Hicks extended to the left, and rushed in at the west gate. So sudden was the assault that the enemy had not time to fire their guns, which were found loaded, and covering the entrances to the gates. At the west gate were four guns, two brass and two iron, and at the south gate two guns and two gingals.

We drove the enemy through the Pagoda, and succeeded in killing and wounding a number of them as they retreated down the gateway. It was impossible to pursue them, as the men were much knocked up, having been under arms since one o'clock in the morning, and all overcome by the excessive heat and fatigue encountered during the day.

I am happy to say that no soldier was killed, and only two sepoys and one dooley bearer wounded; this small loss is to be attributed to the fact that the enemy, for the most part, fired too high.

My detachment occupied the Pagoda during our stay, and I employed the time in carrying out the wishes of the Lieutenant-General in destroying some parts of the fortifications surrounding the Pagoda; this was done by Lieutenant Mayne, Field Engineer, whose report I beg leave to attach.

In the town, on the river side, there was a great quantity of rice, which I permitted the Peguers to carry away in boats.

Surrounding the Pagoda there is also another town, in which much rice was found; this I caused to be burnt, after allowing the inhabitants to carry away as much as they could.

The co-operation of the naval force under Captain Tarleton, Her Majesty's ship Fox, and under Captain Neblett, East India Company's ship Phlegethon, was most active and efficient, and I would beg my most sincere thanks and congratulations for success should be conveyed to them, officers and men, through the proper channel. Before concluding this report, I hope I may be permitted to mention my admiration at the gallantry displayed by all comprising my detachment, including the naval parties, officers and men. The union, cordiality, and good feeling which existed, are beyond all praise, and not a single complaint was made against any one during the whole time. I beg to notice, for the information of the Lieutenant-General, Captain Ormsby, commanding a company of Her Majesty's 80th, and Lieutenants Amiel and Fraser, of the same Regiment, and Dr M'Kellar, East India Company's Service, in medical charge, who, in addition to his other duties, displayed great humanity in attending to the wounded Burmese; Lieutenant Mackintosh, 52d Regiment M. Native Infantry, Second Lieutenant Mayne, Assistant Field Engineer, who entered the Pagoda with the Sappers and 80th, and Captain Hicks, commanding Rifle Company 67th Regiment Native Infantry, Lieutenant Clarke and Ensign Thompson, of the 67th Regiment, all of whom rendered me the greatest assistance, and with whose conduct I was much pleased. I left Pegu at twelve o'clock A. M. on Saturday last, with my detachment in progress to Rangoon, and

I have, &c.

Commodore G. R. Lambert, R.N., Her Majesty's Ship Fox, to the Secretary to the Government of India.

SIR, Rangoon, June 8, 1852.

THE Lieutenant-General commanding having expressed his wish that a military and naval force should make an attack upon the city of Pegu, I therefore sent Commander Tarleton, with the boats of Her Majesty's ship Fox and the East India Company's steam vessel Phlegethon to perform this service, in conjunction with two hundred and thirty troops, under the command of Major Cotton, and I have the honour to request you may be pleased to lay Commander Tarleton's report of proceedings before the Governor-General.

I enclose also a list of killed and wounded in the naval force.

I have, &c.

G. R. LAMBERT, Commodore.

Commander Tarleton, R.N., to Commodore G. R. Lambert, R.N., Commanding the Naval Forces at Rangoon.

SIR, Her Majesty's Ship Fox, Rangoon, June 8, 1852.

I HAVE the honour to inform you that in pursuance of your orders I proceeded on the morning of the 3d instant with the boats expressed in the margin,* to the East India Company's steamer Phlegethon, which vessel having embarked 98 men, Bengal Native Infantry Rifle Company, Major Cotton commanding detachment; 100 men, Her Majesty's 80th Regiment, Captain Ormsby; 30 men, Sappers and Miners of the Madras Division, Lieutenant Mackintosh; Lieutenant Mayne, Assistant Engineer, Captain Latter, Interpreter to the Lieutenant-General Commanding the Forces, also accompanied us.

We proceeded up the Pegu River as far as the village of Peinkeong, which we reached a little before 8 p. m. it being then high water. The stream becoming extremely narrow and shallow at this point, I did not deem it prudent to ascend it further, and therefore arranged with Major Cotton for proceeding with his detachment in the boats, on the next flood tide, which I looked for about two a. m., but the ebb ran for 9½ hours, so that we could not leave the steamer before 5-30 a. m. on the 4th. At Peinkeong, Captain Latter obtained information that a large number of Peguers had put themselves under the direction of one of their countrymen named Moungha; that they had assembled on the right bank of the river, where the day previous they had been engaged with a body of men under Mounghawik, the Birman Governor of Pegu. By the villagers' account, the latter had been worsted, and had retired in the direction of Zangauain, situated on the river bank, immediately opposite Pegu. When within about five miles of this place, the chief, Moungha, came off to the boats, and confirmed the reports which had been previously received; his force, consisting of about 1500 men (imperfectly armed), lined the right bank of the river, and advanced with the boats. From his communication with Moungha, Captain Latter was satisfied that the enemy's chief strength lay on the right bank. Major Cotton therefore decided on landing his detachment on that side, while I proceeded with the boats (as soon as the men were disembarked) to co-operate on his right flank. The river at this point is not more than sixty yards wide; the present village of Pegu stands on the left bank, which is steep and muddy below high water mark. About a quarter of a mile, in the rear of the houses, there is a broad ditch, the bottom of which at this season is a swamp; it runs along the west face of the old wall of Pegu, for the distance of two or three miles; the wall has been originally built of brick, and the top (which may be twenty feet above the bottom of the ditch), is now covered with jungle. The village of Zangauain, as I before mentioned, stands immediately opposite; it possesses a small pagoda, and is surrounded by a low growth of jungle.

I had proceeded a short distance in the boats, when a sharp fire of musketry was opened upon us from the Pegu side. Feeling the disadvantage we laboured under by being underneath the enemy's fire, with no effectual means of returning it, I at once landed with the boats' crews of Her Majesty's ship Fox, and was shortly after joined by Captain Neblett and boats' crews of the Phlegethon (see margin),* in all about 50 men. The Burmese fired upon us as we advanced, but were driven from point to point until completely broken; one party retreating by the river's side to the northward, and the other within the old wall before mentioned. Our object being attained, I was retiring in close order to the boats, when a fire of gingals and musketry was opened upon us from the wall; deeming it unwise to permit the Burmese to suppose we had retreated from them, I instantly engaged a native guide to shew us the causeway through the ditch, and then advanced to the attack. We halted a few seconds to gain breath, under shelter of an old house; then rushed in over the causeway and through a breach to the right of the gateway. On getting over the wall we found ourselves among some fine trees, free from underwood; behind these the enemy stood with great resolution, until they were (in many instances) driven out by the bayonet; the defect in their firing was here very observable, as their shot in most cases struck the branches above our heads. We pushed them through to the plain beyond, when they broke and fled, leaving many dead; their number engaged might probably have been 100 men, and they also had a reserve of about 200 more (commanded by officers on horseback,) beyond the reach of musketry. The whole party retired within the Great Pagoda, about a mile and a-half to the eastward. I am glad to say that this service was performed with only one casualty on our side, one man having received a severe sword-cut in a personal encounter.

Information was now brought me that our boats had been attacked by another party of the enemy from the southward; I accordingly hastened down to their relief, and happily found them safe. Mr McMurdo, Mate of Her Majesty's ship Fox, who had been left with a few men in charge, reported that a very heavy fire had been opened upon them, to which he had endeavoured to reply with the pinnace's gun and small-arm party, but the water was too low to do this with effect, and, having one man killed and two wounded, he judiciously removed the remainder to the right bank, sending an application to Major Cotton for support. A party of Rifles returning, fortunately met the messenger, and coming on with all speed, took up a position on the river side, from which they kept up so true and incessant a fire across the water that the enemy were compelled to abandon their attempt, and on our approach, to retreat. Major Cotton, having overcome all opposition on the opposite side, now crossed over with his detachment.

On a consultation with him, it was determined to wait until 3 P.M. before we should advance to attack the Great Pagoda, the men being absolutely in need of repose after so much fatigue under a burning sun. The Rifle Company of the 67th was therefore bivouacked in the wood within the wall; Her Majesty's 80th Regiment on the river face; and the seamen returned to their boats; at 2 P.M. the alarm bugle was sounded, and on my landing, I discovered that the Burmese had issued from the Pagoda in considerable strength, with the evident intention of attacking us. The troops lost not a moment in getting under arms, and the seamen (see detail annexed)* came on shore.

The enemy fell back on our advance, a movement he appeared to have so little expected that many of his men were unable to regain their position in time to defend it, and those who did were so taken by surprise that their fire was ineffectual; and their four guns, which pointed down the steps leading up to the gateway, were found loaded by Her Majesty's 80th, who gallantly led the assault; and this naturally strong place was happily carried without a casualty on our side.

I returned with the seamen to the boats as soon as the Pagoda was in our possession; embarked the detachment at noon 30th; on the 6th reached the steamer at Peinkeong, at 5 P.M.; she weighed on her return at 8 A.M.; on the 7th at noon, she took the ground, and as the tide was ebbing, and there was no possibility of her moving for several hours, I ordered the Fox's boats to take the canoe with the camp followers in tow; I passed them in the gig, and arrived on board Her Majesty's ship Fox at 3 A.M. on the 8th.

I have the honour to enclose the following list of casualties:—

Her Majesty's Ship Fox.—3 seamen wounded.
East India Company's Steamer Phlegethon.—1 seaman killed.

I beg leave to add that the conduct of both officers and men under my orders has been most exemplary, and to represent to you the valuable assistance and co-operation I received on all occasions from Captain Neblett, Commander of the East India Company's Steamer Phlegethon. I have, &c. J. W. TARLETON.
